

Are Men More Domestic Than Women?

Editor's Note—Some writers, and particularly Fanny Hearlip Lea, seem to recognize that there is a veneer of domesticity in much of matrimony, and few there are who have been more delightfully successful in puncturing the atmosphere assumed by either sex.

FANNY HEARLIP LEA

Whose Exuberant Pen Has Scored Far and Wide in Captivating Magazine Stories and Piquant Articles trying, as we all do, stubbornly, to strike a balance in our lives. Domesticity was as we said somewhere before, for aeons and aeons all that women knew. It didn't occur to the poor dears that there was anything to do but be sweetly pretty about it.

Revolt does not come to birth in the contented people; and if our mothers and our grandmothers had been as satisfied as their side-whiskered lords and masters believed them to be...

What Man Wouldn't Lightly Forswear The man doesn't breathe who is so obvious a flatterer in business, politics, or real estate, but what he can lift a scowling brow above his morning paper, at the breakfast table, fasten a gimlet eye upon the female matronally facing him, inflate his chest and growl harshly: "This coffee isn't fit to drink—and the toast is burned again."

Parasol Pine Planted. Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 22.—The parasol pine will be introduced into Arizona as an ornamental tree by Governor Hunt as a result of arrangements made with William J. O'Toole, minister to Brazil, for the shipment of several young specimens, which will be planted in the capitol grounds here.

White Deer Arrive. San Francisco, March 22.—Presenting a picture familiar to the heart of every child who has read Grimm's fairy tales, two white deer, the first ever seen in California, have arrived here from Nicaragua.

Home-making isn't the adventure that it used to be. What with improved machinery, fairly decent service, shops as they are and supplies as they have been, for years—house-keeping doesn't take up all the waking hours of any intelligent woman.

Hope Gone for Japanese Sunken Submarine

Tokio, March 22.—Hope for the rescue of 18 men, trapped in the after compartment of submarine 43, lying on the ocean bottom off Sasebo, was abandoned this afternoon. Efforts to raise the craft or drag it to a position where it would be possible to liberate the imprisoned had failed.

Score for the Women. News from New York tells of a shortage of girl orphans for adoption. Possibly this ties up with the statement from the motor vehicle department of the state of Connecticut that accident statistics show women drivers to be more careful than men.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

CAUSE OF RHEUMATISM AT LAST DISCOVERED

New Oil From Germany Stops Pain Instantly in Many Cases.

For years the cause of rheumatism has been laid to a dozen different reasons. Learned doctors even disagreed among themselves. Only lately has it been definitely demonstrated that the real cause of many cases of rheumatism is the absorption by the body of poisons from some internal infection.

White Deer Arrive. San Francisco, March 22.—Presenting a picture familiar to the heart of every child who has read Grimm's fairy tales, two white deer, the first ever seen in California, have arrived here from Nicaragua.

Women to attract must Radiate Health! BEAUTY is the magnet which draws all eyes—and back of beauty—health—working silently. Red blood tingling through the veins—the glow of youth in the cheeks—the spring of eagerness, of vim, of vitality in the walk—the ever graceful air, unrestrained by care or worry—All the works of beauty. All the charms of beauty.
