

THE OMAHA BEE MORNING-EVENING-SUNDAY THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., Publisher N. B. UPDIKE, President BALLARD DUNN, Editor in Chief JOY M. HACKLER, Business Manager

Omaha Where the West is at its Best AMERICAN STANDARD OF LIVING. One of the visitors to the convention of the American Federation of Labor at Portland, Ore., last October was Frank Hodges of England.

The highest standard of living in the world? There it is. It is the testimony of a man who knows what he is talking about. A message from the representative of British workers to a convention of American workers.

Blatherskites are busy, telling the workers of the land about the injustices and wrongs they suffer under our "capitalistic" system. The existing institutions should be overthrown, we should adopt the system that prevails abroad.

DEMOCRATIC FAMILY JAR. Hon. A. W. Barkeley comes all the way up from Kentucky to tell us that republicans should not concern themselves over what Mr. Bryan said about Mr. Davis.

Homespun Verse -By Omaha's Own Poet- Robert Worthington Davis STERN IS JUSTICE. Stern is justice, cruel seeming, when a little child at play Gets disgusted with surroundings and decides to run away.

Davis less but that he hates Coolidge more, he "decided to stick." What sort of spectacle does the great moral leader present in this? He decided to stick, to swallow Davis, Morgan, Wall Street, Smith, Brennan and all, that he might have a party and help his brother.

FARMER AND THE TARIFF. Lieutenant Governor Robert F. Rockwell of Colorado, who hopes to be nominated and elected governor, tells the farmers of his state just where he stands on one important issue.

"One of the things which is absolutely necessary to the producer today is the tariff. The American market is still the best market in the world, and with the bars let down, our country would again be swamped with the grain, sugar and cheap meats from South America, Australia, Canada and other foreign countries.

The farmer needs, too, better and cheaper transportation, better facilities for credit, and improved marketing and distributing methods. All these are contemplated in the program laid down by the president in his message to congress last December, and by the platform adopted by the republican convention at Cleveland. Here is the pledge:

"We promise every assistance in the reorganization of the market system on sounder and more economical lines, and where diversification is needed government assistance during the period of transition. Vigorous efforts of this administration toward broadening our exports market will be continued.

Every point Governor Rockwell raised is covered in this plank. It is a promise, too, that will be kept. Last winter the farmers found out who were their friends, when they saw one relief measure after another go down under the onslaught of the democrats and the radicals.

REPARATIONS "POKER" IN PROGRESS. General Dawes may have gone a little beyond diplomatic usage in wiring direct to the American representative at the interallied conference at London.

His field of opportunity having been enlarged, will Brother Charley assure the consumers of the east that he will keep down the rising price of bread in the face of the rapidly rising price of wheat.

Little Finland is prompt to pay Uncle Sam the interest on money borrowed. But little Finland is so busy at work that it hasn't any time to sit around and whine in self-pity.

Aviators now fly after dark by aid of compass. Some very notable flights have been made after night without guide of any sort.

Omaha will be proud to have the globe-circling fliers as guests for a day or two.

NET AVERAGE PAID CIRCULATION for June, 1924, of THE OMAHA BEE Daily 74,616 Sunday 76,224

The Bunk About "Wall Street"

IF WE WERE TO BELIEVE THE POLITICIAN WALL STREET IS FULL OF POP-EYED OGRES WITH HORNS AND FORKED TAILS

AS A MATTER OF FACT IT AND ITS INHABITANTS ARE NO DIFFERENT FROM MOST OF THE MAIN STREETS IN U. S. A.

Letters From Our Readers All letters must be signed, but name will be withheld upon request. Communications of 200 words and less will be given preference.

Answer to a Wailer. Omaha—To the Editor of The Omaha Bee: The only point I gain from reading James W. Hanson's letter in Monday's Bee is that whatever is, is rotten—due, according to this bright "economist," to the fact that republicans are and have been in power.

Jerry Picks a Winner. Omaha—To the Editor of The Omaha Bee: The political situation is a puzzle to our most astute politicians, including Governor Bryan, who seem to be in the absolute dictator as to who shall be the candidate for governor.

