

A Home for Homeless Children . .

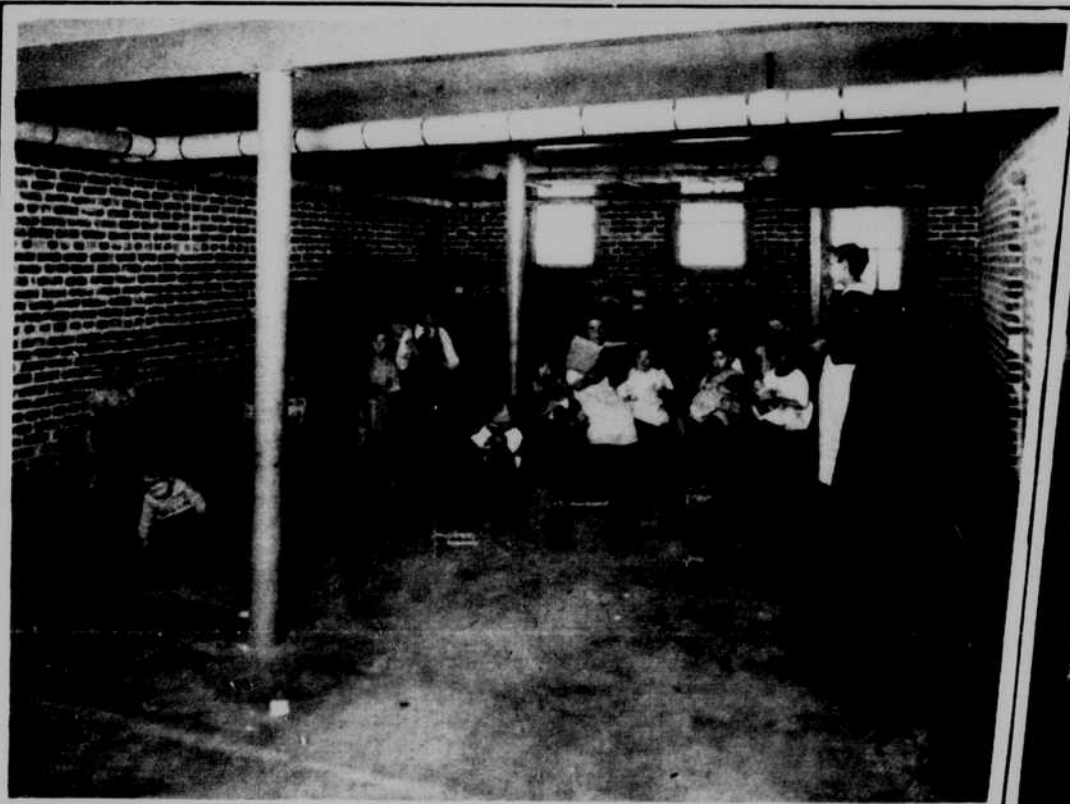

The new receiving home of the Nebraska Children's Home society at 3549 Fontenelle boulevard. It is here that orphan tots are cared for until a satisfactory home for adoption may be found. Photos by Ernest Bihler.

Officers of the Nebraska Children's Home society. Front row, left to right: Rev. Thure Jacobson, Fred W. Thomas, treasurer; Mrs. Paul C. Perriman, Dr. W. F. Milroy, president; Mrs. Edgar B. Penney, A. B. Olson, secretary; Mrs. Ona Baird. Second row, left to right: Rev. R. B. Ralls, state superintendent; A. L. Havens, R. M. Switzer, Dr. Max Emmert.

