THE OMAHA BEE: TUESDAY, MAY 20, 1924. AT THE Men Who Are Making Omaha Adele Garrison access came to him, it was his de-THEATERS light to surround her with the sar-"My Husband's Love" orial fripperies in which her soul delights. (Editor's Note-Although the caption of this series refers to men, the meaning of the term is broad enough to include the women builders of Omaha. A city cannot he built by men alone to The Shadow That Fell on Leila's Lovers of Shakespeare and classic Face. plays will be delighted at the an-"Leila, dear, get out my dresses

Do? A Prince Brings Lions. We Wish; Hope; Foresee. Steaks From a Live Cow. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Today

What Will LaFollette

What will La Follette do about a third party? To that big political question an answer may come this week.

La Follette is honest, powerful, afraid of no man, as issue or com-bination. He has many enemies, and may be proud of them all.

He would get many votes, carry everal states, and in others give victory to the democrats, by taking votes from Coolidge. La Follette took the lid off of the Teapot Dome. His forceful speech in the senate, proved by geologists that the flimsy excuse for corrupt leasing would not hold. That forced the investigation.

Will La Follette repeat Roose-velt's performance and defeat his veit's performance and defeat his own party? Or will he continue working inside the party, as a fight-ing senator? Wisconsin will re-elect him, of course, on any ticket, as long as he lives. But his health, weakened by long fighting for difficult headed by long fighting for political honesty, com-

Ten years more of La Follette in the senate would do more for the public than a campaign of protest now.

La Follette could not possibly be rected. Roosevelt's attempt, which put Woodrow Wilson in the White House, proved that. La Follette might, and probably could, defeat Coolidge, a republican whom he does not like. At the same time he would elect some democrat that he might like even

The fighting, honest senator from Wisconsin must be thinking hard today.

The aged genius and socialist, Anatole France, most widely praised, if not the greatest living writer, rejoices in the French elec-Anatole tion that overthrew Poincare. Socialism will now dictate the policy of France, as it dictates that of Germany, and various other European nations.

You see much of its progress and She encourages the reading of books strength reflected in these words and other publications. She discourof old Anatole France, concerning ages unworthy literature. Her life is the socialist victory: "I wish, I hope, I foresee, a fu-ture of peace and concord," etc. We wish, we hope, the eyes of hope we foresee, and hope gives us courase that makes the "impossi-ble" of yesterday the reality of to-in 188 day.

More important to France than hoping, wishing or foreseeing, is the question, "What will extreme socialists do, now that they have power?" You know that in Europe socialism is not looked upon as it

The library is now serving 38,000 When we are in quest of informaion concerning books, when he wish registered borrowers at the main buildto learn the last word on the "best ing on Harney street, and 15,000 adsellers," we go to Edith Tobitt, the first "book-lady" of Omaha. ditional borrowers are served through schools, hospitals, factories, play-grounds and other centers. These A noted economist, identified for many years with the University of ook borrowers read approximately Wisconsin, stated that persons occu-500,000 books a year.

pied in the useful pursuits are pro-Miss Tobitt directs the administra tion of branch libraries at South Omaha, Twenty-fifth street and Ames avenue, Florence, and Benson. She has a staff of 50 in all departments. The main library has the Byron Reed collection on Library has the Byron Reed ducers, although their products may not be as tangible as the output of a factory. Miss Tobitt has been a producer in Omaha for many years, be cause she has been contributing to the development of better citizenship. ollection, an Indian collection, reading She believes that lives are influand reference rooms, newspaper room, enced by people met and books read. indery and children's room. Last year $8,000 visited the reading and eference rooms. The library has 160.000 books for circulation. in the public library. As an informant on books Miss Tobitt is recognized not only in Omaha but in the middlegenuine interest in their work. The She entered the Omaha library in 1887, was appointed assistant librarian lic library in a practical way. The in 1897 and librarian in 1898. Since she began her work here she, has spent two years in travel and study. When she began her work the library wish a particular line of reading. was located on the second and third Miss Tobitt aids in giving informafloors of a building on Douglas street, tion on systematic reading. near Fifteenth street.

