Your Problems

by Martha Allen

Love and Pride.

Dear Miss Allen: About a year ago I threw down my boy friend, whom I know adored me. I hear that he goes with a girl now that he doesn't care for, but who loves him. Recently he called me up and asked to take me out, but pride stood in the way, so I refused.

However, about a week later I realized the mistake I made, and so to try and patch things up I gave him a ring and asked him to come to a party with me, and it seemed a lot like spite when he said "No." I'm thinking of writing and asking him to come back, but fear of hurting his girl holds me back. What shall I do as I cannot forget him?

BROWN EYES. Ask him to come and spend an evening at your home. One of the saddest things in the world is for men and women to marry out of pique and with the love for the person they are trying to forget alive in their hearts.

If this boy still cares for you he will never make the other girl happy; so the best thing for all concerned is an honest understanding. Pride has done enough harm; don't let it make any more misery for you.

Bid Him Adieu. Dear Miss Allen: I am an old reader of your column and am coming to you for advice.

I am a girl of 18. My sister and I are the same size, but she is 20. I love a boy very much, but I can not tell if he cares much for me. He writes letters to me and says he is coming over, then he goes to another town for girls. What shall I do—still write to him or not? I thought of this problem for a long time.

Thanking you for your good information. BROWN EYES. I would advise you to discontinue this friendship. The man evidently does not value it at all or he wouldn't treat you with such lack of consideration as to make a date with you and then not keep it. You are lucky to find him out so early and so well in your friendship. He doesn't have the character that would make you happy.

Miss R. B.: Your sketches are certainly charming, but I am not able to advise you of a market for them. You will have to do what writers do, just submit them to publications which might be interested and hope for a sale.

Takes pills for years—finds first permanent relief in Kellogg's Bran

Have you found permanent relief from that terrible disease—constipation? The woman whose letter follows discovered—as thousands have discovered—that Kellogg's Bran succeeds when all else fails. This is because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran. Nothing but ALL bran can be so effective. This is what she wrote:

"Gentlemen: I am so wonderfully happy over my discovery. I feel I must tell the world about it. For years I have been ill continually from constipation, always resorting to pills of the like, never having any permanent relief until I heard of your Krumbled Bran.

Every morning I take two tablespoonfuls before my breakfast—and since the latter part of August I must admit have not experienced one sick spell which I have had for years. I have started my little girl of four years on your Bran, and already I have noticed a change in her. I thank you." Name and address furnished on request. Write the Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic cases of constipation. Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Money returned if not effective.

Notice the wonderful nut-like flavor. This flavor is delicious—so different from ordinary, unpalatable bran. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, made in Battle Creek, is served by America's leading hotels and clubs. Demand Kellogg's Bran. It will bring back your health. Start eating it today.
