

Mormons Forbid Polygamy, Claim

President of Church of Latter Day Saints Here for Addresses.

The charge that polygamy is now going on in the state of Utah among the Mormons is false, declared Heber Grant, president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, who arrived Saturday morning to speak on Monday at the Church of Jesus Christ, Tenth and Pierce streets.

Mr. Grant will speak at the 10:30 a. m. service and again at 8 p. m., on the accomplishment of the church. He is president of the church, whose territory extends over the world, the seventh of the line of presidents.

"Seventeen years ago, just before I went to a conference in England, an apostle was dropped on account of practicing polygamy," he explained in defense of his church. "Any man who is found to be guilty of polygamy is excommunicated from the church."

Follow Man's Law.

The church has revelations in its book to prove the right of polygamy, but when laws were made against its practice, the church followed a law of the Bible that the laws of the land should be obeyed.

Mr. Grant, who is accompanied by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Rachel G. Taylor of Chicago and Mrs. Anna G. Midgley of Salt Lake City, is a guest of J. David Larson, Mr. Grant and Mr. Larson became acquainted when Larson was secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, from which post he came to Omaha.

Mr. Grant, who is 69, is a director of the Union Pacific, president of the Zion Savings Bank and Trust company, president of the Utah National bank, president of the Hartford Fire Insurance company, president of the Utah Home Fire Insurance company, and president of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company. The sugar company of which Mr. Grant is president was the first to build a beet sugar factory in this country with American-made machinery.

Father With Brigham Young.

Mr. Grant was born in Salt Lake City. His father was one of the commanders of the ox trains of Brigham Young that crossed the plains. Mr. Grant is over six feet tall and has gray hair and beard.

He is a democrat in politics, but admits he would vote for a republican president if he thought he was the right man. He met the late President Harding at the home of Senator Smoot.

"Politics is like measles," he said. "They may break out with no ill effects, or they may go inward and make you cross-eyed."

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Gospel Need of Belgians, Claim

Situation Dark in Europe at Present, Says Missionary.

Belgium is the darkest situation in present Europe and brilliant Belgium as it appeared before the world war cannot be identified at the present day.

So declared, Ralph C. Norton, missionary to Belgium, in his address last night at First Baptist church on the subject: "Europe Dying."

In the five years that have elapsed since the founding of the Belgium Gospel Mission by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Norton, the necessity of its existence has become more and more evident, the speaker said.

In the five years that the Belgium Gospel has been organized, two Bible classes, 24 gospel missionaries, together with the various tent classes were organized chiefly through the extensive work of the Nortons.

"Belgium is by far the most neglected country in the world," Mr. Norton declared. "In the last 400

Wonders of King Tut's Tomb Told

Rev. C. W. McCaskill Describes Interior as He Saw It in Egypt.

Rev. C. W. McCaskill, Hastings, one of the few men who have seen the interior of King Tutankhamen's tomb and one of the fewer still who was permitted to take pictures of the tomb and its surroundings, spoke to an audience of 300 at the Creighton auditorium Friday evening. The address was given as part of the convention of the Nebraska Society of Science.

In an entertaining manner Rev. McCaskill told of his experience in seeing the tomb of the ancient Egyptian king.

Somewhere en route to the tomb he wandered from his guide and was lost. In trying to find his way back he stumbled into the valley and met one of the officials in charge of the work, who agreed to allow him to look the place over.

Down in the tomb signs of the duration of time since the former monarch had been buried were conspicuous by their absence. The place had been hermetically sealed for so long that practically no deterioration had taken place.

The stairway led to an outer chamber. Behind this was a second chamber and then came a third. All of these had been opened and examined. Many of the relics had been removed, but, even so, said the speaker, the magnificence of the chambers was unbelievable.

Through the third chamber, access to the fourth, where the remains of King Tutankhamen lay, was gained. This chamber was untouched when Rev. McCaskill entered it. It was resplendent in its decorations of precious metals and equally precious stones. Two large carved angs stood guard over the entrance to this tomb. They were inside of the door and had not been seen by the discoverers until after the sarcophagus of King Tutankhamen had been found.

