Foreign Markets Hold

Grain Traders' Interest

By CHARLES J. LEYDEN.

Iniversal Service Staff Correspondent.

Chicago, July 5.—Attention of the graft trade was again centered in the graft trade was again centered in the flooring markets today. Liverpool wheat father markets today. Liverpool wheat father most strength being in the July delivery. For the two days while the American exchanges were idle Winnipeg July made practically no headway, while the deferred months lost about \(\frac{1}{16}\)C.

It being strictly a weather proposition in the Canadian market the trade acted with caution. Today business was much whours rain over a country of with caution. Today business was much mours rain over a country of around Hardisty, Alberta, over Friday night, but elsewhere throughout the three prairie provinces moisture was atill urgently needed. The forecast was for fair and very warm conditions generally. There were 164,000 bushels wheat delivered on July contract in the Canadian trade was builts generally. There was persistent selling of any offset, canadian trade was builting for profit of infliential character in Winnipeg, on the bulges, and was credited largely to American interests. The Canadian trade was builting for profit of infliential character in the foreign the provinces moisture was addian market.

New England reports that Canadian of the Grandian trade was bullish generality, and supported the market consistently on the dips. Wires to Logan & Bryan and the apparent that a pretty fair smount of wheat was sold to Europe over the holidays.
