

Laf Writers Win on Second Trial

Contest Offers Chance to Develop Wit and Profit Thereby.

Where to see Local LaF today:
Woman theater Omaha
Columbia theater Omaha
Linden theater Omaha
Lyric theater Omaha
Favorite theater, Schuyler, Neb.

This is your opportunity to develop wit in writing snappy, original jokes. The interest that has been aroused by the Local Laf contest has been surprising. The idea is to listen and observe as you go through the day's work and play and pick up the nuggets of wit just around the corner or under the surface. Write your jokes briefly, not more than 20 words each, and send them to the Local Laf editor of The Omaha Bee.

The writer of the best joke each week receives a cash prize of $5, the second $3, third $2, and also 12 additional prizes of $1 each. These prize jokes, with names of their authors, appear on the screens of various motion picture theaters in Omaha and nearby towns, where thousands of movie patrons read them and enjoy your humor.

Several of the Local Laf contestants have repeated their efforts until they have won one or more prizes. They have also enjoyed the thrill of seeing their efforts on the screen, an honor worth considering. Begin to day to send in your jokes. Make them original and snappy.

From the LaFs which do not get into the prize division the Local Laf editor selects three each day for this column. Today's are:

Customer—I want some lady fingers, but these don't look very tempting.

Baker—What do you expect for a dollar a dozen—diamond rings on them?—Paul Kistling, Norfolk, Neb.

Customs Inspector—What have you to declare?

Returning Passenger—I declare that I am glad to get back.—James F. Reynolds, 1420 Brown street.

NEIGH! NEIGH!—Is your mother home, little boy?

Boy—Yes; what have you?

Peddler—Horse radish.

Boy—Oh, I know she doesn't want any because we haven't any horse.—Mrs. R. E. Williamson, Nebraska City.

3,465 Head of Cattle Shipped From Columbus in One Night

Columbus, Neb., April 16.—The first full trainload of cattle to be shipped from Columbus to the Chicago markets in a full train for a period of several years was sent out of here tonight, 28 carloads, with approximately 544 head of fat cattle, being taken to the Chicago markets by Charles Carrig, John Dodds, J. P. Donahue, J. J. Burke and Jack Smagacz. During the one night 105 cars of stock, the rest of them for the Omaha markets, were handled out of the local yards, all of them coming off Union Pacific branch lines or originating here, making a total shipment for one night of 3,465 head of cattle.

Homes Near Forest Lane Menaced by Prairie Fire

Columbus, Neb., April 16.—A prairie fire, which was not brought under control for two hours and the origin of which is unknown, threatened farm buildings and homes in the Forest Lane neighborhood near Duncan before it was subdued by efforts of farm residents.
