

Orchid Blanket Covers Casket

Eighty-Five Pieces Included in Floral Display at Funeral.

One of the largest displays of flowers ever seen at an Omaha funeral was that at the rites held Saturday afternoon at 2 for Mrs. Jessie B. Eppley, late mother of Eugene Eppley, at the Burket chapel.

Over the casket was draped a blanket of orchids. Eighty-five pieces were received from individuals and business firms, many of them tributes

Teeth Stains Bleached Out New Safe Way

Say Goodbye to dull, yellow stained teeth! For a new harmless treatment—Bleachodent Combination—bleaches away the stains and makes teeth flashing white—often in just three minutes! Treatment consists of a mild safe liquid which cures and softens the stains—and a new kind of paste, which gently removes the softened stains and used daily prevents the formation of new stains. Does not affect enamel as its mild ingredients are especially combined to act only on surface stains—not on the enamel itself. Only a safe, mild preparation like Bleachodent Combination should be used on children's teeth which are naturally soft and sensitive, and which are especially subject to stains and decay. Fine for the gums. Get Bleachodent Combination today for few cents at all good dealers, such as Brandeis store, Sherman & McConnell drug company and Beaton Drug company.

from organizations with which Eugene Eppley is associated. Mrs. Eppley died March 29 at Long Beach, Cal. Services were held there March 22. The body was laid to rest in a receiving vault at Forest Lawn cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Private Ledger of 1826 Shows Rum 25 Cents Quart, Calico 50 Cents Yard

Prices of today compared with 100 years ago would give the youth of today something to think about, declares Tom Rivington, 617 South Eighteenth street, who offers an old clipping of an article written about a private journal kept in 1826.

In the journal was listed a quart of whiskey sold for 25 cents, 20 pounds of sugar for $2.90 and two yards of calico at $1. Mr. Rivington, who is 70, declares that, although it was before his time, those were the happier days. People then could hang the latch-string out and the traveler was always welcome, he says.

The calico he purchased for $1 was too rough and he charged it to his father. When a vial of laudanum was bought at 37 cents there was no narcotic permit listed.

A needlework cape purchased by Isaac Hull for his wife was listed at $1.25 and two strings of beads cost but 25 cents. Below this is a purchase made by John Lawrence, who bought two and one-half pounds of nails for 50 cents.

Another clipping owned by Mr. Rivington is an article about Dr. John Hunt of Plain City, O., who went to Brown college in 1829.

Dr. Hunt, who celebrated his 100th birthday in 1922, had sent the following expense account to his father: Tuition, $12; room rent, $3; use of library, $1; steward's salary, $2; servant's hire and printing, $2; common bills for one week, $6.40; public fuel, 75 cents; fines, 6 cents.

Hot springs and boiling mud are found in every part of Ireland.

Promissory Note in McCray Trial

Governor Accused of Forging Instrument on Which He Borrowed Funds.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 29.—A promissory note for $9,000, signed "A. E. Herriman & Co.," which it is charged in one indictment, was forged by Governor Warren T. McCray, was introduced in evidence today at the trial of the governor on the charge of embezzling $155,000 of the state board of agriculture funds.

I. Newt Brown, former secretary-treasurer of the agricultural board, testified the note, with others, had been given him by McCray as collateral for board funds which he had turned over to the governor for deposit in the Discount and Deposit State Bank of Kentland, Ind., of which McCray was president until his financial collapse last summer. Herriman & Co. dealt in grain in Kentland, Kentland.

NORTHERN LIGHTS DISTURB RADIO

Radio fans who experienced difficulty in receiving from out-of-town stations Friday night were hindered by a slight interference caused by northern lights, according to A. Greenspan of the Radio Supply company.

Wild Geese Tantalize Mighty Hunters at Wahoo

Wahoo, Neb., March 29.—A big flock of wild geese paid an extended visit here late last night and early this morning.

Arriving about 11 p. m., the geese fluttered and squawked over Wahoo until 4 this morning. All geese hunters in town were roused by the hoarse honking of the visitors, but all they could do was watch the birds wistfully.

Ad-Sellers Sponsor Talk on Northwest

Frank Branch Riley of Portland, Ore., will deliver an illustrated travel lecture, "The Lure of the Great Northwest," under auspices of the Advertising-Selling league, in the Masonic temple, next Thursday evening at 8. The story pictures the scenic wonders of Washington, Oregon and British Columbia.

The lecture was delivered before the league here a year ago and was so successful that a return engagement was sought.

Lions Feature Show at Gayety

Jungle Beasts Leap Through Hoops of Fire at the Crack of Whip.

"Happy Go Lucky," the musical offering at the Gayety this week, includes a vaudeville show of real merit. Harry and Joe Kelso, the leading comedians, assisted by Billy DeLisle put across an Indian club tossing exhibition and slight of hand tricks that would do credit to most any actor in vaudeville.

Feature act is given by Fred Delmar and his fighting lions. The lions jump through hoops of fire and over high barriers at the crack of the whip.

The Whirlwind Four are dorktown strutters who have an abundance of pep and collection of gymnastic dance numbers.

In the musical show proper the feminine contingent is led by Arlene Johnson, a "blues" singer; Florence Darley, a blonde with beautiful clothes; and Elsie Dudley, a lively dancer. Costumes of the numerous chorus girls are colorful and the many changes of the scenery make up a show that is worth going to see.

A formula has been recently discovered by which a factory in Bohemia makes what is said to be practically unbreakable glass.
