

Earlier Meet of Congress Backed

Senate Endorses Norris Amendment for Opening and Inauguration in January.

Washington, March 19.—A step toward adding another amendment to the constitution was taken yesterday when the senate, 63 to 7, adopted a joint resolution to have presidents inaugurated the third Monday in January and new congresses go into office the first Monday in January, after election.

The resolution, which was offered by Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, now goes to the house where, as in the senate, a two-thirds vote is necessary for adoption. It approved by the house it will then go to the states for ratification.

Explaining provisions of the proposed amendment Senator Norris in a statement said:

"The congress elected in November will go into office on the first Monday in January following, and a session of congress will then begin. This means that as soon as congress is elected it will commence its official duties without delay instead of waiting 15 months before its members are actually sworn into office as under present conditions. This means the abolishment of the so-called 'lame duck' congress. The old congress will have no session after the election. Not only will the people be able to have their will expressed in the election translated into law without delay, but an old congress which may have been repudiated at the election will have no further function to perform."

Will Prevent "Joker" Laws.
"It abolishes the existing short session. Under present constitutional provisions a congress assembles in December after election and runs until March 4 when it expires by limitation. It is in this so-called 'short session' that all kinds of jokers creep into the law. The calendars of both houses are clogged and everybody knows that it is a physical impossibility to dispose of much important legislation pending. It is in the short session that bad laws are put on the statute books and desirable legislation is lost in the rush. It is in the short session that filibusters are effective and a few determined men can block desirable legislation simply by taking up time.

Covers an Emergency.
Under the present constitution if the people fail to elect a president and the election is thrown into the house it is the old congress that elects the president and not the new. This amendment will reverse conditions and in such a case the president will be elected by the congress fresh from the people. Under present conditions a congress that may have been repudiated elects a president who holds office for four years.
"Under the existing constitution if the people fail to elect a president at election and it is thrown into the house and senate and if the house and senate should under such conditions fail to elect a president there is no provision of the constitution which provides who shall be president and there is no authority given to congress to provide by law who shall be the acting president. This amendment confers upon congress the power to provide by law who shall act as president in such an emergency."

Political Upset in Sioux City

Sioux City, March 19.—Frank Green and W. Stewart Gilman were nominated by the voters of Sioux City Monday to be candidates for mayor in the final election March 31.
All members of the present city council were nominated to run for reelection and the following were chosen to oppose them: Paul Caldwell, Charles E. Wilcox, Charles O'Shonesey and Milton Perry Smith.
The principal feature of the political dope by the nomination of Gilman over John A. Johnson, who was touted as an almost sure winner.
The total number of votes cast for mayor was 17,812, which was 1,432 less than the 19,244 ballots cast in the municipal primary of 1922.

Omaha Woman, Deaf and Dumb Since Birth, Now Talks, Hears

Deaf and dumb for 60 years, Mrs. Nancy Spigle of Omaha, now talks and hears. Mrs. Spigle who lives with her daughter, Mrs. D. S. Finkensteen, 3809 Webster street, has been spending several weeks with another daughter, Mrs. H. H. Donaker of Kansas City. It was in Kansas City where Mrs. Spigle talked to her daughters and heard them answer for the first time in her life. Long distance telephone messages were immediately sent to two sons, one in South Omaha, Neb., and one in Lincoln and to Mrs. Finkensteen.
"My sister was so excited she could hardly tell me about the miraculous thing that had happened to our mother," said Mrs. Finkensteen. "She told me that mother had talked to my brothers over the telephone. We expect to have a large reception in Omaha when mother returns to celebrate."

Farmer Killed as Gun Explodes

By Associated Press.
Grand Island, Neb., March 19.—Leo Griebel, aged 30 years, son of a prominent family and himself well known as a rodeo rider, was found dead in a cornfield near his home fifteen miles west of Sargents. A gunshot wound was discovered in his side and his horse, saddled and bridled, was running loose. Although known to be an expert horseman, it appears his horse became unmanageable and that the gun was discharged when he attempted to throw it aside. He was married only three weeks ago.

Society Scofflaws Target for Attack

Society women who think it an honor to serve liquor at fashionable dinners and who participate in "wild" parties, were bitterly assailed by Dr. Mary Harris Armour last night in an address at the W. C. T. U. state convention in First Methodist church. This class has no consideration for the welfare of the United States and is giving America a dark name, she declared.
"The Georgia Cyclone," as Mrs. Armour is known, gave the history of the rum evil. "When election time comes, vote right, then and there, for the man or party that you think will do the best work for the cause for which you stand and fight," she declared. Crying after election will do you no good. You must think before you mark your ballot.
"The men who evade the 15th amendment are marring the American flag. The American flag for years has stood for fair play and a square deal to everyone, and at the present critical stage it should be respected."
"The law of the United States is true and clean. People of all nationalities are equal. All these ignorant people who disregard or evade the constitution are turning traitor to the stars and stripes."

Des Moines, Ia., March 19.—Four candidates for municipal office, supported by the Ku Klux Klan, were nominated at the city primaries here yesterday. They are: H. H. Barton, for mayor; John W. Jenney, for public safety commissioner; C. H. Kies, for city parks commissioner, and Don G. Allen for municipal judge.

Barton will be opposed at the March 31 election by Mayor Carl M. Garver, Jenney by John Hartly, a city policeman, and Kies by Park Commissioner J. G. Rounds. Allen is one of eight nominees for municipal judge, four of whom are to be elected.
