Test Suit Brought Here by Stockyards Bank—Seek to Pay Intangible Property Rate.

An attempt to determine permanently whether or not the capital stock of the national banks of Nebraska is taxable as tangible or intangible property under the Nebraska state law was started at a hearing before Federal Judge Woodrough Monday morning. The case, a test suit, is brought by the Stockyards National bank against Otto J. Bauman, treasurer of Douglas county.

The banks contend that they are subject to an intangible tax. County treasurers contend that they are subject to a tangible tax. The intangible tax in Nebraska is only 25 per cent of the tangible tax. Similar suits were brought over the 1922 tax and were won by the banks. Congress then passed an amendment to the law which authorized the taxing of national bank stock by the various states, in accordance with the state laws.

AN OPEN LETTER TO WOMEN Tells Mrs. Vogel's Terrible Suffering and how she was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Detroit, Michigan.—"My troubles were severe pains in my back and terrible bearing-down pains in my right side, also headaches and sleepless nights. I first began having trouble when I was 15, and they have increased as I grew older. A little booklet was left at my door, and I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women and decided to try it. After the first week I could go to sleep every night and I stopped having that nervous feeling and got a better appetite. The doctor had always said that an operation was the only thing that would help me, but I never had any faith in an operation. Since the Vegetable Compound has started helping me I do not suffer the severe pains, feel stronger, and am able to do my own work. I am more than glad to tell my friends that it helps where other medicines have failed."

—Mrs. GUS VOGEL, 6008 Pelouze St., Detroit, Michigan.

A record of fifty years service must convince women of the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Jail Term Made Fine of $1,000

Gothenburg Business Man Repaid Fraud Money, Says Judge.

Repentance caused Rynol B. Johnson, prominent Gothenburg business man, to repay thousands of dollars to wholesale houses he had defrauded, according to the story he told Federal Judge McGee, who sentenced him to serve 15 months in the federal penitentiary.

Judge McGee changed the sentence to a $1,000 fine, the maximum under mail fraud law.

Last week Johnson appeared before Judge McGee without counsel and pleaded guilty to the indictment that charged him with defrauding wholesale houses throughout the country out of about $10,000.

Judge McGee said he had learned that Johnson had paid back all the money, and that since he committed the crime he has been living an exemplary life. He made a confession to the government. A sort of religious feeling came over Johnson, and through the recommendations of church people of his town United States District Attorney Kinsler and Attorney A. W. Jefferson the judge fined him instead.

Johnson broke down and cried when he was sentenced.
