

SOMETHING NEW IN BANQUET HALL DECORATIONS. This full-size model of one of the latest Canadian Pacific locomotives brought forth a cheer when it was unveiled in the ballroom of the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, the other evening before seven hundred C. P. R. executives gathered to pay tribute to their chief, President Beatty. Mr. Beatty's photo adorns the headlight of the big wooden locomotive, which was built for the occasion.

Light — DIPLOMATS THREE. Sir Esme Howard, British Ambassador, Secretary of State Hughes and Ambassador Jusserand of France, pictured in an informal get-together outside the White House.

FLORIDA PIPPINS. This pulchritudinous trio was chosen by the City of Tampa, Fla. (the East Coast community boasts a population of 100,000), as its representatives in a recent beauty contest conducted at St. Petersburg, Fla., by the American Legion. On the left, Mrs. Joan Claire; on the right, Miss Grace Hanes, and in the center, Baby Catherine Bozzell.

"PICTURE TO-NIGHT, THOSE FIELDS OF SNOWY WHITE." The office boy quartet of the huge Printing Crafts Building, New York, doing their lusty best with some close harmony. The lads, Frankie, Bobbie, Tony and Charlie, are really good, and their Saturday afternoon audiences include both staid editors and the newest printer's devils.
