Perhaps a few miracles would help to revive faith and fill the churches. Suppose the Rev. Dr. Straton should say: "I warn you dissenting clergymen that you are all bound for perdition and to prove it I shall now change Dr. Jones into a stick of candy." Would not that convert all, if Dr. Jones did stiffen up and slowly turn into

You'd think so, but the human heart is hard. You remember the Arabian philosopher, who said to the holy man: "You may say to me, twice two are five, and to prove it I'll turn this walking stick into live serpent, but even if you change your stick into a serpent, I'll still say, that is interesting, but twice two are not five."

Chayanoff says that Russia will soon take America's place in the grain market of the world, and may soon be exporting fodder and other farm products to this country. He calls American farmers "mere hired men of the capitalists." That is not complimentary, but you cannot deny that the real job assigned farmers is paying dividends to railroads, fertilizer concerns and makers of a gricultural machinery.
