

SOCIETY AND WOMAN'S PAGE

A Fig for Fashions, Say Golfers, Donning Sweaters

"A fig for fashion" say the feminine golf contingent who chose this week end for their first play of the year.

Since fashion tells us sweaters must go, we will start a sartorial revolution all our own, for sweaters can't go; there's nothing to take their place.

The only woman seen on the Country club links Sunday was Mrs. John Caldwell, who with Mr. Caldwell turned in an excellent score for first-of-the-season brand. Mrs. Caldwell wore a tan camel hair sweater and brown skirt. In defiance of the decrees which have been issued all winter from Palm Beach declaring these garments taboo.

Mrs. Walter Silver and Mrs. Karl Linniger, who were the only women who ventured out to Happy Hollow Sunday, also wore sweaters and insist they won't adopt anything else. "There's really nothing as satisfactory," said Mrs. Silver. "Sleeveless jackets, yes, but even they can't begin to be as comfortable and convenient."

Mrs. E. V. Arnold, who is noted for smartness of her costumes, was one of the first to declare her intention of standing staunchly by the sweater. Mrs. Arnold played on Saturday, clad in a dark blue sweater and tweed skirt and was out again yesterday with Mrs. Silver, Mrs. Calkins and Miss Mildred Morris. Mrs. Calkins says that if she gives up her beloved sweaters, it will be for a knitted suit or dress, which is really all in the same clothing family, and thus not a real departure.

Mrs. Robert Craig and Mrs. Allan Dudley played at the Field club on Thursday, and both wore smart sweaters in interesting color schemes.

ADVERTISMENT

Ingrown Toe Nail Turns Out Itself

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrown nail reduces inflammation and pain, and so softens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can be penetrated to the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

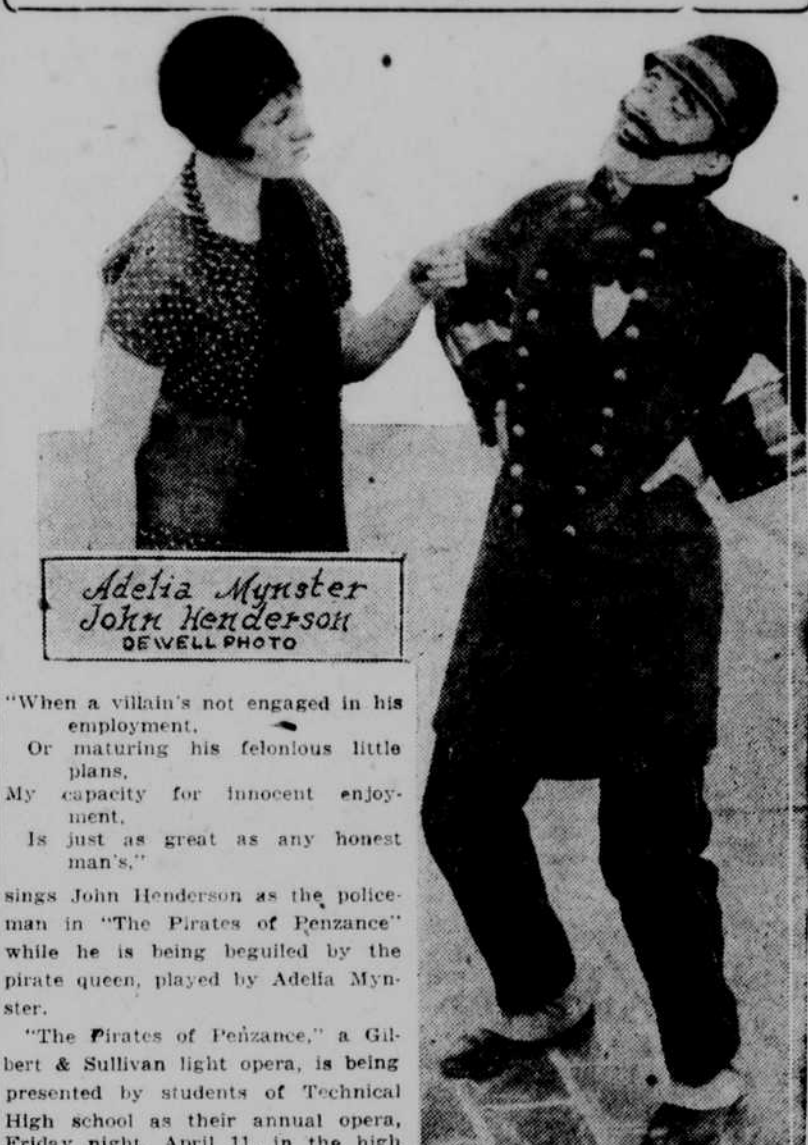

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

ADVERTISMENT

Your Problems

by Martha Allen

Marrying for Money.

L. T.: Now that we have an almost 50-50 world, what are we women trying to do with it? We asked for a chance to earn our living, to vote, to be human beings and not pretty toys—and the chance is ours. Then how can we be so stupid, so wanton and so petty as to marry for money?
