

Louis Loucheur Member of New French Cabinet

Ministry to Stand for Retention of Ruhr and Fulfillment of "Iron Fist" Policy.

Paris, March 28.—Louis Loucheur, most fervent exponent of the plan to cancel inter-Allied debts, and probably the richest of the French industrial leaders, is now a member of the French cabinet.

Yielding to strong business influences, Premier Poincare this afternoon appointed M. Loucheur as minister of commerce and communications.

As completed today, the new cabinet stands:

1. For the retention of the Ruhr as a guarantee until Germany pays in full.

2. For the fulfillment of Premier Poincare's "iron fist" foreign policy.

Meanwhile, Jacques Bainville, in tonight's Liberte, hints that a strong French cabinet is deemed absolutely necessary because inside information leads French diplomats to believe that Premier Ramsay MacDonald of England will base his internationalist policy on the report of the Dawes committee of experts. It is not believed that France can accept the fundamental clauses of the report.

The cabinet tonight stands:

Premier and foreign minister: M. Poincare.

Minister of colonies: M. Fabru.

Minister of war: M. Maginot.

Minister of commerce and communications: M. Loucheur.

Minister of public works: M. Le Trocquer.

Minister of the interior: D. Delors.

Minister of liberated regions: M. Marin.

Minister of finances: M. Marsal.

Minister of education: M. DeJouvenal.

Minister of labor and hygiene: M. Vincent.

The ministries of justice and agriculture have not yet been filled.

The first meeting of the new cabinet was held at 3 this afternoon. Premier Poincare presiding. The meeting was held in his offices at Quai D'Orsay.

EXPLOSION SINKS RUM BOAT CHASER

Jacksonville, Fla., March 27.—The 60-foot converted submarine chaser Russ, owned by Sheriff W. H. Bowling and used by him in apprehending rum runners off the Florida coast, sank 10 miles at sea this afternoon following a terrific explosion.

Sheriff Bowling, H. L. Duncan, divisional prohibition chief for Florida and Porto Rico, and members of the crew got off the Russ before it went down.

H. L. Duncan is well known in Omaha.

Until recently he was division chief for this prohibition enforcement area with headquarters in Minneapolis. He was succeeded by Capt. A. C. Townsend, former Omahan.

GEN. LUDENDORFF TRIAL CONCLUDES

Munich, March 28.—The trial of General Ludendorff, Adolph Hitler and their co-defendants, charged with treason for their part in the "putsch" of last November, came to an end today, having extended over five weeks.

The president of the court announced that the verdict would be rendered Tuesday next. All of the accused made final declamatory speeches glorifying what they had done and denouncing the government.

Two Die in Chair.

Huntsville, Tex., March 28.—Ernest Lawson and Blaine Dyer, negroes, were electrocuted at the state penitentiary here shortly after midnight.

Lawson was convicted of the slaying of John R. Crain, a night watchman, and Dyer for killing J. C. Gibson, a policeman, in a drug store holdup in Dallas last year.

Gorki Writes Biography.

Carlsbad, March 28.—Maxim Gorki, the famous Russian author, states he has just finished a work on the life of Nikolai Lenin.

Gorki anticipates that the work will be published shortly.

Blind Man Gives Legs, and Cripple Eyes, to Joint 500-Mile Jaunt

Sawtell, Cal., March 28.—William J. Sterling, blind, and Thomas N. Hamel, crippled, both Spanish war veterans, left the soldiers' home here today on the first lap of a 500-mile hike to Chico, Cal. Hamel sits in a wheel chair and does the seeing and steering for the expedition, while Sterling does the walking and pushing. A Hamel car with a Sterling motor, they call it. Comrades at the home gave them a gala send off, with martial music and a guard of honor as far as the gate.

Men Who Are Making Omaha

James C. Dahlman

Mayor J. C. (Jim) Dahlman is known from coast to coast. Now serving his fifth term as chief executive of the Gate City of the West, he is the one who extends the welcome-to-our-city hand to thousands of convention attendants.

He was schooled in the university of the frontier. In the days when there was not much law written in the books and during a period when men learned to shoot as they prayed.

