Busey, who was serving an 18 months' sentence for using the mails to defraud, has been missing from the federal penitentiary honor farm since March 21, it became known today. He was sentenced at Vicksburg, Miss. Federal prison authorities said that Busey had "acted mysteriously" while on the prison farm, but that they knew nothing concerning a report that he was connected with the hooded mob murders at Mer Rouge, La.

Committee to Summon Mrs. Hamon

Campaign Expenditures of Late President Harding and Oklahoma Committeeman to Be Bared.

Iowan on Stand Monday

Washington, April 7.—Witnesses passed before the senate oil committee in rapid succession today, but little new information was contributed. They were questioned both about campaign expenditures in 1920 and stories of oil deals at the republican national convention in that year. The committee adjourned until Wednesday after a decision to summon William H. Miller of Columbus, O., and Mrs. J. L. Hamon, widow of the late republican national committeeman from Oklahoma. Subpoenas also went out for William D. Nichols, former police chief of Oklahoma City; Maj. Gen. E. F. Glenn, retired, of Glendon, N. C., and a "Mr. Himrod" of Mooseheart, Ill.

Chicago Brewers Given Protection. Witness Asserts

Washington, April 7.—Prohibition agent testified that eight breweries were allowed to run in Chicago "under protection" in the manufacture of "high power beer." Delving into this charge, the committee also sought reasons for a two-year halt in the institution of legal proceedings to recover from Miller Brothers of Oklahoma some 10,000 acres in the "oil ranch" involved in transactions where fraud against Indians was charged. Armstrong, the continuation of whose story is promised tomorrow, said "local politicians" held up the federal government's moves to stop the brewing. Even in the face of repeated violations of the law by brewers, he declared, federal injunction proceedings were not successful because of official influence and in this connection he mentioned C. W. Middlekauff, assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition enforcement legal work at Chicago, as on whose name had been reported to him as involved in the "agreement."

Candidates Sanguine as Vote Starts

Johnston Supporters, Despite Prediction of Victory for President, Claiming 10,000 Victory.

Dahman Forecasts Win

Vote early—but not often! Polling places will be open today from 8 to 8, except for city commissioners. Voters who attend the polls after 8 tonight will be entitled to the city election ballot only. The moral is, vote early or before 8 tonight. E. L. Bradley, Omaha leader for Hiram Johnson, Monday afternoon made the prediction that the California senator would carry Nebraska republican preferential vote by at least 10,000 over Calvin Coolidge. A. V. Shotwell, president of the Coolidge League of Nebraska, made the pre-primary forecast that Coolidge will carry Nebraska in the preferential vote by not less than 15,000. Dahman Confident. In the city election, Mayor James C. Dahman forecast that his ticket will run from 3,000 to 7,000 ahead of the field of candidates for city commissioner.

SCOTT PROPOSES STATE PARK PLAN

A system of state parks for Nebraska, to be started by making the first state park in the wooded hills north of Florence, is advocated by A. C. Scott, 1922 Binney street, republican candidate for the legislature in the Ninth district. "Nebraska should not fall behind Minnesota, which already has 30 state parks, and Iowa, which has 13," said Scott. "We have just as great natural beauties in Nebraska as other states and the hills north of Florence would make an ideal park with their great historical interest and their natural beauty."

Shippers Upheld in Appeal From Rate Decision

Washington, April 7.—Shippers charged higher rates for short hauls than the published rates for longer hauls on the same railroad and in the same direction can only recover such actual damages as they can prove, the supreme court held today. In an opinion by Justice McReynolds, it declared the fact that the rate for the longer haul was lower than the rate for the shorter haul would not of itself establish which of the two was the unreasonable rate. The question reached the court in four cases. Three came from the Pacific coast, being brought against the Portland Seed company and A. J. Parrington, who won in the lower courts. The fourth case came from Minnesota and was brought by the Great Northern railway against the McCaul-Dinmore company.

EMBARGO PLACED ON DENVER YARDS

Denver, Colo., April 7.—An embargo on outbound shipments of livestock from the Denver Union Stockyards has been in effect here since Saturday, according to an announcement made here today. The embargo is the result of a suspected outbreak of foot and mouth disease. The embargo does not affect inbound shipments. "The embargo on outbound shipments of livestock is strictly a precautionary measure that we have taken in order to study the illness that has developed among a shipment of 68 calves from New Mexico, which arrived in Denver a week ago today," declared Dr. W. E. Howe, in charge of the livestock investigation service of the Department of Animal Husbandry.
