

Woman Gets Highest Vote in Election at Kearney

Kearney, Neb., April 2.—The Kearney League of Women Voters apparently was well organized for the Tuesday election. Centering all their efforts on the election of Mrs. John

Hale as member of the board of education, the women gave her the highest vote cast at the polls. George O. Fairchild was the other school board member elected. R. A. Haynes was re-elected councilman in the First ward. Lloyd Peppell was re-elected in the Second ward. J. C. Miller de-

Aurora Pioneer Dies

Aurora, Neb., April 2.—J. Bussey Chapman, 89, died suddenly Tuesday of apoplexy. He was a pioneer resident of Aurora, having started in business here in 1877. He leaves a widow, Sarah Chapman, and two children, Glenn S. Chapman, who was associated with him in the furniture and undertaking business here, and Mrs. Emil Holdgraf, living on a farm near Aurora.

Roy C. Castle Re-Elected Mayor of Falls City

Falls City, Neb., April 2.—Roy O. Castle was re-elected mayor of Falls City, defeating Charles H. Heineman, 1162 to 752. Robert A. Neitzel, Jean B. Cain and Howard W. Morgan were elected councilmen. Miss Myrtle Naylor was elected city clerk and Thomas L. Garvey city treasurer without a contest. Fred Brecht and J. R. Simanton had no opposition for the school board. The entire citizens' party ticket made a clean sweep.

Pioneer Dies at Age of 85

Shenandoah, Ia., April 2.—James Johnson, 85, pioneer and retired farmer, is dead at his home at Westboro, Mo. His wife died several years ago. He leaves three children, all residing near Westboro.

Special Prosecutor Named

Bedford, Ia., April 2.—Attorney George A. Johnston of Creston was made special assistant prosecutor in an order signed by Judge Homer Fuller in the case of Thomas Clary, who is facing indictments for arson.
