

We are wearing ourselves out as a nation by our hurry and intensity—too eager to get a living, to be willing to stop to live.—Osgood.

10 DIE AS TRACT TRAIN WHIPS CRACK

Boys Joke as Tale of Franks' Death Told

Unmoved as Parents of Victim Sob

Leopold and Loeb Hear Sorrowing Mother and Father Identify Clothing of Slain Son.

Death Demand Made

Chicago, July 23.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb faced the sorrowing parents of their boy victim today at the bar of justice. They watched them on the witness stand as they told with tear-moist eyes the story of their son's disappearance and heard sob-choked voices whisper affirmative answers to the state's proffered exhibits of the little fellow's clothing.

The Farmers' A the Mon

Corn receipts at the Omaha Grain exchange Wednesday were 33 cars and wheat receipts 30 cars, compared to 72 cars of corn and 70 cars of wheat on the corresponding day a year ago.

Youthful Bandit Confesses to 10 Road Robberies

Breaking down under rigid questioning, John B. Buckles, 19, 1618 Clark street, and J. E. Coughlin, 26, 1426 North Eighteenth street, admitted road robberies extending over the past three weeks to Omaha police early Wednesday morning.

Omaha to Be in Center of Air Routes

High Postal Official Says This City Holds Logical Place in Future Channel Network.

Urge More Air Mail Use

Omaha is the center of a network of air mail channels extending in all directions to important cities was pictured by Col. Paul Henderson, second assistant postmaster general of the United States in a talk before the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday noon.

Endres Blames Hitchcock and Mullen for Jail Feeding Attack

"I guess Mullen and Hitchcock are taking this method to get even with me because I didn't do what they wanted at the New York convention," said Sheriff Mike Endres Wednesday, commenting on a renewed movement to get a bill through the legislature to take the jail feeding from the sheriff and give it to the county.

Coolidge Gets Good News From States in West

Washington, July 23.—Cheering news from important states of the middle west was brought to President Coolidge at the White House today by republican leaders.

Hopkins in Race to Stay, Say Friends

Omaha Commissioner Tosses Hat in Ring—Norton Statement Fails to Catch Standpatters.

Canada Black Rust Adds Millions to U. S. Crop Values

Chicago, July 23.—Black rust, threatening to wreck much of what has been left of the drought-stricken Canadian wheat crop, added many millions of dollars today to the speculative value of farm products in the United States.

Hopkins in Race to Stay, Say Friends

Omaha Commissioner Tosses Hat in Ring—Norton Statement Fails to Catch Standpatters.

Wheat Prices Jump 8 Cents Upon Report From North—Other Grains Follow.

Chicago, July 23.—Black rust, threatening to wreck much of what has been left of the drought-stricken Canadian wheat crop, added many millions of dollars today to the speculative value of farm products in the United States.

Hot? Yes—But Fine for the Corn

Yes, it was hot. Perversingly so. Soda fountain clerks worked overtime. Electric fans did likewise. It was the hottest day of 1924.

Charge of Murder Against 2 Bandit Suspects Dropped

Prosecutor Abandons Effort to Convict Kenny and Reimers, but May File Other Allegations.

Smokestack Crash Kills 4 at Detroit

Occupants of Picnic Conveyance Hurlled 100 Feet in Grade Crossing Accident—10 Injured.

Bodies Badly Mangled

Oak Harbor, O., July 23.—Ten persons were killed and 10 others were injured, more seriously, early tonight, when a New York Central passenger train crashed into an automobile truck at a grade crossing outside this village.

Two Men Burned in Gas Well Fire

Fort Collins, Colo., July 23.—The Mitchell gas well, which came in last Saturday night, caught fire late today. The well has been flowing between 20,000,000 and 25,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day. It is located 13 miles north of here.

Beatrice Faces Water Famine

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee. Beatrice, Neb., July 23.—Beatrice has faced a water famine the past few days because the city wells northwest of town were flooded with muddy water when the blue river overflowed its banks on account of the heavy rains northwest of here.

Cambridge Boy Succumbs to Injuries Received on Fourth

Cambridge, Neb., July 23.—Alfons Ogorzka, a boy, has succumbed to injuries received July 4, when fireworks caught fire in a car in which he was riding. The car ran into the ditch and all occupants were thrown out but Ogorzka, who was the only one hurt. He was severely injured about the head and several specialists were called, but they were unable to do anything for him.

Two Early Cambridge Settlers Die Suddenly

Cambridge, Neb., July 23.—Samuel Brown, treasurer, who had lived here for years, fell dead Tuesday. He was 75 and was still active.

The Weather

For 24 hours ending 7 p. m. July 23: Precipitation, inches and hundredths—Total since January 1, 1924: 3.22.

We Have With Us Today

John Elmer Ferguson, Houston, Tex., Presbyterian Pastor. Rev. Mr. Ferguson is pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Houston, the leading "north" Presbyterian church of that city. On the invitation of a committee seeking a new pastor for the Westminster Presbyterian church of Omaha he preached here last Sunday, and the committee is eager to obtain his services as pastor here.

Gage Farmers Getting High Prices for Wheat

Beatrice, Neb., July 23.—Thrashing operations were resumed in some sections of the county after a delay of a week on account of wet weather. If conditions are favorable much of the wheat crop will be marketed within the next week at the prevailing high prices, more than $1 a bushel.

Married in Council Bluffs

The following persons obtained marriage licenses in Council Bluffs yesterday: Oscar Subramanyam, 22, 11th St., Omaha; and Emma M. Subramanyam, 19, 11th St., Omaha.

Japan Will Not Make War On U. S. Traveler's Belief

Hartington, Neb., July 23.—Giving an account of his trip through the Orient to guests at the home of H. E. Burkett here, H. A. Evans of Sioux City, Ia., who recently returned from the old world, declared "Japan will not declare war against the United States because of the exclusion act." Japan, he said, has been crippled financially by the recent destructive earthquakes and in no way is in condition to equip and transport an army.

Curious Old Coins Owned by Nebraskans Brought to Light

Randolph, Neb., July 23.—Publication of an old American dollar owned by Carl Lange of Hartington has brought to light many curious pieces of money in northeast Nebraska. Z. L. Boughn of Randolph owns a rare and valuable American half-dollar, dated 1808 and apparently made by fusing together two thin pieces of metal. Mr. Boughn also has an American quarter coined in 1831, an American 20-cent piece, a half-cent piece and other coins which have been out of circulation for many years.

War Souvenirs Presented Hartington Postmaster

Hartington, Neb., July 23.—Postmaster Louis R. Ely, who served in the world war, has been presented with a memento of war days in the nature of a dugout sign which was sent to J. G. Beste by a Hartington soldier during the war. The souvenir sign, which was placed over a German dugout during the war, conveys the information that there was shelter for 70 men in that dugout.

Missing Youth Located

Newcastle, Neb., July 23.—M. L. Dougherty, who disappeared from his home in the Daily community several miles southwest of here, the middle of last week, has been located at Sloan, Ia., where he had gone to visit relatives without saying anything about it to his parents.