A new short story every month by

 KiplingRudyard Kipling has broken five years' silence with a group of new stories, as rugged as a Rodin statue. All of these will be published in Hearst's International Magazine. First comes "The Janeites"...a story of the strange fraternal side of fighting men; a striking example of Kipling's penetrating sense of fact, vivid, almost coarse in its bite and humanly interesting. Read it ... in May Hearst's International.

Hearst's International, seeking fiction as stimulating as its articles, brings America the outstanding literary event of the season.
Heart's International also is first to publish the novels of H.G. Wells ... and the short stories of W. Somerset Maugham and William J. Locke... and will soon bring out more of G. K. Chesterton's famous Father Brown mystery stories.
Besides this new story by Kipling, there is fiction as vivid as life by Mary Roberts Rinehart, Beatrice Grimshaw, Peter Clark Macfarlane, Inez Haynes Irwin, A. E.W. Mason, and others... in May Hearst's International c..Bergdoll's Famoes Por of Gold $\mathrm{W}_{\text {is }}$ a MilkPail. He says he drove away from the United Santes Treasury down crowded Washington streets with $\$ 40,000$ in gold in a pail in the back of his car. While Bergdoll was dickering for his return he undertook to implicate Army people very high up as being responsible for his extraordinary escapades before he left

America. Whetiner these charges are true the furure will tell. They are published as Bergdoll related them to Leighton H. Blood. . in May Hearst's International Why Was Grossman the Chicago slloon keeper pardoned? Washmgton for months has been torn wide open with investigations. Now we are on the eve of having liquor brought into the excitement. Louis R. Glavis gives some of the astonishing cases that will be brought out in Congress... in May Hearst's International.
... What Did Henry Ford's War Coneracts Tota? The quickest way to stop war is to draft wealth...is well as men. And Ford to prove his belief in this plan says "Take My War Prohts." Norman Beasley gives a complete record of Ford's war-time contraces and his ideas on drafting wealth... in May Hearst's International.,
...The Eyes... What every one should know about them by Dr. William Campbell Posecy; My Retum to the Theatre .... 2 comparison of the stage today wish the theatre of ten, fifteen and twenty years ago, by Norman Hapgood; The Intimacies of Mary Garden; 24 outstanding features complete the May issue of the only magazine that gives fiction as stimulating as articles and articles as interesting as the best fiction of the day.