NET AVERAGE PAID CIRCULATION for June, 1924, of THE OMAHA BEE Daily 74,616 Sunday 76,224

LISTENING IN On the Nebraska Press. The Eagle Beacon is convinced that the nomination of Davis puts a quietus on the democratic rallying cry of "reactionary."

Spice of Life Ethel—Oh, dear, I'm in such a quandary! Blanch—What's wrong? Ethel—Why, I proposed to Jack last night and he accepted me, and now Tom, who refused me last week, writes that he has reconsidered in my favor.—Boston Transcript.

Give your nature-loving soul a real treat—in the beautiful White River Country in the Ozarks Easily and quickly reached

Wonderful camp life—good hotels—clubs—cottages. Thrilling exploration trips. Fine boating, bathing, fishing—float trips down the James and White Rivers—every mile a miracle of beauty.

ADVERTISING. ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER The fame of a successful remedy is often spread far and wide by women telling one another of its merits, as is evidenced by a letter written by Mrs. Dolbert Bush of Masena, N. Y.

Letters From Our Readers Answer to a Wailer. Omaha—To the Editor of The Omaha Bee: The only point I gain from reading James W. Hanson's letter in Monday's Bee is that whatever is, is rotten—due, according to this bright "economist," to the fact that republicans are and have been in power.

Spice of Life Ethel—Oh, dear, I'm in such a quandary! Blanch—What's wrong? Ethel—Why, I proposed to Jack last night and he accepted me, and now Tom, who refused me last week, writes that he has reconsidered in my favor.—Boston Transcript.

Give your nature-loving soul a real treat—in the beautiful White River Country in the Ozarks Easily and quickly reached

Wonderful camp life—good hotels—clubs—cottages. Thrilling exploration trips. Fine boating, bathing, fishing—float trips down the James and White Rivers—every mile a miracle of beauty.

ADVERTISING. ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER The fame of a successful remedy is often spread far and wide by women telling one another of its merits, as is evidenced by a letter written by Mrs. Dolbert Bush of Masena, N. Y.

SUNNY SIDE UP Take Comfort, nor forget That sunrise never failed us yet

Franklin P. Adams of the New York Tribune and Jay E. House of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, the two most distinguished column conductors in the world, agree that the column conductor who talks most about himself is the one who wins greatest recognition.

That handicaps us beyond hope of success. If we romance about ourself everybody will know it and give us the laugh. If we tell the truth about ourself we'll lose our job.

We gather from consultation with divers and sundry friends who attended the New York convention that they had a fine time socially, but nothing politically that would incline them to favor holding another democratic convention in Gotham.

Noting that Chairman Sackett insists that every voter be given a full and free opportunity to vote his preference, a lot of democrats are hopeful of finding a way to vote for Davis and Dawes.

Since disposing of the family auto, having wearied of paying storage and repair bills, we have lost all interest in the governor's campaign for cheaper gasoline. But if he begins a campaign for cheaper shoes he will at once enlist our enthusiastic approval. It seems that we are compelled to buy a pair of shoes every other day.

Hot weather has solved one of our social problems, at least temporarily. When in doubt about the proper time to remove our hat in the presence of the ladies, bless 'em, we lift it and pretend that we are wiping the perspiration from our noble expanse of brow.

Nebraska Limerick. A plunger who lived in Orleans Spent money beyond his real means. Now caught in the crash He dies on cash. With now and then helpings of beans.

Speaking of the law of supply and demand, what is the reason for the insistent demand for those old-fashioned, tall, dark brown quart bottles?

The present mix-up about getting names on ballots is taken by us to be a vindication of divers and sundry remarks we have made about our primary law. And we hereby broadcast to a breathless public that what we actually think about our present primary law would be barred from the mails if published.

For Wednesday Only Beautiful Hand Decorated TABLE LAMPS $12.50 For Wednesday Only

See Salt Lake City on your way to Yellowstone

Grand Circle Tour of the Rockies Yellowstone, Salt Lake, Colorado $46.00 Round-trip from Omaha

Union Pacific PERSONALLY ESCORTED TOURS Ask about our personally escorted all-expense two weeks tours through Yellowstone and Rocky Mountain Parks.