

Outsiders Come in for Share of Purses in Friday's Ak-Sar-Ben Races

Brown Rock Romps Home Winner in Second Event

Hardman Carries Off Honors in Sixth Event, Finishing Ahead of Yermak and Bill's Head.

A muddy track and threatening weather again tempted the long shots to have a day at the Ak-Sar-Ben race track Friday afternoon. The slippery going was not liked by the favorites and the others seemed hard to find until after the race had ended.

The influx of outsiders started with the victory of Brown Rock in the second event. That bangtail, coupled with Cleary The Way in the betting, left the post with a determination to win and never lose it. He found the track to his liking and made no mistakes. Bobby Allen tried hard and succeeded, after a hard drive, in saving second money. Power, picked by most of the customers to win, ran a hard race to have the consolation end of the purse.

Lack of Heart. Supporters of Clear The Way had the seldom enjoyed pleasure of collecting on their choice even though he showed a lack of heart and quit when still far out. He finished third from last.

Brown Rock paid $29.20 to win, $12.60 to place and $5.60 to show. Bobby Allen paid $4.20 to place and $3.20 to show. Power paid $2.80 to show.

The first race went to Golden Cup, and although he had little aid in his favor by the handicappers, the betting showed him well up among the favorites. Grandest, game member of the H. E. Brown string, placed and Menage showed.

Hold His Lead. Golden Cup paid $3.60 to win, $2.80 to place and $2.20 to show. Grandest paid $3.80 to place and $2.40 to show. Menage paid $2.20 to show.

The race belonged to Golden Cup from the start. He sprinted to the front as soon as the barrier was sprung, and, opening up a big gap, he held his lead all of the way and won in a canter.

Pernando found a track to his liking in the third event. It was simply the track for which he had been waiting since the opening of the race meeting and he took advantage of things and won under restraint.

Virgo followed the leader around the track and came into place while Lemon Seth, outrun by the winner, saved show money without trouble. The entire field was strung out at the end.

The winner paid $6.60 to win $4 to place and $3.40 to show. Lemon Seth paid the longest price of the race, $3 to show.

Nan McKinney, that stout-hearted daughter of Leonid-Kate Dorman, took the fourth race handily. Early she raced Lucky Hays into submission and drew away into a commanding lead. Lucky Hays, apparently disgusted with being passed by the winner, quit. Ask Jessie was unable to catch the winner but was easily second best. Foul Weather gained ground steadily after being last to start and was running fast at the end and showed.

The winner paid $11.00 to win, $4.20 to place and $3.40 to show. Ask Jessie paid $11.00 to win, $4.20 to place and $3.40 to show.

EDDIE'S FRIENDS

The Banker's Usual Squawk.

Docod, running a pretty race, took the seventh event with ease. He ran well in the rear until after entering the stretch and then passed the leader at will and won in a canter. Balfour ran gamely and placed. Double Van hung on tenaciously and placed.

Docod paid $4.40 to win, $4.00 to place and $2.80 to show. Balfour paid $16.60 to place and $6.00 to show. Double Van paid $2.80 to show.

Eastern Quartet of National Clubs Leading Westerners by Five Games
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 20.—The second series in the major leagues, which ended Thursday, shows that in the east versus west games played thus far this season, the eastern quartet of the National league leads the western winning by a margin of five games, while the westerners of the American league have an advantage of three games over the eastern clubs.

In the senior circuit, the eastern club played at a 2-5 record, an unusual fact being that the league leading Giants are the only team that played below .500. As a quartet the western clubs played at a 5-5 gait, their performance being brought upon to that mark by the fine performance of the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs played at a 7-1 gait.

There is a difference of 23 points between the inter-sectional speed of the western four in the junior circuit, as compared with that of the eastern quartet. The Cleveland Indians have been the best performers against the eastern clubs with a mark of 577.

As they sprinted down the half mile stretch to the finish in a lane behind hundreds of yachts and pleasure craft, Yale's undefeated eight made rowing history. Its earlier record had proved the crew invincible at short distance racing, but it had yet to prove its mettle on the long grind of the New London course. The eight, stroked by A. D. Lindley of Minneapolis, demonstrated today that it is a great crew at any distance.

It was apparently leader's plan to maintain a low stroke and wear Harwood down gradually over the first three miles. The progress of the Blue crew over the course showed an initial lead growing little by little to a boat length, then to two, three and finally four in the final sprint.

