RADIO CAMPAIGN

By KENNETH CLARK.

International News Service Staff Cor-Cleveland, O., July 3 .- The personal the radio, it was learned here today. tends to make few long trips and to make most of his personal appeals for votes over the air. La Follette's headquarters will be in Chicago.

This news, transmitted privately to day to leaders of the conference for progressive political action which will endorse La Follette for the presidency, settled definitely the question progressive would enter the race.

The convention managers have been would be a candidate, but it was not until today that the plans for the campaign that will be carried into every state in the country were formally made known.

Plans Speaking Tour.

For the early part of the cam paign La Follette intends to remain in Washington. Later he expects to go to his home in Madison, Wis., from where he will make short jour neys into neighboring states, particularly the Dakotas and Minnesota, possibly Illinois, Iowa, Ohio and Indiana. As the campaign settles down in the nome stretch his managers declared that La Follette would speak in the larger cities of the nation, going straight into the heart of the sections which political observers believe ordinarily would swing into the republi can or democratic columns-the east and the south.

His leaders here confidently predict that if the democrats name a conservative in New York La Follette will be able to capture Pennsylvania and some of the so-called border states along the Mason-Dixon line, although La Follette is expected to issue a personal statement making it quite plain that he is opposed to the hooded or-

La Follette managers, headed by Representative John M. Nelson (re publican) of Wisconsin, insurgent leader in the house, claim as already "in" practically all states west of the Mississippi river. Only California they hold to be doubtful. Walter Thon as Mills of the farmer-labor party of California, however, pre dicted the state would go to La Follette in November. This, he thought, would be possible through an expected announcement by Senator Hiram republican of California, that the La Follette candidacy would be acceptable to him.

Demos May Help.

Washington and Wheeler of Montana, whom La Follette supported in their campaigns. The enthusiasm for La Follette here the conference, which has only two main things to do-endorse La Follette and adopt a platform which he will draft-are past the stage of prelicting that the Wisconsin senator will merely throw the presidential election into the house,

A leader can't be found here who won't say that La Follette has more than an even chance to win and that he will carry into office with him enough progressives to tle the legislative hands of both old parties in

JAPANESE ELDER STATESMAN DIES

By Associated Press. Tokio, July 2.-Prince Masayoshi

Matsukata, one of the two genro, or elder statesmen of the Japanese empire, died this evening. He was 89. two months ago, much recovered Mary Kolc, Geneva, Neb... Matsukata returned to Tokio about from the serious illness which caused his death to be reported last March At that time, after the physicians had pronounced him dead and the nation had gone into mourning, the former premier slowly revived. He previously had been reported dead in the earthquake of last September.

PAVING BJASE IS NEAR COMPLETION

Unless more storms interfere. 55,000 yards of base paving being done by the National Construction company will be completed by the end of next week, according to City Commisioner Joseph Koutsky. This work is being hone for $2.42 and was started this spring.

Koutsky is dissatisfied with the way the Murphy Construction company, who is to pave 55,000 yards, has delayed. "I gave them notice today that if they don't start in 10 days. we'll do it oursolves," he said.

BOY IS FATALLY HURT BY HORSE

Broken Bow, Neb., July 2 .- Billie, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bauder of Thedford, formerly of Broken Bow, was almost instantly killed, when one of a bunch of horses going to pasture knocked him over and stepped on him.

The family was visiting friends in the country at the time. The child was hurried to town, but died before reaching there.

BRYAN REPAIRS "GAS" FENCES

Lincoln, July 2 .- The following telegram was received today by State Purchasing Agent Farris, who has had charge of the state's gasoline station here: "I am glad gasoline is selling well and is forcing down prices. If combine does not reduce price throughout the state by time I get home, I will put rasoline on sale throughout Nebraska and protect the public. "C. W, BRYAN."
