Beckon of Seashore, Lakeside, Mountain Breezes and Wild Hinterland Luring to Omaha Vacation Celebrities

By EDWARD BLACK. This is the time of year when the city dwellers lie away to the countryside to recreate, and the rural population moves into the city to recreate. For this is vacation time.

Those who have lodgings to rent and meals to serve, at the mountains, by the seashore and at the lakeside, are dusting the cash register and filling the bread box, in anticipation of the arrival of vacationists.

Omahaans are reading vacation literature. Henry Lettingwell and his fireside companion have been holding family councils on the vacation question for several weeks.

He went straightway home and imparted this information. He said he wanted to go fishing, and added that women are not interested in fish.

Walter Head, county attorney, has decided to spend his vacation at home this summer. He lives at Ralston. Lake Lakonia. Last summer he and Joe Murphy thought it would be "cute" to make a dash for the great northwest.

Walter W. Head will go to Europe to join Mrs. Head in Paris and to visit his daughter, Mrs. Bauer. When he returns he expects to go to his ranch for a few weeks' rest.

J. W. Welch will spend his vacation this summer at Cherrycroft farm, where he will train a German Police dog now on his way from Europe.

Rev. M. Allen Keith and Mrs. Keith will motor to South Dakota. The minister said he enjoys camping out for a month, wearing plain clothes and just relaxing in the great outdoors.

Principal J. G. Masters of Central high school and Principal Dwight E. Porter of Technical High school will go on an automobile outing with their families.

John L. Webster, who enjoys four or five weeks at Atlantic City, where he can stroll along the beach and watch the wild waves, or the tame waves, and wear some nifty summer togs. He has visited Atlantic City by the sea every summer for several years.

John W. Towle is going to Lake Minnewasauk at Glenwood, Minn. He vacates on Sunset beach, where there is a miniature golf course.

Just going to fish," said W. E. Reed, president of the Board of Education. He said he knew a place in Minnesota, near Duluth, where the fish jump at the sight of a hook and line.

And to scan the pile of vacation literature, one in a round-the-world cruise. There are summer trips to Alaska, the Canadian Rockies, to Jasper National park, Mt. McKinley, Lake Louise, Banff and other points along the northwest.

The Grand Canyon of Colorado, the Royal Gorge, Feather River canyon, Yosemite, Yellowstone, Estes park, Glacier park and other interesting places, beckon the summer traveler. One also reads of "Grand Pacific Tours," with stops at Tahiti, Wellington, Sydney, Auckland, Fiji, Honolulu and other points.

"Humboldt—Daniel Geringer, 59, a pioneer, died at his home here Monday. He leaves a son, ex-Mayor Alvin Geringer, and a daughter, Miss Rose Geringer.

Charles Black

would be at her Henry's side during all of the vacation days, that she had promised to stay with him in sunshine and shadow.

So, the Lettingwells will spend their vacation together.

It will be the same way with Postmaster Charles Black and Mrs. Black. The honorable postmaster did not relate any details of his domestic vacation pourparlers.

He merely announced in plain words that he and the "missus" intended to motor to the undertakers how they appear to the public.

A. H. Worsham will give a second lecture and demonstration at the morning session Thursday.

Committees will report and Willis C. Crosby, Omaha, will give the report of the delegates to the national convention.

A short memorial meeting, conducted by P. J. Morten, Jr., secretary, will open the Thursday afternoon session.

Officers will be elected and delegates to the national convention chosen and Ericsson. Worsham will close the convention with a third lecture and demonstration.

Officers' Clubs Coming. Omaha's Club week will be Friday, June 6, when the 300 boys and girls will come to Omaha from Lincoln to visit the stockyards and packing houses, be entertained at luncheon at the stockyards and then make a tour of the Union Pacific shops.
