

Lady Gorham Wins Feature Event on Wednesday's Ak-Sar-Ben Race Program

Go Foin, Picked to Win, Finishes in Third Place

Korbly, Long Shot, Captures Place Position—The Falconer, My Daddy, Louis. A Run Out of Money.

By RALPH WAGNER. HE 4-year-old chestnut filly Lady Gorham by Frizzle-Mexlow, was not highly recommended to win the Council Bluffs purse, the feature race at Ak-Sar-Ben track Tuesday afternoon.

Korbly, a long shot with Paul Hurn riding, was second and Go Foin, the favorite, staggered in third. Far behind, pointing the earth as fast as he could come My Daddy followed by the Falconer and last but not least, Louis A.

Weiner opened a big lead with Lady Gorham shortly after the barrier broke and from there on had things much his own way. Go Foin, the Jones-Uplike entry followed the Lady until the far turn when Korbly came up with a rush and Joeky Hurn, seeing an opening close to the rail, gave the son of Martin his head and he started after Lady Gorham. The latter had been running under restraint and when Joeky Weiner heard Korbly's hoof beats he gave his mount the word and the two shook off the challenge the Borland thoroughbred.

Go Foin was 80 cents to the dollar, and was supposed to take the lead by the barrier and coast in over the finish line. The Jones-Uplike runner ran a good race and showed a lot of gameness by sticking close to the fast-going Korbly. The race, while not a victory for Go Foin was just what he needed to put him on edge for coming races.

Tuesday was ladies' day at the track and a goodly number of the fair sex were on hand to see the bang-up start that took place on the fast track. Secretary Charlie Trimble of the racing meeting was so glad to see such a large crowd of women present that he has decided to have another ladies' day next week, perhaps Tuesday.

The outstanding stars in the list are C. S. Cochran of the Olympic club, San Francisco, and Glen Hartrant of Stanford. The former in the sectional tryout won the 400 meters run in 45.7-10 seconds, while Hartrant in the intercollegiate last Saturday won the shot put and discus events, establishing new intercollegiate records.

Chairman Prout announced today that the games would start at 2 p. m. daylight time, each day. The 10,000 meters walk will be the only event in which a final heat will be contested on the first day of the meet.

CHICAGO CUBS WILL ATTEMPT TO TAKE LEAD FROM GIANTS; NEW YORK 2 GAMES IN FRONT

Tigers, while the Browns, Indians and Athletics, who were expected to give the Yankees stern opposition are following in the second division. The Giants finished a disastrous trip in the west during which they lost the lead for the first time since the middle of the summer of 1922. They dropped eight out of their first eleven games and then took a spurt which regained them the lead and are hanging on to it with a slender thread.

If the Giants in their coming home stand against the western teams do not play any better than they did against those teams on the road, then the hope is that the National league will not be represented by New York in the world's series. The Yankees, called the super-human baseball team have been hard pressed by the Red Sox and Tigers all season. Boston, the surprise team of the race to date has been knocking at the door of leadership for a couple of weeks. The Tigers also have been ready to jump to the top rung. Either team is likely to drop the Polo grounds tomorrow. Brooklyn is in third place only three and a half games behind the Giants, while the Reds and Pirates, picked as contenders for the pennant, are in the fourth and fifth places, respectively.

In the American league the race is much keener. The Yankees are only half a game in front of the Red Sox, who were relegated to the second division before the season opened and the same distance in front of the

THIRTEEN THOROUGHBREDS TO COMPETE FOR $2,000 PURSE

By "WAG." THIRTEEN of the fastest thoroughbreds munched oats at Ak-Sar-Ben field today. The field has been nominated and awarded weights in the fourth annual funing of the Ak-Sar-Ben Queen's Plate handicap, which will be the feature race on the program at Ak-Sar-Ben field Wednesday afternoon. The Queen's Plate, which will be over a distance of six furlongs, will be worth $1,600 to the winner and $250 to the second best thoroughbred. Third position at the finish is worth $150, the total purse of the race being $2,000.

Lorena Marcella, the speedy Jones-Uplike chestnut filly, won the Queen's Plate last year, while My Heroic and Second Thoughts, also entered in the handicap tomorrow, finished in order named.

The Aracuanian, Col. R. L. Baker's pride and joy, and Second Thoughts, one of the Jones-Uplike entries, have been given the top impost of 117 pounds each, while Judge Pryor, also of the Baker string, winner of the Governor's handicap Saturday, opening day, will carry 116 pounds, as will Abadane, honest of "Abby" of the C. B. Irwin establishment.

The weights on Go Foin and Lorena Marcella have been reduced from 111 to 108, respectively, to 108 each. The former was eligible to compete in the Governor's handicap Saturday, but Trainer Jones thought the impost of 111 pounds too much, so

Husker Athletes to Engage in Final Olympic Trials

Howard Turner, Omaha, Among Those Selected to Make Trip to Boston—Communities Pay Cost.

LINCOLN, June 3.—University of Nebraska athletes will without much delay be represented in the final Olympic trials at Boston next week, Coach Schulte announced Monday. In the midst trials at Lawrence the Huskers came out with three firsts and two seconds. Four of the competing Huskers were named as Olympic timber and invited to make the trip to Boston.

Now comes offers from three Nebraska cities to put up the $175 necessary for each contestant to make the trip. Lincoln will send Marvin Layton; Fremont is ready to pay Maurice Gardner's expenses and Omaha will foot Howard Turner's bill. North Platte is figuring on sending Roland Locke.

As the Olympics are somewhat removed from the collegiate world of sport it is impossible to appropriate the money to cover the expense of the Nebraska contestants. Coach Schulte pointed out, remarking at the same time his appreciation of the offers from the different cities. Howard Turner, Omaha, will compete in the high jump. He tied with Poor of Kansas Saturday, at six feet, preventing them from trying the bar higher. Layton will be entered in the 400-meter hurdles; Gardner, captain of this year's Missouri Valley championship team, in the 800 meters, and Locke in the 100 and 200-meter events.

In the event any of the Nebraskans place on the Olympic team—and Coach Schulte believes there is a chance for them—all the expense incurred on the Boston trip will be refunded.

OMAHA U. NET MEET NEARING CLOSE

In one frame of the University of Omaha girls' tennis tournament semifinals, Helen Hoover, doped to win the tournament, defeated Helen Searson two sets, 6-2, 6-0.
