Former Senator's Daughter Weds Omahan

Bride Carries Tall Shepherd's Crook Adorned With Lilies.

Thursday night, at the home of former Senator and Mrs. E. J. Burkett of Lincoln, the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Marvin Meyers of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Meyers of Manning, Ia., took place. Dr. E. N. Tompkins of Fort Dodge, Ia., performed the ceremony in the presence of family friends.

Following a wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers will be at home at Edward Court in Omaha.

The bride was charming in a princess gown of white chiffon, heavily beaded in crystal and made on long straight lines and finished with a wide band of white maribou at the bottom. Her veil of tulle was arranged with an oriental headress and finished with rhinestones.

She carried a tall shepherd's crook adorned with lilies of the valley and calla lilies. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls.

Large baskets of gladiolas, sweet peas and Easter lilies formed the only decorations about the rooms.

The six bridesmaids, attired in georgette gowns in the pastel shades and all carrying white tulle-topped baskets of sweet peas, gladiolas and daisies, entered from the side of the lower floor and formed an aisle on the stairway thru which the remainder of the bridal party entered.

Miss Pauline Burkett was given in delft blue georgette, combined with lace. Mrs. William R. Wright wore apricot georgette and lace. Miss Zella Roope was lovely in a gown of pink georgette and lace. Miss Florence Meyers was attired in blue. Miss Victoria Berlet wore yellow and Miss Mary Catherine Edmunds, a gown of green beaded in crystal.

Mrs. Raymond Farquhar, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, appeared in a gown of lavender georgette with a wide girde of satin and carried an arm bouquet of gladiolas and sweet peas in shades of purple.

The maid of honor, Miss Lenore Burkett, was gowned in georgette in shades of rose and carried an arm bouquet of gladiolas and sweet peas to match her gown. Little Betty Jo Farquhar, in a frock of accordin pleated net combined with rose point lace which had been worn by the bride, preceded the bride who entered with her father.

Mrs. Burkett, the bride's mother, wore a gown of white crepe embroidered in rhinestones, with a silver girde, and Mrs. Meyers was gowned in black lace. Assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. Joseph Grantinger, Mrs. H. K. Burkett, Mrs. Grant Watkins, Miss Alice Howell, Miss Mae Pershing, Mrs. Thomas Roope, Mrs. Ira Atkinson, Mrs. Charles W. Bryant, Mrs. Carlisle Logan Jones, Mrs. Dan Derieg, Mrs. David Wilkinson, Mrs. D. V. Stevens, Miss Margaret Hager, Miss Helen Hall, Miss Marian Hall, Miss Celeste Leech, Miss Ruth Atkinson, Miss Mary Louise Bryan, Miss Eulah Winter, Miss Adeline Howland, Miss Elizabeth Shepherd and Miss Sides.

Mrs. Mogridge Dies. Greenwood, Ia., May 2.—Funeral services were held here for Mrs. Mogridge, 66, wife of Dr. George Mogridge, superintendent of Iowa Institution for Feeble Minded, Mrs. Mogridge suffered an apoplectic stroke March 19 and had a second attack at her home here after she had returned apparently, better proved fatal.

Omahans Motor to Fremont. A party of young matrons motored to Fremont Wednesday to be the guests of Mrs. K. Gronstal. Luncheon was served at the Pathfinder hotel followed by bridge. Fourteen were present. Those from Omaha were: Mesdames F. E. Marsh, John Drexel, Joe Havlicek, William Nelson, Fred J. Burbeck and S. J. Alexander.

The Roots to Visit. Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Root will arrive from California May 20 and will take an apartment at the Fontenelle for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Root, formerly of Omaha, are building a new home in Los Angeles, where they now reside.

For the Shepards. Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Bradbury will give a dinner Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Shepard, who have been visiting here for the wedding of their son, Wallace, Jr., and Miss Dorothy Judson.

Profits on "Pinafore." Between $200 and $300 for the club house fund was cleared by the music department of the Omaha Woman's club, from the opera, "Pinafore," given Monday night at the Gayety theater.

D. A. R. Election. Election of officers for Major Isaac Sadler chapter, D. A. R., will be held Saturday afternoon, May 3, at 2 o'clock, Y. W. C. A.