Jim Dahlman has always been a booster for the city that has honored him five times with election to its highest public office. Born on a ranch in DeWitt county, Texas, December 15, 1856, he came to Nebraska in 1875. The first substantial recognition of his ability was an appointment as cattle branding inspector at Valentine, Neb., then the terminus of the Elkhorn railroad. He was elected sheriff three times of Dawes county and mayor of Chadron twice.

In 1899 he heard the knock of opportunity bidding him to locate in Omaha. During his residence of 25 years in Omaha, Mayor Dahlman has been busy in local, state and national politics. He served on the democratic national committee for eight years, was chairman of the democratic state central committee four years and was delegate to the democratic national convention at Chicago in 1892, and also in Chicago in 1896, when W. J. Bryan was nominated for president the first time.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

Bishop Stuntz to Return April 11

Sufficiently Recovered From Paralytic Stroke to Come Back on Stretcher.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.

Miami, Fla., March 27.—Two months after leaving his home in Omaha for the southern Bible conference in Miami, Bishop Homer C. Stuntz will be brought back on a stretcher. Bishop Stuntz has sufficiently recovered after a stroke February 12 to be moved, and will leave here April 5, accompanied by his wife and a nurse.

At Chicago the party will be joined by Clyde Stuntz, missionary, coming directly from Calcutta, India. They will reach Omaha, April 11.

The misfortune of Bishop Stuntz is expected to come up for discussion at the pending general session of the Methodist Episcopal church. Bishop Stuntz will not be able to resume his duties at least for a long time and the question of a successor undoubtedly will be discussed at the conference.

Bishop Stuntz, who is 65 years old, and an unusually robust man, was stricken with paralysis in his hotel room upon his arrival in Miami. He has been slowly recovering. He is able to move his right arm and leg, but is helpless on the left side. He has been able to talk but only in the last few days his facial expression returned and now only partially. Generally, he has been mentally alert and his memory is good but has had occasional lapses.

The bishop hopes to be able to walk after several months, but doctors fear his recovery will be extremely slow.

The illness of Bishop Stuntz has brought inquiries from all parts of the world, as he has served in Calcutta, Buenos Aires and Manila and was a leader in the Methodist Church of the World.

When the radio station broadcast that announcements of his condition would cease, protests were received from many countries.

It may be said of Jim Dahlman that in 1895 he was appointed delegate by Governor Silas A. Holcomb to the Transmississippi congress at Omaha, and was one of a committee of five appointed by the chairman, recommending that an exposition be held, and he arranged with W. J. Bryan to head the fight which resulted in Omaha being selected as the city for the Transmississippi exposition, which was successfully held in this city during 1898.

A Thousand Specials

SATURDAY

SUITS COATS DRESSES

Thorne Cash and Carry

Bargains

Thorne's Shop

1212 Farnam

Men Who Are Making Omaha

Mayor J. C. (Jim) Dahlman is known from coast to coast. Now serving his fifth term as chief executive of the Gate City of the West, he is the one who extends the welcome-to-our-city hand to thousands of convention attendants.

He was schooled in the university of the frontier. In the days when there was not much law written in the books and during a period when men learned to shoot as they prayed.

Jim Dahlman has always been a booster for the city that has honored him five times with election to its highest public office. Born on a ranch in DeWitt county, Texas, December 15, 1856, he came to Nebraska in 1875. The first substantial recognition of his ability was an appointment as cattle branding inspector at Valentine, Neb., then the terminus of the Elkhorn railroad. He was elected sheriff three times of Dawes county and mayor of Chadron twice.

In 1899 he heard the knock of opportunity bidding him to locate in Omaha. During his residence of 25 years in Omaha, Mayor Dahlman has been busy in local, state and national politics. He served on the democratic national committee for eight years, was chairman of the democratic state central committee four years and was delegate to the democratic national convention at Chicago in 1892, and also in Chicago in 1896, when W. J. Bryan was nominated for president the first time.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.

During 1906 he was elected the first time as mayor of Omaha. He served four successive terms as mayor, was out three years, and was elected again three years ago. During the period he was out of the city hall he was United States marshal for this district.