9 Alumnae Black Masquers Attend Banquet

The Black Masque chapter of Naional Society of Mortar Boards of the University of Nebraska will hold its annual banquet in Lincoln on Friday, June 6. This is the 19th anniversary of the founding of Black Masque, which was organized by 13 girls, each year in turn these elect 13 girls from the junior class to become members for their senior year. The girls are chosen who are most prominent in all college activities.

In 1920 the Order of Black Masque became a chapter of the National Mortar Boards which has chapters in most of the large universities. The annual masquing of new members is one of Nebraska's traditions for Ivy day.

Omaha has over 50 members of Black Masque. Those who will go down for the banquet, are Mesdames Len Overpeck, Howard McMonles, George Tunnison, Leslie Higgins. Misses Ruth N. Thompson, Louise Stegner, Bessle M. Fry, Bertha Neale, Nell Bridenbaugh. Other members include Mesdames W. C. Ramsey, Elmer Lindquest, Dexter Buell, A. C. Swenson, Earl Jorgenson, Robert Mc Cague, Misses Lucy Harte, Ruth Mills, Elizabeth Klewit, Zora Shileds, Claire Mackin and Ella Frankish,
