

Mothers' of Youth Attend Court Hearing

Alleged Bigamist Bound Over for Theft of Auto; Second Wife to Aid Prosecution.

Virgil Johnson waived preliminary hearing in municipal court Monday morning and was bound over to district court on $1,500 bond charged with theft of a car from the Advance-Rumley Thresher company.

The three "mothers" of Virgil met in Detective Robert Heller's office Monday morning.

Weeping and clinging to her son's shoulder, Mrs. Copey urged Mrs. Michael H. Ralph, mother of Josephine, Ralph Johnson, his second wife, and Mrs. F. Cockayne, mother of Virgil's first wife, Betty, whom he deserted with a tiny baby, to "be easy with my boy."

Second Wife to Prosecute. Her tears received little response. Betty Johnson, the deserted wife and mother, declares she has "stood too much" and is going to get a divorce. Josephine Johnson will help prosecute Virgil for bigamy.

Since her arrest with Virgil on their honeymoon, Josephine has been in a nervous state at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles Nordin.

While the mother, Mrs. Copey, is desperately trying to aid her boy, the man whom she declares is Virgil's father, her divorced husband, C. E. Johnson, denies the parentage.

Only Curiosity. "He is not my son. I don't know him. I am not interested," he declared this morning. C. E. Johnson did not appear in court.

Only curiosity brought me down to the police station in the first place," he said. "Who was the man with you," he was asked. "I don't know." "You got a permit to see Virgil, didn't you?" "No, the man did."

SLOAN for SENATOR

Charles H. Sloan of Geneva was member of Congress, 1911-1919, and the only Nebraska Republican ever a member of the House Ways and Means Committee. He obtained the enactment of the measures for eradication of hog cholera and tuberculosis in cattle, which have saved millions of dollars to the people of the State.

Republicans of all groups favor Mr. Sloan because of his fine record in Congress, where he produced results for the farmers and workers of Nebraska. They favor him because he has faith in the party of Lincoln, McKinley and Roosevelt as an instrument of progress and reform; and does not believe in asking Republican votes and then repudiating the party; because he has faith in the people of Nebraska and America, and in their ability to work out their economic and political salvation by constitutional means.

"Construction beats Criticism"

Men Who 'Are Making Omaha

Rome Miller is presented as a good example of what industry and thrift, guided by good business judgment, will do. He landed in Sioux City, Ia., in 1876; he was 21 years old, broke and had no job. The last leg of his ride from St. Louis, where he was born in 1855, was in the caboose of a freight train, where the brakeman shared his lunch with him.

Outside of being an all-round restaurant and hotel man, Mr. Miller has found time to engage in a number of things. He served as president of the park board under Mayor Dahlman's first administration; he was president of the Omaha Business Men's association, vice chairman of the original publicity bureau of the Chamber of Commerce; is now on ways and means committee of the chamber. He was president of the Northwestern Hotel Men's association, of the Nebraska and Omaha associations, and a member of the legislative committee of the national association.

Some 10 years ago Mr. Miller established a home at Los Angeles, to which he has now retired in his 69th year.

Government of Macdonald Is Defeated on Rent

Vote in House of Commons Is 221 to 212—Government Not to Resign, However.

London, April 7.—The Macdonald government was defeated in the house of commons today by a vote of 221 to 212 on the rent evictions question. The government's defeat was the result of an amendment to the rents bill offered by Neville Chamberlain, unionist member for Birmingham, opposing its second reading.

The government will not resign as a result of the vote. Premier Macdonald will make a further statement on the subject tomorrow.

The government, before the vote, offered an amendment to the evictions bill providing that the courts should not grant eviction orders on the ground of nonpayment of rent in any case where it appeared to the court that the nonpayment was due to the inability of the tenant to obtain employment unless the court was satisfied the tenant had a reasonable opportunity of applying to the local poor law authority for relief and that authority had had opportunity for considering such application.

William M. R. Pringle, liberal member for Yorkshire, said the amendment meant nothing and the government might as well withdraw it. Premier Macdonald said the government regarded the bill as an emergency measure. It was urgently needed by the prevailing conditions. Eviction orders were increasing alarmingly, he said.

California Packers Buy Hog Supplies in Nebraska

Guide Rock, Neb., April 7.—An average of three carloads of 250-pound Nebraska corn and alfalfa fed hogs are shipped weekly from this vicinity to southern California packers. Saturday an embargo was placed by western railways on the shipping of any livestock to Alameda, Madero, Los Angeles and Merced counties, California, on account of the "foot and mouth" disease prevalent in that territory, but this is said not to prohibit shipments to San Diego packers, and local hog raisers sent another carload out Saturday.

Critics Throng World, He Claims

Revivalist Says People Hungry for Appreciation and Need Commendation.

"We are all adept at criticism, but we need more expressions of appreciation," said Dr. Byron J. Clark, who is holding a revival at the Harvard Memorial church, Nineteenth and Lothrop streets. "It is not enough that we think the good things about others, but we need to vocalize our feelings of commendation. The tongue may be a blessing or a curse. It may speak wholesome words or it may be used as a scourge. People hunger for compliments and grow stronger as friends when we tell them of what it is in them we admire. If this principle was carried out in our family life there would be fewer divorces. The honeymoon should be extended through the years. Flowers and expressions of endearment while our friends and loved ones are living is of much more value than after they are dead."

"In our religious life we need to put this practice into vigorous use. Redemption is a gift from God that demands acknowledgement. Ingratitude is one of the worst cankers in the human soul. It blights and burns every noble quality and reduces to ashes every high and holy ambition." Tuesday night Dr. Clark will speak on "The Cost of a Christian Life." Girls and young women are to be special guests of honor.

Burgess Bedtime Stories

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Something was wrong about Farmer Brown's sugar camp. Yes, all something was very wrong. Farmer Brown's Boy, going around to collect the sap from the pails hung on the maple trees, found two or three pails on the ground. Others didn't have as much sap in them as he thought they should have had. All these

"Ha, I thought as much!" he exclaimed presently.

Farmer Brown's Boy was interested right away. He studied those footprints. They were too small. They were not the footprints of one of Buster Bear's twins, who two years before had been trapped in the sugar house. Those twins must be big bears by this time. Farmer Brown's Boy began to follow the footprints. Presently he discovered another line of footprints in the sheltered places where the snow had not melted. "Ha, I thought as much!" he exclaimed presently. "It looks as if someone has a mean disposition, but I don't know of any one who would do such a thing. I know there are a lot of mean people in the world, but I don't know of any one around here mean enough to do anything of this kind."

Presently he came to a pail that was badly dented. It looked as if it had been kicked around and banged against the trees. Farmer Brown's Boy hurried to finish collecting the sap, and then went back to where the
