East Hardwick, Vermont.—"Last winter I was not able to do any work at all. I had backache, headache, and was sick all the time for six months. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers, and my husband said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' So I said I would, and he went and got me a dozen bottles. It has done me more good than I can ever tell, and my friends say, 'What have you done to yourself?' You look so well. 'I tell them it is the Vegetable Compound that makes me so well and strong. There is no use to suffer with backache and pains. I will tell every one what it has done for me.'—Mrs. FRED. PRIMO, Route No. 2, E. Hardwick, Vermont.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their household duties. 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

To Whiten Skin with Lemon

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you will have a whole quarter-pint of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

Mrs. Smith Heads Committee

Mrs. Sydney W. Smith.

Mrs. Sydney W. Smith is bringing to the problem of decorating the luncheon rooms of First Central Congregational church on next Wednesday all the talents a genuinely artistic woman enjoys, plus the experience gained when, as a girl, she was often a hostess in Lexington, Ky.

Your Problems

By Martha Allen

How to Become Popular. Dear Martha Allen: I am a young girl and have lots of friends. I don't know just why. I am good looking, but not pretty, but I am the smartest girl in school by a long way. Can you tell me how to become popular? SUSAN.

A sympathetic attitude toward other people is about the shortest cut and the surest road to popularity. I imagine from what little you say that you are tolerant of other people's opinions, and do not think your ideas are the only ones worth mentioning. You must have opinions of your own, of course, but try to be tolerant of other people and their opinions. In your own mind, grant everyone the right to think for himself.

Thank You. Dear Martha Allen: Your nice letter concerning skirts versus knicker-erases, and I certainly appreciated having your opinion. That is just what I wanted—to know that some one else, whose good taste could be depended upon, thought about the matter of clothing. I felt just as you do about knickers last summer, so I did not wear them upon our vacation trip. I always felt well enough dressed when we stopped at hotels, but everywhere I saw tourists in knickers and, as you say, they did sometimes look warm and weary and conscious. The desire was with me to try them myself, though, some time, and later in the summer during a short trip down into Colorado, a cousin offered me here to wear the remainder of the trip. I accepted the offer and wore them, and I experienced such a free feeling and could get around so easily and help change tires and hop in and out of the car so easily. I did not notice the warmth especially, but I did not care particularly about them then. The tweed knickers, I am told, are much cooler than khaki or the heavier material. The linen knickers would not be serviceable for such a long trip. I talked it over with my husband and he said he would imagine I'd rather have on knickers than a shirt, but I am rather inclined toward the tweed sport suit now, and I thank you very much for your nice letter. ## Mothers!

Give the children a piece of WRIGLEY'S after every meal. They all like something sweet after eating. WRIGLEY'S has the sugar to satisfy this craving and the chewing of the gum will help digestion, clear their teeth of food particles and act as a pleasant, antiseptic cleanser of mouth and throat. You would "give almost anything" if the children would keep their teeth clean. Why not reward them with