Food Sale. The Dundee circle of the First Presbyterian church will hold a food sale Saturday. Mrs. Roy A. Ralph and Mrs. F. J. Stack in charge.

The Brandeis Hosts. Mr. and Mrs. George Brandeis entertained at dinner on Tuesday.

Old Favorite. Beat one tablespoon of butter to a cream. Dissolve a quarter teaspoonful of baking soda in a tablespoonful of water and add to the butter. Then add one tablespoonful of milk and one beaten egg. Stir in sufficient bran flour to make a stiff dough. Knead well and roll out into a sheet as thin as a wafer. Cut the sheet into two inch squares. Lift the squares with a broad knife on to a greased baking pan taking sheets are best. Bake on the top side of the oven very slowly until they are crisp and lightly browned.

Mrs. Taylor and Her Guests

Mrs. Willis H. Taylor entertained on Wednesday at a bridge luncheon for her two guests, Mrs. Walwood, wife of Dr. James Walwood of Dow City, Ia., and Mrs. Hugh Brown of Kearney. Mr. Brown is managing editor of the Kearney Daily Hub. Mrs. Walwood has returned to her home and Mrs. Brown has gone to Minneapolis for a visit.

Miss Elliott Sets Wedding Date

With her sister, Elizabeth Elliott as her only attendant, Miss Corvina Elliott will be wed the evening of Wednesday, June 4, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Elliott. Miss Elliott's fiance, Roland Coupl of St. Louis, will arrive in Omaha a week prior to that date. He has chosen John Wynn of St. Louis as his best man.

A wedding reception will follow the ceremony.

Additional affairs for Miss Elliott include a luncheon Tuesday, given by Mrs. George Flack, and a luncheon bridge on Friday, when Mrs. Robert Loomis will entertain for Miss Elliott.

Mrs. George Engler will give a luncheon Tuesday, May 21 and Mrs. Daniel Baum on Wednesday, May 22.

Your Problems

by Martha Allen

A Heartless Suitor.

Dear Miss Allen: About a year ago I met a man who at the time asked me to be his comrade—that is to go to the theater occasionally, dinner parties, etc. Later on he declared his love for me and asked me to become his wife. We planned such wonderful times and dreamed of a cloudless future. Then suddenly without warning he left me and will not even tell me the reason why he has given me up. I have asked him to be frank with me, but he simply remains silent on the subject.

The strangest thing is that my disappointment has not made me bitter and cynical and I don't think all men are brutes.

Do you know the wonderful definition of love which Paul sent to the Corinthians in the 13th chapter of his first epistle to them? If your translation has the word "charity," just realize that "love and charity" are related words and that real love is as tender and selfless and generous as charity. Then substitute the word love and read 1 Corinthians 13, and there the high standard of beauty set for real love. Deserve such devotion and it will be yours some day.

Wants to Sew.

Dear Miss Allen: I would like to ask you a question, as you have helped me before. Now, do you suppose that one would find stores in Omaha which would be willing to send material and trimming for real love. Deserve such devotion and it will be yours some day.

Orange Cocktail.

Orange juice, served as a before dinner appetizer, takes on an added zest if a dash of charged water, or better yet, of ginger ale, is added just before serving. This drink has enough of a "kick" so that it is quite appropriate to serve in cocktail glasses.

For breakfast orange juice should be served in small slender tumblers or in shaker cups. The glasses may stand in a bed of crushed ice, but this formality is unnecessary at the ordinary family breakfast table. If the juice is extracted from the oranges the night before it may stand in the ice box all night in a closed glass jar. If squeezed in the morning it may be first put into a pitcher and the pitcher placed in a basin of crushed ice. Do not add crushed ice to the juice itself, as this dilutes the fruit juice and spoils the flavor.

Cream of Oyster Soup

Wash one pint of oysters with one-half cup of cold water, through a colander, remove any bits of shell, reserve the liquid; heat gradually to the boiling point. Let oysters simmer until they look plump and the edges curl; drain and skim the liquid. Make one cup of white sauce, add the hot strained oyster liquid, salt and pepper to taste and cook until smooth. Add the oysters and serve hot with oyster crackers, toasted in the oven for a few minutes.
