

THE OMAHA BEE

MORNING-EVENING-SUNDAY

THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., Publisher
N. B. UDDIKE, President
BALLARD DUNN, Editor in Chief
JOY M. HACKLER, Business Manager

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press, of which The Bee is a member, is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of our special dispatches are also reserved.

The Omaha Bee is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, the recognized authority on circulation audits, and the Omaha Bee's circulation is regularly audited by their organizations.

Entered as second-class matter May 28, 1908, at Omaha postoffice under act of March 3, 1879.

BEE TELEPHONES
Private Branch Exchange, Ask for AT lantic 1000
The Department or Person Wanted.

Omaha Where the West is at its Best

WHY THEY PICKED ON "PAT."

When a great political party meets in convention, it begins with a declaration of its purposes, what it proposes to do, and reasons why it should be given power to carry out its plans.

And the democrats have chosen Senator "Pat" Harrison of Mississippi to accomplish that special work at New York. Can it be that this presages the democratic campaign? It is to begin with misrepresentation and end in deception?

"Pat" has something about it that is appealing, when it rightfully belongs to its wearer. Many a lad has proudly borne the name, because it reminded him of that great saint whose memory all right-thinking people revere.

Maybe this is why "Pat" Harrison, who is not even Milesian in his extraction, was selected to sound the keynote at New York, as he was the chief spokesman for Cox four years ago.

TWO DEMOCRATS IN ACTION.

"If any news comes—good or bad—tell them I am wearing this," said Governor Al Smith to his secretary, and he went away to bathe at Coney Island.

About the same hour of the day Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas was demonstrating his democracy by knocking a man down on the chaste and storied Chevy Chase golf links.

We do not know which of these two incidents is of greater import. One shows the spirit of the good fellow, who likes to mingle with men, the other that of the bravo, who loves to vaunt his personal prowess.

English women are said to be returning to flowing tresses, long skirts and side-saddles. If this is true we may expect another visit from the prince of Wales.

Of course it will be no trick at all for the democratic platform makers to throw a few fits about the money devils while enjoying their hospitality.

Mr. Cox says he tasted defeat in 1920. Mr. Cox should have his taster attended to if that is all he got.

A Keith county farmer reports that he has a breed of hens that lay eggs as big as hailstones.

Oyster farming is quite as much of an industry along the Atlantic seaboard as is the raising of potatoes or other garden truck.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

feet across have been found up there. Fortunately for all, no one has yet discovered a man-eating oyster.

TWO BROTHERS GO TRAVELING.

"Isn't it funny what a difference just a few years make?" ran the popular song of not so very long ago. How very true it is when applied to the fortunes of certain well known politicians.

The party occupied three Pullmans, two coming from Lincoln on train No. 12 and one being added here, together with an extra diner.

"Sent by courtesy of R. C. Johnson, superintendent of the Pullman company." Note that, and get a good grasp on the rest of the scenario.

William Jennings Bryan went to Chicago as a delegate, with his expenses paid by the newspaper of which he was editor. His trousers were patched where good editors put most strain on their trousers.

We wonder what Brother Will did say to Brother Charlie over at the Chicago meeting. Whatever it was, it did not deter the governor from partaking of the contents of the fleshpots, such as they are.

SELF-DETERMINATION IN OPERATION.

Secretary Hughes presents for the consideration of Japan a principle as old as organized government. It is the right of an independent government to legislate with relation to its domestic affairs, regardless of the wishes of any other power.

Japan's sole grievance against the United States is that a law has been passed to exclude Japanese nationals from entry to American territory. It was objected to under the "most favored nation" clause of other treaties, but the secretary of state has made it plain to the Japanese government that immigration is a matter of purely domestic concern, and can not be considered otherwise.

There, by the way, is a question only partly closed. Korea was suppressed and absorbed by Japan in face of a treaty between Korea and the United States in which the integrity of the Hermit kingdom was guaranteed.

