Meidell-Munroe

At a very pretty Eastertide wedding, in Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church Wednesday evening, Miss Maude Cook Munroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Munroe, was united in marriage to Charles T. Meidell of Mullin, Neb. Rev. Edgar Ernst performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a one-piece gown of white satin, the slight draping at the right caught in a cluster of pearls. A beaded bodice fell on the left side. Her long tulle veil was held in place by a coronet of pearls, and orange blossoms. These blossoms were sent to her from San Diego by her aunts. Her shower bouquet combined lilies of the valley and white roses.

Mrs. W. A. Smith, matron of honor, wore a sunburst crepe lizarde made sleeveless, the skirt slightly draped, with a scarf train. She carried a shower of pink roses.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of crepe lizarde, close fitting as to bodice and bouffant of skirt. They were trimmed with hand-made flowers. Miss Corrine Jones wore yellow, Loraine McIlvane of Glenwood, Ia., green, Miss Eloise Franklin pink, and Rhea Whitmore orchid.

Easter lilies, carnations and orange blossoms were used at the altar. Assisting at the reception in the church parlors following the ceremony were Mesdames P. M. Conklin, E. M. Jones, W. W. McIlvane, Edith Franklin, G. M. Cole, E. Whitmore, Misses Marjorie Nye, Helen Bonardin, Thelma Marks, Ruth Crockett, Ruth Carr, Helen Hain.

The bride wore the groom's gift, a platinum dinner ring set in amethyst.

The young couple will be at home, after an extended western trip, at Brownlee, Neb.

Resign Before Being Fired

By Martha Allen

Dear Miss Allen: We are two high school teachers, and sadly in need of advice. We are in love with two of the best looking boys in school, and the school board has asked us to stop going about with them, but we find it impossible to give them up. We have been going together since the first of September. The boys are 18 and 19 and we are 23. Would you please advise us as to what would be the best step for us to take, as we are intending to teach school next year. Thanking you in advance, I would advise you to resign your positions before you are fired! The next step you should take is a step out of town.

Afraid to Speak for Himself

Dear Miss Allen: I am very much in love with a girl, who lives in another town, but my trouble is I don't know whether she cares for me or not. I have met her at parties, but I could never get a chance to talk to her alone, so I wrote to her, telling her how I felt towards her, but she did not answer my letter. Others have told me that she is crazy about me. If that's the case, why don't she let me know it some way or answer my letter, or do you think she thought me foolish for writing to her. I have tried to forget her by going with other girls, but she is constantly on my mind. Hoping to see this in print soon, I am, A. B.

Do you remember what Priscilla said to John Alden? "Why don't you speak for yourself, John?" That was a very womanly remark. There is nothing a woman regrets more than an admirer who doesn't give her a fair opportunity to show that she, too, has a friendly feeling. Write and ask the girl if you can call on her, or ask her to go with you to a party. It will be easy enough for her to say no if she doesn't care. You wouldn't like it if the girl made the advances. I am afraid your friendship will never progress unless you exert some initiative.

Katherine J.—A nice green canton crepe dress would be lovely. Get one of very simple style and have shoes and stockings either to match or silver shoes and stockings. If you get silver, wear a large silver rose at your waist, but have the dress made most simply. If you like shell pink, that also would be pretty with silver slippers and stockings.

Brown Eyes—R. S. V. P. means but one thing: "Respond, if you please." It is a French saying and is used only on invitations where the hostess takes this way of asking her guests to notify her if they are coming or not.

Food Expert Gives Recipes

Twice as many women attended Miss Jean Rich's lecture and food demonstration Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. J. F. Minick, leader of the home economic department of the Omaha Woman's club, as were present Monday. The lectures continue daily through the week, beginning at 10 a. m.

The door fee of 25 cents goes to the club house fund and includes luncheon, which is supplied by local manufacturers and concerns.

A "capacity house" greeted Miss Rich on Wednesday when she made baking powder biscuits and described the variations possible with biscuit dough.

Miss Rich's recipe for biscuit dough calls for 2 cups of flour, 4 teaspoons of baking powder, 2 1/2 teaspoons of salt, 4 tablespoons of shortening (any fat) and milk and water enough to make a soft dough (about 1 1/2 cup of liquid for each cup of flour). Bake in hot oven (450 degrees). This will make 15 biscuits with a small cutter.

A good cake foundation was given by Miss Rich as follows: Half cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 3 teaspoons of baking powder, 2 cups of flour, teaspoon salt, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon of flavoring and 2 1/2 cup of liquid. For
