

American Legion Rodeo

Omaha, May 20th to 25th, Inclusive

LEAGUE BALL PARK, 15th and Vinton

Not a Wild West Show--A Real Contest of Western Sports

Thrills and Spills for $10,000 in Cash Prizes

A rodeo such as thousands of people travel hundreds of miles to see at such places as World Famous Cheyenne Frontier Days and Pendleton Round-Up

Reduced Rates on Railroads

Recognizing the worth of this attraction the many railroads which come into Omaha offer reduced rates to out of town folks who wish to see a rodeo. It's worth a long trip.

Contests Every Day

America's most famous cowboys and cowgirls will risk their lives, competing for the big prizes for excellence in the various stunts.

Tommy Douglas, renowned cowboy clown, who convulsed visitors at Pendleton, Oregon, and was the hit of the great Madison Square Garden, New York event, will be on hand every day. No one knows what he will do next—but everyone knows it will be funny—funnier than your wildest dreams can now realize.

Program Includes:

- Wild Bronco Riding
- Calf Roping
- Trick Roping
- Cowgirl Trick Riding
- Relay Races
- Wild Steer Riding
- "Bulldogging"
- Cowboy Trick Riding
- Wild Horse Races

Annual Event

The Douglas County Post of the American Legion has the opportunity to make this great rodeo an annual event. Our faith in the people of Omaha appreciating a high class entertainment and our knowledge of the worth of the riders and of the rodeo as an attraction in a community, impelled us to book for this spring event a rodeo. Successful—it will be held each spring.