Self-determination, however, includes the right to judge who may become citizens, and who shall be refused that boon, as well as to decide who may be temporarily domiciled within our boundaries.

Rev. Mr. Beebe of Omaha, delegate to the St. Paul convention, again edges into the glare of the spotlight by his copyrighted whine about the "kept press."

It will be pretty generally admitted that in Coolidge and Dawes the republican party has a couple of candidates with the abdominal adequacy to say what they mean, mean what they say, and do what they think is right.

The news that gas was used to break the senate session deadlock in Rhode Island was something of a surprise. Many people thought it was gas that made senate sessions.

Wholesomely Honest. Gen. Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential candidate, made a stimulating speech to his neighbors who had gathered at his home to offer congratulations.

So it must be in all things where an ideal of life and service is involved. So it must be in our unions, in our schools, and in our churches.

Mr. Cox says he tasted defeat in 1920. Mr. Cox should have his taster attended to if that is all he got.

A Keith county farmer reports that he has a breed of hens that lay eggs as big as hailstones.

Oyster farming is quite as much of an industry along the Atlantic seaboard as is the raising of potatoes or other garden truck.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

The Delegates Are Arriving for the Democratic Convention.

"From State and Nation" Editorials from Other Newspapers

Letters From Our Readers

Nebraska Likes Dawes. Nebraska takes considerable pride in the fact that Charles G. Dawes, vice presidential nominee at the republican convention, is a former resident of this state.

A Progressive Democrat. Senator Walsh of Massachusetts who was not for the bonus bill and for a cash bonus, naturally objects to that "special privilege" at which the finger of wrath is always pointed in political platforms.

Another Investigation Asked. Twenty-nine Miles or So This Side of (Oceola, Neb.—To the Editor of The Omaha Bee: Good Lord, there should be another investigating committee to get "Hell and Maria" straight.

A Sufficient Description. It is hard to describe an Alchison man, except to say that his fish pole reel is always bright and shiny, while his saws are always dull and rusty.

Wholesomely Honest. Gen. Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential candidate, made a stimulating speech to his neighbors who had gathered at his home to offer congratulations.

So it must be in all things where an ideal of life and service is involved. So it must be in our unions, in our schools, and in our churches.

Mr. Cox says he tasted defeat in 1920. Mr. Cox should have his taster attended to if that is all he got.

A Keith county farmer reports that he has a breed of hens that lay eggs as big as hailstones.

Oyster farming is quite as much of an industry along the Atlantic seaboard as is the raising of potatoes or other garden truck.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

Now the science of eugenics is being brought into play to aid the oyster breeder. Efforts are being made to mate only the strong and healthy and to keep their progeny from being contaminated by the weaker breeds.

SUNNY SIDE UP Take Comfort, nor forget That sunrise never failed us yet

LOOK OUT! THE LIONS ARE LOOSE!

They may do a lot of roaring and howling; Every now and then a little bit of growling; But it must be said in praise Of their up-and-coming ways That you never hear them do a bit of growling.

When they set their tawny manes to wildly shaking You can bet they've started some big understanding. Then just bet your wad of dough That they'll surely make it go. For success is something they are always making.

Welcome Lions! There's no limit to our greeting. You're a bunch that Omaha take joy in greeting. And we hope you like your stay So much, when you go away You will feel like in a year or two repeating.

We yearn to have some psychologist tell us the why of it. We sit quietly in the grandstand, pick a horse to win, but refrain from backing our judgment with the almoner. And invariably our choice in the circumstances mentioned romps home in the easiest sort of manner.

Away back in 1899, it rained for 17 consecutive days. On the 17th day, which was May 2, we bet it would rain again inside of 24 hours, and it didn't rain again until the following April. We have always felt a little bit guilty about that. We may have been responsible for the historic drought of that year.

Of course the fact that the democratic national convention meets in New York has nothing to do with the decision of Chairman Bryan of the capitol commission and Member Thompson of the supreme court to have a conference of the commission with the successors of Architect Goodhue in Gotham next week. Far be it from us!

