

Elks Plan Flag Rites at Hanscom Park Next Sunday

Celebration Delayed Till Sunday so More Can Attend; Patriotic Ceremonies and Speaking.

Flag day ceremonies will be held at Hanscom park Sunday, June 15, under auspices of the Omaha lodge of Elks.

The program, which consists of speeches, music and the flag ceremony conducted by officers of the lodge, is scheduled to begin at 4 p. m. W. F. Gurley, principal speaker, is to deliver a patriotic talk concerning respect for the American flag. Herb Johnson, exalted ruler of the Elks, will preside. There will be music by the Elks' band and vocal solos. "We're holding the ceremonies on Sunday rather than on Saturday, which is Flag day, because we believe there will be a larger crowd," said Dr. E. C. Henry, chairman of the committee on arrangements. "We expect several thousand persons to attend."

A Boy Scout patrol will aid in regulating traffic and placing the crowd. Automobiles will be sent to bring G. A. R. members to the exercises. They will have seats on the platform. Elks and other participating organizations will assemble at Park and Woolworth avenues and march to the pavilion.

J. H. Beveridge will read the prize essay written by a schoolboy or girl and which was selected by a committee consisting of Ballard Dunn of The Omaha Bee, W. B. Watson of the World-Herald and Joseph Polcar of the Daily News. The history of the flag will be given by W. A. Fraser, F. A. McCormick of the Volunteers of America will act as chaplain and the Elks band will play.

CAMP FIRE GIRL CAMP TO OPEN

Cambridge, Neb., June 7.—The Camp Fire girls of southwestern Nebraska will open their camp at Cambridge Monday. Over 125 girls registered and late registrations are expected to bring the number to 200. The girls will have instruction in swimming, tennis, archery and camp crafts, including first aid given by the camp nurse.

A new gravel-bottom swimming pool will be opened, pending the completion of the concrete pool. This pool will later be opened up to tourists in the tourist park.

280 Prisoners in County Jail With Room for Only 190

Congestion Due Largely to Crowded Conditions at State Penitentiary; Inmates Watch Hours Drag.

With 280 prisoners now in the county jail, congestion has become a serious problem which Sheriff Endres sought to begin solving last week when he called upon the state board of control to ask the legislature to build an addition to the state penitentiary. "The men's quarters are especially crowded," said Jailer Joe Sherry. "We have room for 180 in the tiers and 10 in the hospital, a total of 190. Yet we have now 283 men in the jail."

"The normal capacity for women is 36 in tiers and 10 in the hospital and we now have only 17 women prisoners."

Lack of room in the state penitentiary is largely responsible for the crowding in the Douglas county jail, where there are now 56 men under sentence to the penitentiary or reformatory. Some of these have been in the county jail for two years, serving sentences for which they should be in the penitentiary, where they would be if there were room.

The worst feature of keeping them in the jail is that there is no opportunity for them to get outdoor exercise. And there is no work for them to do. They can only sit and watch the dragging hours.