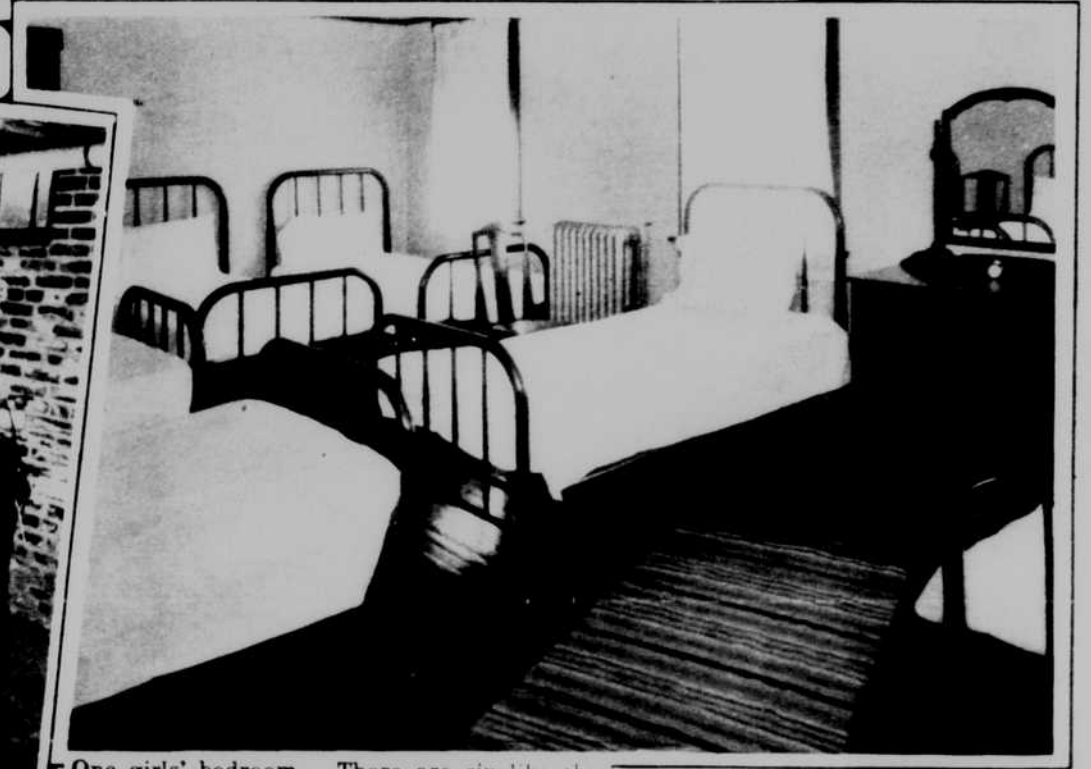

The new receiving home at 3549 Fontenelle boulevard.

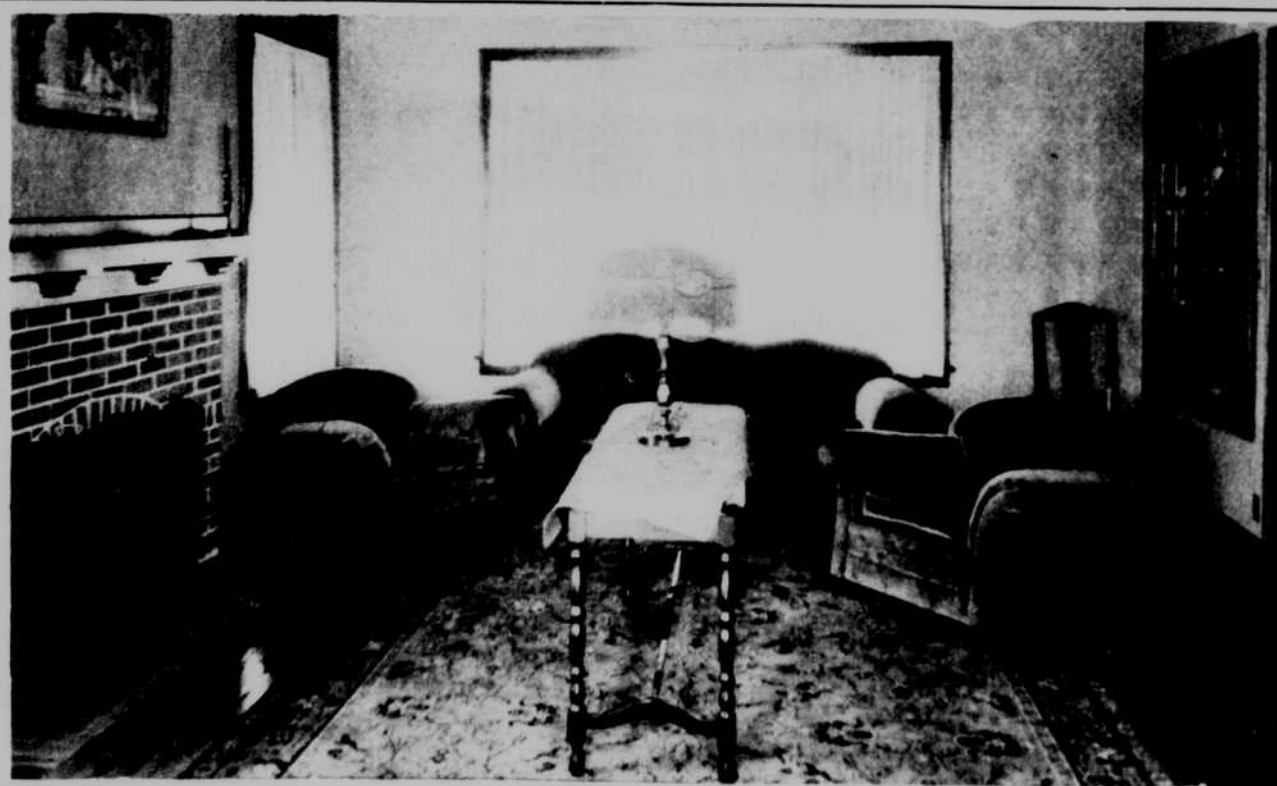

A group of youngsters in the children's play room.

The laundry.

One girls' bedroom. There are six like this on the second floor of the home.

Reception room and library. It is used for the children's study room in the evening.

A corner of the kitchen.

Entrance hallway.

One of the four boys' bedrooms on the third floor.