Years and years ago Don Cameron conducted an eatery on Eleventh street, just south of O street, in Lincoln. Two of his regular customers for noonday lunch was a young lawyer named Charley Dawes and a young regular army captain, commander of the University of Nebraska cadets, named John Pershing. They always came in together.

Years and years ago Don Cameron conducted an eatery on Eleventh street, just south of O street, in Lincoln. Two of his regular customers for noonday lunch was a young lawyer named Charley Dawes and a young regular army captain, commander of the University of Nebraska cadets, named John Pershing.

Years and years ago Don Cameron conducted an eatery on Eleventh street, just south of O street, in Lincoln. Two of his regular customers for noonday lunch was a young lawyer named Charley Dawes and a young regular army captain, commander of the University of Nebraska cadets, named John Pershing.

LISTENING IN On the Nebraska Press.

Ole Buck, of the Harvard Courier says that if anybody ever reads the advertisements along the highways they are better drivers than he is.

Ed Burr of the Central City News admits that there is one thing to the credit of Charley Dawes—he is a former Nebraskan.

The Cozad Local wants it distinctly understood that its town should not be judged by its depot, and looks straight at the Union Pacific headquarters building in Omaha when it says it, too.

The Wakefield Republican says it is just as easy to follow a good road to a big store in a small town as it is to a big store in a big town. But a big store in a small town isn't made by sitting around and declaring that "advertising doesn't pay."

Senator Brown of the Kearney Hub takes a good look at the republican national ticket and ventures the opinion that the fall to the presidential kite as well as the presidential kite have been dispensed with. "We now have the presidential plane with twin cylinders," says Mentor.

Fred Carroll of the Schuyler Sun says that if Charley Dawes were a bit better looking he might be taken for Ole Buck. We shudder to think what Dawes will say if he ever reads that and then gets another square look at Ole.

Fred Howard of the Clay Center Sun admits that he is one of the many who would like to correct the other fellow's morals.

With the invention of a machine into which a man may sing and not be heard by anybody but himself, Gus Buechler of the Grand Island Independent just knows that the world isn't getting a bit worse.

Editor Kuehl of the Leigh World wonders if the "shingle book was originally designed for wooden domes.

"Congress has adjourned, and as nothing but good should be said of the dead there is nothing to say," shortens the Beaver City Times-Tribune.

Low Shelley of the Fairbury News informs Senator Norris that if he simply can not stand being petted by those southern beauties, Lew is ready to act as substitute. Notice is hereby served on Lew Shelley.

Fred Howard of the Clay Center Sun asserts that if you inclined to the belief that congress will ever pass a law which will make of a carelessly conducted enterprise a business success you are eligible for all of the sucker lists in California and Texas.

Pacific Northwest Winter Sports all Summer in Mt. Rainier National Park

TOBOGGANING half a mile to the slide. Skiing. Forty-five square miles of glaciers bordered by myriads of brilliant hued wild flowers. This majestic peak recently called by the Indians the "Mountain that was God" is one of the world's great spectacles. A morning's ride by auto from Tacoma or Seattle. $7200 Round-trip from Omaha to Portland, Tacoma Seattle. Cheyenne, Denver, scenic Colorado and Salt Lake City at no additional fare. Low priced side trips to Rocky Mountain, Yellowstone and Crater Lake National Parks. Go on the splendid Union Pacific trains—the Portland Limited or Continental Limited—1300 miles of scenery along the old Oregon trail, 200 miles along the Columbia River. Write for free booklet "Pacific Northwest and Alaska." For information, ask—A. K. Curtis City Pass Agent, U. P. Station, 1416 Dodge St., Omaha, Phone Jackson 5888. Unpublished Ticket Office, 1416 Dodge St., Phone Atlantic 7014, or Union Station, 10th and Mavor Streets.

6% NO COMMISSION 6% REAL ESTATE LOANS 6% INTEREST NO COMMISSION Easy Repayments The Conservative Savings & Loan Ass'n 1614 Harney Street