Breach in Ranks of Rhode Island Senate Unhealed

Republican Members Refuse to Return to State Without Adequate Assurances of Protection.

By Associated Press.

Providence, R. I., June 22 .- Th eaders of both parties declared there was little hope of peace.

As the result of a conference at the invitation of the Providence chamber of commerce between repre sentatives of civic and business or ganizations of the state, a committee was appointed to seek conference with both parties "to endeavor to devise some method for alleviating the present situation." A bundle of acid-soaked papers fumes from which sickened members was placed in the senate chamber last Thursday and Friday the re publican state committee announced would sit in no more sessions until surances of their protection were ven by the democratic presiding of ficer, Lieutenant Governor Felix A. Toupin. The two groups have been ary, the republican majority refusing to approve a popular referendum on the calling of a constitutional convention, and the democrats in reply refusing to consider any other business.

Leaders to Confer.

was announced that the party leaders would confer with Gov ernor William S. Flynn tomorrow on legal steps to meet the situation. Among the possibilities, it was ex plained, were these: The indictment of Jonathan Andrews, the high sher iff of Providence county, for permit ting the republicans to leave the jurisdiction of its state and of William C. Pelkey, chairman of the repub lican state central committee, for urging them to do so; watchful wait ing for the return of the republicans to the chamber and their forcible detention there.

Even if indictments could be drawn, the democrats said, it would a dream, asking her: probably be impossible to have the Pelkey told reporters that the guarantee of safety was given them. One democrat said that if the republicans returned and Sheriff Andrews ernor might go to extremes and call out the state guard to enforce his orders and those of the lieutenant dollars and half dollars.

Lincoln, June 21.—Republican State Chairman Sackett of Beatrice was in conference last night with candidates for state office and members of his organization staff. At the state headquarters today it was said Gen. Charles G. Dawes, vice presidential candidate, will not limit his tour of Nebraska to his single opening speech of the campaign at Lincoln about September 1. Assurances had been received, it was said, that General Dawes later in the campaign will devote several days to Nebraska.

York, where, upon the morrow, the throng of democratic delegates are to convene.

To this invitation is attached vast political importance, if the hazards of local democrates may be delied upon. Veiled references to pre-convention meetings at which "things" have been "fixed" for Charles W. Bryan, governor of Nebraska, may be heard without the aid of an ear trumpet.

Further inquiry reveals a firm belief that come what may, the younger of the Bryan brothers is to be nominated as a candidate for the vice presidency on the democratic ticket.

Nor do these political seers seek to cover up the fact that should William Jennings Eryan's younger brother run for the vice presidency there would be an alarming paucity of democratic gubernatorial timber in Nebraska.