The score for the 57 Yale-Harvard regatta of history was now: Yale, 20; Harvard, 27. The time: Yale 21:55 2/5; Harvard, 22:11 2/5.

To Hold Central Golf Tourney
Kearney, Neb., June 20.—The first annual central Nebraska golf tourney is to be held on the Kearney links June 23 to 27, inclusive. J. F. Webster of St. Paul, secretary of the association, predicts a record entry list for the tournament, having heard favorably from practically every club in the district and being assured of representation.

While the association is comprised of central and western Nebraska clubs, golfers from the eastern part of the state are also invited, and many are expected to attend.
Qualifying rounds are to be played next Monday, and in the evening a banquet is to be held at the clubhouse.

Flights scheduled to take place include the championship, consolation, president's, vice president's, secretary's and directors'. A special flight will be arranged for those who fail to qualify in any of the above.

In addition to the Monday evening banquet, the entertainment includes a dance on Tuesday evening, entertainment by the ladies of the club on Wednesday evening, special entertainment for Thursday evening and finals Friday.

Tilden Wins Way Into Finals in Tennis Meet
Buffalo, N. Y., June 20.—William Tilden, II, of Philadelphia, and A. H. Chapin, Jr., of Springfield, Mass., were victors yesterday in the semi-finals for the Great Lakes tennis championship. Tilden did not exert himself to defeat Gerald Emmerson of Summit, N. J., 6-2, 6-0, 7-5. George Lett, Chicago, the national junior champion, presented a stiff opposition to Chapin in the other match, the score of which was 8-10, 8-6, 8-4.

Cochet Wins Net Match.
Paris, June 19.—Henri Cochet, of France, defeated M. Slen of India, 6-4, 0-6, 6-4, 2-6, 6-0, in their third round tennis match of the Davis cup elimination play today. France already had won the series.

Yale Defeats Harvard Crew in Annual Regatta

Old Eli Has Easy Time, Finishing Four Lengths Ahead of Ancient Rivals—Other Blue Crews Win.

New London, Conn., June 20.—Rowing a cautious, steady race, Yale's great crew led Harvard home by four lengths over the four mile course on the Thames river today in the major event of the 57th regatta between the two ancient rivals. Carefully husbanding its strength over the early mile the blue gradually increased an advantage obtained in the first half mile and was able to romp down the final quarter mile to the New London railroad bridge at a stroke of 37, weary, but with plenty of strength in reserve.

The variety victory gained for Yale a clean sheet in the regatta. Blue crews having won the freshman and junior varsity events earlier in the day and the combination crew race yesterday. It also closed Yale's second consecutive season without a reverse on the water, under the coaching of Ed Leaders, once of Washington, Rusty Callow, now mentor of the Husky oarsmen was an interested witness of the success the western rowing system has attained in the east.

As they sprinted down the half mile stretch to the finish in a lane behind hundreds of yachts and pleasure craft, Yale's undefeated eight made rowing history. Its earlier record had proved the crew invincible at short distance racing, but it had yet to prove its mettle on the long grind of the New London course. The eight, stroked by A. D. Future Is Bright for Horse Races
Omaha is a coming race horse city. Also it is a great place in which to either live or visit.
Such was the opinion of visiting horsemen who gathered at the Union Stockyards company, Exchange building, last night for the fourth annual Future Is Bright for Horse Races.

William Shelly, Louisville, Ky., president at the spring race meeting, declared that Omaha would, in time, be as prominent in racing circles as Louisville.

But it remained to the speakers to give the full measure of enjoyment to the affair. C. B. Irwin, veteran of every Ak-Sar-Ben racing season, spoke his piece. Congressman W. W. Jeffers told of what Nebraska meant to the west in general. So did E. T. C. Byrne, who spoke in place of Everett Buckingham, who was absent on a business trip.

Mayor James C. Dahlman explained the beliefs of Omaha toward horse racing. A. H. Fullerton, secretary of the British Columbia racing association, here to obtain entrance for the coming Vancouver race meeting, praised the cleanliness of the races here. Ben Jones admitted that he was a horse trainer and not a speaker and then sat down again.

M. C. Peters explained the difficulties he had experienced during the past year with the stallion which the horsemen had purchased and left in his charge last year.
