Nausea

"In 1919 I got very ill. I was in bed off and on for five months," says Mrs. Woodie Wheeler, of Athens, Texas. "Nothing seemed to do me any good. I tried many different things but none of them would check my trouble. My . . . staid for

"Finally when I was in despair as to myself, a lady friend passed by my house one evening when I had been in bed for several days and was very blue. She recommended Cardui to me. She said she had been helped by it when she had suffered with female trouble, so as a last resort I made up my mind to try it. I sent to the store for a bottle and began to take it. After I had taken one bottle I could tell that I was better. I had been sick at my stomach and it settled that. Nausea had been one of my worst troubles and I was so thankful to be relieved of it. When I finished the third bottle I was entirely relieved of my trouble. . . . My appetite improved and I began to gain in weight. I continued the use of the medicine until I had taken six bottles. I gained weight from 110 to 150 pounds. I could est anything and enjoy it. . . . I have not had a return of the trouble.