1 4

nouncement that those two famous please," Mrs. Durkee entreated. "I exponents of the classic drama, Robmust look them over right away. I ert B. Mantell and Genevieve Hamper are to appear at the Brandeis theater seen. for three nights and Saturday matinee, commencing Thursday night, over to her. May 22, "Sir Edward' Bulwer Lytton's "Now, Flora McFlimsey, of Madihistorical play "Richelleu," will be the opening bill. This fine old play has been retained in the repertory of the son Square," he chided, "don't begin that song and dance or you'll never get to North Carolina. You want to mother had received during her operthe great actor for many years on ac-start as soon as Katherine thinks count of its artistic excellence. it's safe for you to make the trip, slash had been made in Alfred's that war-torn country has just passed. Mr. Mantell's portrayal of the illus-trous cardinal is a natable achieve-ment. In Miss Hamper is found a Julic, the ward of Riabelleu, that is a Julie, the ward of Richelleu, that is a said, "I'd advise Madge to put you pity for Lella. Naturally her hus charming and convincing character- through a course of sprouts or send band's cohfidant; she must know the charming and convincing character ization. Friday night, "Macbeth," will be presented; at the matinee Satur-day, "As You Like It," and Saturday night, "Julius Caesar." Surely a be presented, ac interval and Saturday spectrum and don't say a word the saturday anight, "Julius Caesar." Surely a feast for the lovers of the best the stage has to offer. "What's the matter with my going out and having a stroll and a smoke objection to her mother-in-law's pro-be presented, ac interval and set of the best the strong that the set of the strong that the

The Lost Boy, meets with much laughing approval. An interesting debut of Sam Brown, well known Omaha dancer, who scores one of the hits of the bfll with his eccentric step-ping. "The Heart of a Clown" and the "Nautical Follies" are dual headline features for the bill starting Saturday.

Something new is on tap for the Wednesday evening. These special novelty attractions have been proving most popular but the biggest fun event of all has been reserved for toorrow evening when a ."Chorus Girls' Boxing Contest' is scheduled, Six girls will participate in the comedy exhibition of "manly" art. There will be bouts of two rounds each and the "championess" will be handsomely rewarded. The contest will follow the first evening performances of the successful musical play, "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway." Channing Pollock, journalist, novel-

st, critic and playwrights, whose latest success, "The Fool" comes to the Brandels theater May 29, 30 81, has Anent the personal equation, it decided views regarding the theater, may be said that Miss Tobitt inspires its past, present and future. He is er associates with enthusiasm, with firm in the bellef that the theatergoing public throughout the country idea of service is reflected at the pub- has awakened to the fact that the better class of plays are the only ones attendants are always willing to ex that are really worth their patronage. tend any assistance, they can to vis- That he is right in this belief is itors who are looking for material or proven by "The Fool," one of the greatest successes that the American theater has ever had.

lancing of Hughes and Merritt are sulkily. "I might remind you also, dancing of Hughes and Merritt are suitify. I noght remnin you used high lights in the current six act my beloved spouse, that Tempus is vaudeville bill at the World. Ed taking her foot in her hand and Blondell's comedy characterization of fidgeting all around the place." "Her Fluffiness" Sees.

