

Nebraska Teams Will Debate in League Contest

Central High School Will Represent Omaha in Tournament at Lincoln for State Honors.

University of Nebraska, May 3.—Picked high school debaters, representing the 11 schools that won the district championship honors in the Nebraska High School Debating League this year, will compete for the state championship at the 17th state debate at the University of Nebraska, beginning Thursday evening, May 8, and ending Saturday morning, May 10.

The district championship contestants will be Central district, Geneva; eastern, Omaha Central; east central, Lincoln; north central, Albion; northwestern, Wayne; southern, Superior; southeastern, Pawnee City; south western, Nebraska School of Agriculture at Curtis; western, Elm Creek; western, 2, Parkville County High school, Grant; west central, Comstock.

The 23 state debate contestants were picked from several hundred in the 91 league schools that since January have been discussing the proposition that "the United States should further restrict immigration."

These 11 teams will come to the tournament prepared to change sides on a few hours' notice, as lot drawing may direct. Five simultaneous contests will be held Thursday evening, three Friday morning, one Friday evening and two surviving teams will battle Saturday, high school fete day, for the championship. The championship was won in 1923 by the Omaha Technical High school, in 1922 by North Platte, in 1921 by the Cathedral school, Lincoln, and in 1920 by Beatrice. The arrangements for the tournament are in charge of Prof. M. M. Fogg, president of the league.

To the individual contestants the league will present certificates of honor; to the teams, large certificates to be hung in the school assembly rooms.

Brief sketches of the contestants follow: Geneva, Central district: Roland C. Probst, '24, valedictorian of his class; in two years of debating has taken part in 33 debates; represented Geneva last year at state debate tournament; is president of his class, captain of the football team and editor of the school paper.

John C. Geracke, '24, in 18 debates in one year of debating. Howard W. Hamilton, '25, three years of debating, 25 debates; is vice president of his class, business manager of the school paper, member of the football team.

Omaha Central, Eastern district: David Pellmar, '25, member of the freshman and junior interclass debate team; is president of the Mathematics society.

Sam D. Minkin, '25, is member of the senior team that won the interclass debate championship this year. David Sher, '24, has for three years been member of the high school debate team; is member and coach of the champion senior interclass debate team; winner of the extempore speaking contest of the east Nebraska district this year; business manager of the "Register," the school weekly, and of the "O Book," the school annual. He is also member of the National Honor society.

Lincoln, east central district: Otto K. DeVilbiss, '24, has represented the school in interscholastic debates three years. He is president of the student council and of his class and a member of the Forum Debating society.

John Skiles, '24, member of the interclass champion debate team four years. Everett Hunt, '24, school debate team one year, member of the interclass champion debate team two years. Don Underwood, '25, member of the school team one year. He is president of his class.

Pageant and Program to Commemorate 114th Anniversary of Bellevue Founding

16 Floats to Be in Parade—Governor Bryan and Mayor Dahlman Among Speakers.

A program and parade in celebration of the first settlement in the territory will be held in Bellevue Saturday, May 10, to commemorate the 114th anniversary of the founding of the settlement.

Every civic and fraternal organization, the public schools and the Bellevue Vocational school have a part in the program and the big feature will be an historical pageant with 16 floats.

The Omaha Indians are memorialized in the first float and subsequent floats will commemorate the rivalry between Spanish and French explorers to claim the vast territory now including Nebraska, the Lewis and Clark expedition which opened the Nebraska territory to the fur trade in 1804, the Astorian fur traders who developed the territory, the old French Canadian trappers and voyagers who manned the river boats, the incidents in the life of Chief Logan Fontenelle, the first territorial assembly and the dawn of statehood.

Governor Charles W. Bryan will deliver the principal address at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The parade and pageant will be held at 1:30 o'clock, starting on Elk Hill at the vocational school and forming tableaux in Bellevue city park. Mayor Dahlman and John L. Webster will also speak.

In the morning there will be an old settlers' reunion and elimination contests for the athletic events which are a part of the main program. Final athletic events will be held in the afternoon. The South Omaha merchants have given $50 for prizes for the horseshoe pitching contests and other events.

The committee which has charge of arranging the celebration consists of the following: James O. Kimball, chairman; Miss Laura Kast, vice chairman; Mrs. E. B. Snyder, treasurer; R. C. Blatt, secretary and in charge of program; William P. MacLean, in charge of pageant and floats; Mrs. C. B. Hunt, in charge of platform and decorations; R. Margerum, in charge of grounds; Joe Nicelli, in charge of publicity; C. B. Lehmer, Mrs. W. Shafer, Mrs. Edwin Puls, W. J. B. Kast and B. Sterby.

Organizations which are taking part in preparing for the pageant and celebration are the Bellevue Athletic club, Bellevue Vocational school, Bellevue post No. 339, the American Legion; Oakleaf camp of the Royal Neighbors of Bellevue, the Modern Woodman lodge of Bellevue, the Ladies Aid society of the Bellevue Presbyterian church and the Men's club of the church, the grade and high schools of Bellevue.

The floats which will appear in the parade and the organizations preparing them are as follows: No. 1—The aboriginal inhabitants of Bellevue, Otoe, Omaha, and Pawnee Indians. Float by high school boys.

No. 2—La Salle, with Oriflamme of France, and Coronado, with flag of Spain, laying claim to middle west for their respective countries. Float by Bellevue Athletic club.

No. 3—The Louisiana purchase. Float by Royal Neighbors.

No. 4—The Lewis and Clark expedition encamps at Bellevue. Floats by Woodman of World.

No. 5—The Astorian fur traders expedition arriving in keel boats cordoned up Missouri river in 1810. Float by Bellevue Vocational school commercial department.

E. B. Snyder, J. O. Kimball, Miss Laura Kast.

W. T. MacLean.

No. 6—Marriage of Lucien Fontenelle, the fur trader, with Omaha Indian princess. Float by Bellevue High school girls.

No. 7—First school house in Nebraska territory. Float by Miss Breckenridge and public school children.

No. 8—The Mormon invasion. Float by Bellevue Vocational school, poultry department.

No. 9—First territorial assembly. Float by Rev. Mr. Russell and Bellevue Presbyterian church.

No. 10—Council between Fremont and Fred Barber, '24, valedictorian; in debate work two years. Margaret Yoder, '24, is in debate work for the first time.

Forrest Carter, '24, debater for two years. Perkins County High school, Grant, western, 2.

Helge L. Kraus, '24, in debate one year; won the honorary scholarship letter for two semesters.

Mary-Edna Mowry, '26, has been in debate work one year. She won the honorary scholarship letter three semesters. Leonard Wood, '24, won the honorary scholarship letter two semesters; has had one year of debate work.

WALLACE MAN HANGS HIMSELF

By Associated Press. North Platte, Neb., May 3.—R. Paucier of Wallace, Neb., took his life Friday afternoon by hanging himself in his basement, where his body was found by his wife suspended from the rafters with a rope, his neck broken.

Mrs. Paucier left the home to go to do some shopping and left her husband on the couch suffering from headache.

She returned and prepared supper and while waiting for her husband's supposed return carried several boxes to the basement and found his body suspended.

It is, of course, the merest of frontiers for us to suggest it, but something might come of an investigation of congress if it could be tried.—Columbia Record.
