COMMANDER FRANK HALEY, of the New York Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans and the first man from New York to be wounded in France in 1917, pictured on the steps of the Woodrow Wilson home in S Street, Washington, displaying a copy of the engraved resolutions he recently presented to the widow of the War President.