> out in the car, just the same as Alf does. They're both smoking a great feal more than is good for them Besides, I want Dicky's artistic judgment about colors." "Which-you'll never think of takxtra added feature at the Empress ing," he retorted grinning, but nev-crtheless he obediently hied himselfto a far corner of the room, while the little woman excitedly comment ed upon the gowns and suits which Leila brought forth and held up for

> "There's no use talking." she said finally in a despondent tone. "Some of these things can be fixed up but I'll have to have a new traveling sult and an afternoon gown and----She stopped short and caught her breath sharply. I knew, that she had seen what I had, the involuntary shadow that had crossed Leila's and you have a whole quarter-pint of days before Alfred Durkee's mar-riage. riage The young art editor is a high-sal. and tan bleach. You must mix this aried man, but he has not always remarkable lotion yourself. It can been such, and in the days of his not be bought ready to use because early struggles his widowed mother it acts best immediately after it is stood shoulder to shoulder with him prepared.

and endured many privations. Look of Bewilderment. Alfred, most dutiful and devoted A Good Thing - DON'T MISS IT

t sons, never has forgotten his 8 OFFICERS ARE

Economical and sensible in all for 15 days beginning Monday by which would be the earliest date at other details, she is extravagant in Maj. Gen. George B. Duncan of the which it could be convened. seventh corps area.

Fluffiness" was not given to her Four of the officers reported Monmust look them over right away. I don't believe I have a thing fit to be marriage the yearly amount she Dicky rose and laughingly lounged was only too glad to indulge her. jutant's department.

The officers are: Maj. Charles H. Now, however, the salary which Marley, 1052 Omaha National Bank had been ample for the two had to do building, Omaha; Capt. A. R. Wells, 113 North Happy Hollow boulevard Omaha; Capt. Verne B. McClaskey mother had received during her oper-Huron, S. D.; Capt, Fred Jesnen, Minneapolis, Minn.; Capt. Harry E. Armcount of its artistic excenence. It's safe for you to hake the transformed and been made in Alfred's and she says a week. Why bother savings account, and it appeared to in the indicative of the French period as know you look entrancing in any the sense to see that this was not the sense to see that the sense to see strong, Lincoln, Neb.; First Lieut. Rolla C. Van Kirk, Lincoln, Neb. Second Lieut. Ray D. Huston, Win-field, Kan.: Capt. Claude H. Greeley, Spencer, Ia.

My heart constricted with sudden FITZGERALD WON'T CALL GRAND JURY Presiding Judge James Fitzgerald Monday notified County Attorney Henry Beal that he has changed his mind regarding calling together the Unconsciously, however, she had seen, and the pity I had felt for "We really ought to be starting." Leila quickly transferred itself to hase of the show is the vaudeville ebut of Sam Brown, well known maha dancer, who scores one of the its of the bfll with his eccentric step-ing. "The Heart of a Clown" and finess

ADVERTISEMENT

Lemons Bleach the Skin White

> The only harm-less way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, tary shadow that had crossed Leila's and you have a whole quarter-pint of sensitive face, and I was desperately afraid that she would misinterpret it. Neither woman was in physical or mental condition to face the ugly controversial possibilities of a situation whose roots lay far back in the loss southful the sensitive sensi

ADVERTISEMENT.

nine district judges to decide whether or not to call a grand jury. He

ASSIGNED HERE promised last week to do this. The only reason given by Fitzger-Eight reserve officers have been ald was that it would be "too hot" to assigned to training duty in Omaha have a grand jury session in July, he can numerous problems which day morning in the corps area judge he thought called for a grand jury's advocate's office and four in the ad. service, and may ask again for the grand jury later in the year.

Back Broken in Fall.

Stromsburg, Neb., May 12 .- Joseph Hedman broke his back in a back-ward fail from a saffold. He was taken to York Lutheran hospital and placed in a cast. His condition is critical.

Make the trip a holiday. Over the Great Divide, down through three great Canyons-Kicking Horse, Thompson and Fraser-a fairy king-dom of snow-clad peaks-to the gar-den slopes of the Pacific. And the year-round summer of vine-clad Vic-toria. Five hundred wonder-miles.

And why hurry? Tarry at Banff, or lovely Lake Louise; at Emerald Lake or Glacier or Sicamous. There's a wealth of welcome everywhere and a world to see along the way. Let us give you full particulars.