Girl Bank Bandit Admits Her Guilt

She Is Accomplished Violinist; Low Wages Forced Her to Crime.

Bakersfield, Cal., May 1.—Charged by officers with having been the leader of a bandit gang that held up and robbed the state bank at Taft, Cal., March 2, of $5,000, after locking bank employees in a vault, Eleanor Walling, bobbed hair and khaki clad, appeared in court today to plead guilty. Miss Walling, an accomplished violinist, although confessing her part in the holdup and leading officers to the hiding place of the major portion of the loot steadfastly refused to name her companions in the holdup.

"I am pleading guilty today to protect an innocent girl friend," she declared in an exclusive interview.

"I have a record. I won every case. I thought myself smart, but my friends finally broke me."

"I am not asking probation. I want to serve time. It is the only way to lose my friends. I intend going

Successful Complexion - Renewing Treatment

A treatment for sallow, mottled, freckled or blotchy complexion that is always successful is the application of ordinary mercurized wax. This method is sure to succeed for the simple reason that it literally takes off and discards the old complexion. The wax possesses the peculiar property of absorbing the worn-out, faded or discolored surface skin, with all its imperfections. This is done so gradually, the skin coming off a little each day, in fine, almost invisible particles, that no inconvenience or discomfort is experienced—and the most careful observer cannot detect the use of this treatment.

The mercurized wax, which can be had at any drug store, is applied at night, the same as cold cream, and washed off in the morning. The complexion produced in this way, exhibiting the true beauty of health, is not to be compared with the kind made by cosmetics.

WEAK?

WHAT a joy it is to once more feel the tingle of vigorous life and strength after going on for months in a weak, nervous, ailing, run-down state. It just goes to show how vital it is to keep the blood stream flowing rich and red. When the iron in the blood runs low both body and mind fail to work right, but once you put back into the blood the vital elements which are wasted every day a most remarkable change takes place.

Since the discovery of a newer form of iron, like the natural iron in your blood, it has become an easy matter to renew the red corpuscles in your blood and quickly increase vitality.

This is put up in simple tablets known as Nuxated Iron and is entirely different from the old forms of metallic iron which often upset the stomach or injure and blacken the teeth. It is now being used by over 1,000,000 people annually for red blood, strength and endurance.

If you feel tired in the morning, restless at night, if you suffer from weakness or lack of vitality, simply try taking two Nuxated Iron Tablets with each meal for two weeks and note the amazing change in your health, vigor, energy and endurance. You should be astonished at the results in so few days. Satisfaction is guaranteed or the druggist will refund your money.

Nurse Stacey's Suggestions to Middle Aged Women

MRS. H. STACEY, COLLINSVILLE, ILLINOIS

ALMOST trying period of a woman's life is that of middle age, fraught with danger to some extent, and invariably with most annoying symptoms, such as hot-flashes, smothering spells, nervous troubles, irregularities and fainting spells.

When a woman like Nurse Stacey after many years of caring for the sick writes a letter of praise for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound like the following, it should influence other women who are passing through the Change of Life to try it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a root and herb medicine especially adapted to act upon the feminine system. It helps nature to build up the weakened, nervous system, and enables women to pass this trying period with the least possible annoying symptoms.

Nurse Stacey's Letter Follows:

COLLINSVILLE, ILL.—"I could almost write a book in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In the first place my husband induced me to try it and I have continued taking it off and on for years. I have become a well woman from its use and am now taking it through the Change of Life just to be on the safe side. I first took it for backache and a weak condition of the whole system and I think it saved my life and my baby. She is now a mother and takes it herself and I think I can count as high as a hundred women I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to, as I am a practical nurse. Use my letter in any way you see fit for I will stand by what I write."—Mrs. H. Stacey, Collinsville, Illinois.

Another Woman's Similar Experience

"During the Change of Life I was always tired and weak, could hardly do my work and did not care to go anywhere or talk to people. After I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I noticed a change and before I had taken four bottles of it I felt like a new person. I can and always will recommend it in cases like mine."—Mrs. JOE WANER, 1315 E. 14th St., Manitowish, Wisconsin.
