"I Didn't Kiss Her. She Kissed Me!" Cries Norris in Pique

Blackmail Is Defense of Senator

Alabama Woman Creates Stir in Senate Agriculture Committee With Charge Nebraska Stole Kiss.

Put Up Job, He Asserts

Washington, May 24.—An angry quarrel between Senator Norris, republican of Nebraska, chairman of the senate agriculture committee and Mrs. E. A. Edmundson of Decatur, Ala., whom he accused of bringing blackmail plot against him because she testified he had kissed a girl at Muscle Shoals nearly broke up the committee's hearing today.

Remember the Barbecue

"Do you remember that fine barbecue we had there, senator?" the witness asked. "I asked you if you might not favor the Ford offer. You said 'possibly.' You said 'I could kiss one of these pretty girls, maybe I could be bribed.' Well, you did kiss one and you are against the Ford offer. This was a betrayal, senator."

Only a Pleasantry

"Mrs. Edmundson, you've exceeded your time now. Besides you've exceeded all the proprieties and told a falsehood as well."

It's a Holdup

"It was fixed up in advance," Norris repeated. "It's a holdup. It's part of a scheme to blackmail me. I don't care who you are. If you weren't a woman this would not end here."
