A Cool Green
Midsummer Vacation
in Seattle and the
"Charmed Land"

WHEN the heat of the city sends your blood throbbing headwards, close your desk and home and come to the witchery of snow-capped mountains, evergreen forests and blue landlocked seas—bring the wife and children to Seattle and the Charmed Land.

Mid-summer is like Springtime in this cool, green vacation land. In the high mountain meadows gorgeous Alpine flowers are peeping through the snow. In the lush green valleys below the sparkling rivers are brim full and ice cold, fed by the eternal glaciers of snow-capped peaks.

Cool days are always followed by restful nights. You will enjoy sleep under blankets. A mid-day temperature of eighty degrees is unusual and the average June, July and August temperature is sixty-two degrees.

Nowhere in the world is there such a vacation land or such a diversity of attractions, and all so accessible to the metropolitan cities and modern travel conveniences. Paved roads, steamers, trains and interurbans take you to mountain resorts or along picturesque Puget Sound.

Bobbed Hair Entanglements

THE SMART SET is now wearing a Denida over night, particularly when the hair is bobbed.

Discriminating women have found that a Denida keeps the marcel or the curl in the hair longer, and besides, prevents a jrowsy appearance in the morning.

The economy of the Denida Hair Net cannot be questioned—it serves faithfully and long.
