Australian Wins 1,500-Meter Swim

Paris, July 15 .- Andrew Charlton, the Australian swimming star, won Omaha a single victory in the final of the 1,500 meters swim, free style, in the Oklahoma City Olympic competition today, leaving a Wichita row of world's records in his wake bes Moines and scoring heavily over his Scandinavian rival, Arne Borg of Sweden. His time, 20 minutes, 6 3-5 seconds, set a new world's mark for the whole distance, bettering by a wide margin the sensational new marks established by himself and Borg in the first day of the swimming competition Sunday Charlton swam with a plain over arm stroke, scarcely using his legs as a propelling force. Charlton, swimming in easy style, clipped one minute 53 2-5 seconds E from the former Olympic record held | by Hodgson of Canada and one minute 4 4.5 seconds from the world record established by Arne Borg Saturday after Charlton himself had broken the previous mark that day. Charlton broke the world's record for 400 meters with a mark of five minutes, 10 2-5 seconds, and ploughing through the water like a like washington away torpedo boat for another world's washington betroit the 1,000 meter mark, nego-The powerfully built 18 year-old Philadelphia

Vicentini Scores Knockout Over 'Rocky' Kansas

Buffalo Boxer Has Better of Battle Up to Fatal Round; Chilean Emerges From Bout Unmarked.

New York, July 14.-Luis Vicentini of Chile knocked out Rocky Kansas, Buffalo lightweight, in the 11th round of a scheduled 15-round match at the Queensboro A. C., tonight. The end came in a sensational finish, in which the Chilean railled to the high est peak of his pugilistic career and stopped one of the most rugged light weights in the ring.

The knockout blows, a series of rights and lefts which staggered the Buffalo boy and forced him to wilt to the rosined floor, came at an unexpected time as Vicentini had, the round previous, measured his length on the canvas when one of Kansas wild rights caught Vicentini flush on the jaw. The end came after two minutes and 16 seconds of fighting in the 11th round.

Up to the point of the knockout the fight had assumed a distinct Kansas tinge. The Buffalo lad had the better of the match and apparently well on the road to victory.

The 11th round opened strong, Vicentini coming back wonderfully well after his trip to the floor in the 10th round. He rushed Rocky to the ropes and poured gloves at the American in a maddening fusillade of blows which reeled off the swinging arms of the Chilean with trip-hammer rap idity. Kansas crouched, his hands rising to his head to protect him from the fury of the Chilean's storm of bored in and knocked Kansas dow with a well measured right. The Butand fired away at the groggy Kansas from long range, Kansas finally sink he attempted to rise, got up to his feet, but before Vicentini could bound across the ring to him he reeled around and sank into a weakened 446 heap right in front of the timekeep-

Kansas had survived the ordeal perfectly up to this point. He was unmarked and apparently full of con fidence as he answered the bell for the 11th round, But in that brief two minutes and 16 seconds of fighting licentini meted out a terrific dose of from Kansas' nose, blackened both eyes and mussed up his facial appearance. Vicentini emerged from the bout
