Both men, according to Wagstaff's affidavit, bore evidence of having been in a rough combat and were heavily intoxicated. Their automobile, the affidavit declared, was smeared with blood and hair.

Dr. Kenaston of Bonesteel, testified in an affadavit that he took care of one of the men, who had deep cuts in his head and sent him back to Spencer, Neb.

Two residents of Herrick, S. D. presented affidavits to the effect that the murder of Pahl was known there three hours before it was heard of in Spencer, Neb., and that the reason was that a man known as Jim Herman drove into Herrick and told citizens there of the murder. Herman is now said to be serving a 17 year sentence for murder in the Wyoming penitentlary.
Hugh O'Neill, who gathered the af-

Washington, June 16 .-- The su preme court was asked today to relaw the death sentence imposed upon Walter Ray Simmons for the murder of Frank Pahl at Spencer, Neb. Simmons is under sentence to die next

Being in recess, the court cannot consider the petition until after it convenes next October. The filing of the motion was decided upon by E. P. Holmes, Josiah Coombs and Thomas Holmes, Josiah Coombs and Thomas the klan to stage its public meeting P. Littlepage, counsel for Simmons, in the auditorium. They take the the court. It is based upon the discovery of new evidence and on the after consultations with justices of charge that three of the jurors who tried Simmons were prejudiced.

It is the expectation of counsel for Simmons that Governor Bryan of Nebraska will continue to grant 30-day reprieves until the supreme court acts on the case. The petition asserts that several farmers who did not appear at the trial will testify that mons was not in the automobile when Pahl was driven down the road

Suspects Held for Trial

New York, June 16.—William James (Bill) Brennan, heavyweight pugilist, was slain in his uptown cabaret early yesterday because he resented abusive remarks made to a woman by Joseph Pioli, one of the two men held without ball today for the killing, according to Assistant District Attorney Morgan A. Jones. The woman, whose name was no today revealed, had gone to Brennan's cabaret with a party of which Pioli was a member, according to the prosecutor. As she was leaving with Pioli, he made abusive remarks to her. Brennan interceded for her, hitting Pioli in ejecting him from the "There are other ways of getting
