Yankees Shine in Four Branches of Olympic Games

Rowing, Tennis, Swimming, Boxing Aspirants Well Entrenched After Notable Victories Tuesday.

By Associated Press ARIS, July 15 .- The Americans the various fronts of the battle after notable victories today in four outstanding branches of competition. The famous Yale crews, the magnet for the greatest crowd that has yet witnessed a rowing competition, easily won in the elimination heat for eight-oared shells over the 2,000-meter course on Jack Kelly and Paul Costello, the Philadelphia stars, qualified with plenty to spare in the double sculls, in which they hold the championship. In the swimming contests the American girls outdid the men and shared the laurels with the Aus tralian swimmers, who led the Americans to the end of the day's three events, 24 points to 23.

Sixteen American boxers in the opening skirmish of the battle for ring honors came off with a big share of the first-day honors, while the American tennis stars continued their Miss Helen Wills, American chamwon decisively against Mrs. Satterthwaite of England, though Vincent Richards was compelled to go five sets to conquer the Indian
