

Do You Remember When -

All successful detectives wore derbies and looked highly prosperous? Fifth from the left is Henry Dunn, now police commissioner.

Walter W. Head, the banker, was a curly headed youngster of 4?

Alfred Sorenson was 17 and handsome?

Charles W. Martin, the real estate man, was 18 and the champ bicycle rider of these parts?

John W. Welch, the restaurant man, was a leading Beau Brummel of Iowa City?

Mayor James C. Dahlman was a prepossessing youth of 15?

The Union Pacific baseball team was the pride of Omaha? Top row, left to right: Cavanaugh, catch; Taylor, centerfield; Whitney, third base; Funkhouser, left field; Rockwell, pitch. Center row, left to right: Dwyer, first; McKelvy, second; Bandle, catch; Visner, left field. Bottom row, left to right: Salisbury, pitch; Petie, mascot; Walsh, shortstop; Sneed, right field.