High School Girls Week End at Rush Parties

Shipping clouds made a group of high school girls shiver with apprehension Friday when they contemplated the roads to Lincoln, owing and running with prairie mud, for Friday and Saturday most of them were planning to drive down for a week end of parties at the gouts of the Delta Gamma.

At noon Saturday the sorority has planned a luncheon for these rushers at the Lincoln hotel. In the afternoon they will give a tea dance at their chapter house, and in the evening they will dance again, that time at the Informal Delta Gamma spring party at the Lincoln.

Sunday the sorority will hold open house when the University youths who have fallen for the wiles of the young Omaha enchantresses will have a chance to pay court to the visitors before their return.

The rushes include Misses Mary Vance, Helen Pancost, Kathleen Douglas, Pauline Overton, Eleanor Evans, May Drury, Katherine Johnson, Margaret Johnson, Pauline Parmalee, Helen Krug, Edith Sattler, Eleanor Bonino Brown, Helen Moore and Anne Young.

Almost every week end will be filled with these alluring activities for the seniors, and many desirables are repeating the trip on two or three occasions, as they are rushed by the various Greek letter organizations. Next week the Pi Beta Phi sorority will entertain.

Marriage of Miss Maude Miller to Stephen Brown

A surprise marriage of considerable interest was announced Friday at a luncheon given by Mrs. J. J. Dodds at the Brandeis restaurants.

On August 18, 1923, in Kansas City the wedding of Miss Maude Miller and Stephen C. Brown was solemnized. The marriage has been kept secret from everyone except the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dodds. It is announced at this time because of a change in Mr. Brown's business plans. He has been transferred to the New York office of his company and leaves immediately. Mrs. Brown will follow in a month.

Miss Miller took her pre-medie work at the University of Nebraska and is a member of Kappa Delta sorority. She studied a year at the University of California. In her professional career here, Miss Miller has been associated with Dr. Harold Gifford.

Mr. Brown was a member of Pi Kappa Phi at the University of Georgia. He has been with the local offices of the Equitable Life Insurance company of New York.

Children's Theater.

Children's theater at the Burgess-Nash auditorium, Saturday, 2:30 p.m., will present "Snickety-Nick and the Giant," also "Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil."

The Cass school orchestra will play.

Mrs. Price Hostess.

Mrs. W. C. Price will be hostess for the W. W. club at a 12 o'clock breakfast to be held May 2, at the Pearl Memorial church.

Your Problems

By Martha Allen

Against Hair Dye.

Dear Miss Allen: Will peroxide and ammonia hurt one's hair? Will peroxide alone? If so, will you please tell me of some good hair dye for light hair. Thank you.

BLUE EYES.

Peroxide and ammonia will bleach the hair, but they also dry it, and if you get the least bit too much, all the life will go out of your hair. It will become brittle and fall off. I do not know what to do for light hair that is really harmless. Consult an expert. There may be some harmless dyes or bleaches for light hair about which I do not know.

I do not approve of hair dye for anybody because all natural hair is pretty, or can be made pretty if kept clean and healthy and well coiffed. Dyes make the hair streaked, ugly and altogether distasteful.

Bobby and Billie: I think I'll answer your last question first. I'm doing this because, obviously from the tone of the other questions, you are too young.

Questions about kissing boys good-night are really obvious too, but I will answer you and tell you, "No, don't kiss them." I'm afraid the reason would be a bit above your head, so I shan't bother with that.

I think 10 o'clock would be a good time to leave a dance of the type you describe. If you were chaperoned you might dance till any hour. The chaperones would judge best, but 10 would be wise for 16-year-olds, otherwise.

There is no rule to follow about returning gifts. However, if the boy wants you to keep his little presents and you are still friendly, it could do no harm. If they were of a high monetary value, you would return them as a matter of course.

M. E. M.: I suppose there is really nothing wrong in it, M. E. M., but it would certainly lead to other things, and all in all is best avoided. Reserves and dignity about such things are a girl's most lasting charms, and with a "friend" one wants to command respect.

There are many ways to show one's appreciation, so that you can avoid an out-and-out thank you after an engagement with a person whom you are with a lot.

Yes, you could write first. It would be a matter of courtesy to drop him a line, saying where he can reach you, and that if at any time he is in the city you will be glad to renew your friendship.

Brown Eyes: No, I do not take you for a silly girl, because I think girls of your age who are sensible can care very truly for some one. But if the boy doesn't care for you what can you do about it? If you haven't been able to attract his interest in two years' time, I think the best thing for you to do is to try to forget about him.

Dear Junior Girl: You can't be funny when extending a polite invitation. Word the note simply, and more or less formally, giving time, place, etc., for the occasion. Correspondence cards and the ink used might be in your class colors, provided they lend themselves to such treatment.

Curious: Stamp up-side-down in right corner means "I love you." Stamp placed long-wise means "I miss you." Slanting, "I need you" and in the left-hand lower corner, "I hate you."

Black Milan hats often have circlet trimming.
