

Lincoln Man Succumbs in Week After Wife's Death

Lincoln, March 24.—Lew Marshall, 57, prominent real estate man, died here Sunday, a week after the death of his wife in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Mr. Marshall seemed well on the way to recovery from a series of mastoid operations which he had undergone in Florida but while attending the funeral services of his wife here Friday afternoon he collapsed and was unconscious up to his death. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon and the body will be buried beside that of his wife in Wyuka cemetery.

Columbus to Maintain Two Camps for Tourists

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Columbus, Neb., March 24.—Columbus will be amply provided with tourist camp facilities this summer, since the Chamber of Commerce has determined not only to maintain but to also improve the present site of the free camp, on the Lincoln highway northeast of the city, and C. H. Williams' pay camp on the Meridian highway, thereby making two camps to care for tourist needs. Both of these camps will be included on the Nebraska Lincoln highway prospectus for tourists. See Want Ads Produce Results.

York Citizens Petition for Improved Highways

York, Neb., March 24.—A petition has been put in circulation by the York chamber of commerce asking the county board for better maintenance of the main highways leading into York. The last two snows were not cleared from the roads. More than 100 signers have been secured, among them being commercial men who have complained of the high ways both in winter and summer. A copy of the petition will be mailed to the federal highway commissioner, district commissioner, the state engineer and each member of the county board.

Bonds at Premium.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Shenandoah, Ia., March 24.—The $50,000 bond issue for the new memorial armory was sold at auction to George M. Bechtel & Co., of Davenport, Ia., commanding a premium of $1,050. The price makes the net interest rate approximately 4 1/2 per cent.

Red Cloud Woman Mayor Renominated at Caucus

Red Cloud, Neb., March 24.—At a caucus of citizens Miss Mary Peterson, who has served as mayor for two years, was nominated for another term. Isadore Johnson and Al Huffman were nominated for councilmen, and William Hansen city clerk.
