

Before God's footstool to confess A poor soul knelt, and bowed his head: "I failed," he cried. The Master said: "Thou didst thy best—that is Success." —Selected.

Boy Slayers Bunglers, State Shows

Leopold and Loeb More Murderous Fiends, Blood-Stained Trail Indicates. 20 Witnesses Take Stand By JAMES WHITTAKER. Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, July 24.—Illinois state today in Justice Caverly's part of the local criminal court proved Nathan Leopold, Jr. and Dickie Loeb not so much murderous fiends as murderous fools.

Tunney-Carpentier Fight by Rounds

Round One. Carpentier missed Tunney in the center of the ring with a left to the body and a left and right to the head. The Frenchman rushed, Tunney and peppered him with lightning blows. Carpentier missed a right to Tunney's body with a right to the jaw. They clinched in the center of the ring. Tunney scoring heavily in the infighting, Carpentier got over on him and right to the Frenchman's jaw and Carpentier held on. They were sparring at the bell.

Carp Loses, Technical Knockout

Round Two. Carpentier rushed in, changed his mind, Tunney peppering him with rights and lefts to the body as he stepped back. Both used heavy rights at close quarters, with honors even. Tunney got over a long, left and head Carpentier to the punch. They traded rights. Tunney's left found Carp's face and the Frenchman clinched. Georges missed a right, Tunney catching him with a beautiful right. Carpentier's right eye was cut at the bell.

Must Receive Profits From Prevailing High Prices of Grain, Omaha Business Man Says

Man Who Grows Corn and Wheat Should Protect Himself Against Drop in Market by Holding Crop and Selling Part at a Time, Declares Randall K. Brown. Coal company. Mr. Brown has for years taken the position that the first consideration of the business men in Omaha and throughout the state should be the welfare of the farmer without that there is no prosperity in Omaha or elsewhere in the state.

Randall K. Brown

Gray Silver Farm Grain Firm Head

Harry Keefe, Walthill, Neb., Named First Vice President of New $26,000,000 Marketing Concern. 2 Iowans Made Officers. Chicago, July 24.—Gray Silver of West Virginia, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau federation, today was elected president of the $26,000,000 grain marketing company, representing a merger of five of the largest grain companies in the country, which eventually is to be farmed-owned and controlled, according to plans.

NOMINATED Bosses Put Over Polk County Man

Backed by Bryan, Hitchcock and Mullen, He Goes Over After 17 Ballots Taken. Hopkins Withdraws. Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Lincoln, July 24.—J. N. Norton of Polk will carry the standard of Nebraska democracy in the fall election. At 8:30 last night, on the seventeenth ballot, the democratic state central committee nominated him for governor. His nomination was gained at the expense of Kenneth McDonald, Bridgeport, his only strong opponent from the ninth ballot.

Three Children, Trapped in Room by Flames, Die

Caught After Exit Cut Off by Blaze—Texas Fire Takes Human Toll of Six. Neola, Ia., July 24.—Verna Wilson, 3, was burned to death and Arthur Wilson, 5, and Naomi Wilson, 3, were so badly burned they died late this afternoon in a fire in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson here early today. Two other children escaped, Albert, 11, by leaping from a porch roof and Della, 14, by plunging down the burning stairway. Both parents were slightly burned trying to save the children.

Furious Exchange

In the fourth round, Ratner boxed Berlenbach prettily. Paul swung but Ratner was not there. Few damaging blows were landed in this round. Berlenbach caught Ratner in the latter's corner in the fifth round and in a furious exchange of blows they were mixing it up.

Teacher to Start Dairy

Randolph, Neb., July 24.—G. T. Foon, who has been the agriculture teacher in the Randolph public schools for the past three years, has decided to give up teaching and will enter the dairy business in Illinois.

Place Visits Beatrice

Beatrice, Neb., July 24.—E. E. Placek, democratic candidate for congress, was in Beatrice yesterday. He is making a campaign over the district. He will speak at Diller August 13 and at Ohlawa on August 4.

Harvest Picnic Planned

Dixon, Neb., July 24.—Arrangements are being made for a big harvest picnic to be held here August 15. The picnic, an annual affair, will include a program of speaking, music, games and races.

West Make Parks Tour

Comd, Neb., July 24.—Rev. Victor West and family of Comd have just returned from an extended tour of the middle west, having visited several of the most beautiful of the national parks.

Widely Known Stockman Succumbs to Injuries

Nelson, Neb., July 24.—The body of Nathaniel L. Moore, who died at the Superior hospital, was buried here Wednesday. Mr. Moore fell from a windmill tower on his farm near Nelson, about nine weeks ago, receiving injuries from which he never recovered. He was a farmer and stockman, and was widely known among track men of the state, having visited the fairs for many years. He leaves three sons and one daughter. Robert and Frank Moore are attending the state university and the daughter, Francis, is a member of the McCook school faculty.

We Have With Us Today. C. C. Johnson, Des Moines, Fire Brick Salesman. This Iowan, who is a guest at the Elks club, covers Iowa, Nebraska, St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph in his line of business. He is a keen observer of business conditions in this territory. He stated that business conditions are showing indications of steady improvement. He looks for a marked change within the next 60 to 90 days. He bases this chiefly on activities in his business as well as in general lines. "There is better buying everywhere," he said. "In Des Moines there is a general feeling that the business curve is rising and in Kansas City I found business men optimistic. I was in Waterloo, Ia., and you would be surprised to note the improvement there."

Coolidge to Help Speed Up Dry Law Enforcement. Washington, July 24.—Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league, told President Coolidge today law enforcement must be speeded up. Wheeler said he informed the president "the people are back of us" in seeing that the Volstead act is strictly and relentlessly enforced. He indicated the president promised his hearty co-operation in the drive to dry up America.

More Money for the Farmers. Thirty-three cars of wheat and 44 cars of corn were received at the Omaha Grain Exchange Thursday, compared to 50 cars of wheat and 38 cars of corn received on the corresponding day in 1923. No. 2 hard wheat sold for $1.20 to $1.25, and No. 2 yellow corn at $1.05. In 1923 the same grade of wheat brought 91 to 92-1/2 cents; 82 cents was paid for the same grade of corn.

Skeleton Found; Man, Wife Held. Chattanooga, Ga., July 24.—W. H. Bennett, district freight agent of the Southern railway at Rome, Ga., and his wife are detained at police headquarters here today for investigation in connection with the finding here about a week ago of a woman's skeleton in a shallow grave under a house. It was stated by the chief of police.

Official Confer on Dropping Winner Trains. Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Norfolk, Neb., July 24.—H. E. Dickenson, general superintendent, and other officials of the Chicago & North Western railroad, are conferring with business men between Norfolk and Winner regarding the railroad's application before the state railway commission to take off two passenger trains on the Winner line.

Gas Well Blaze Out of Control. Fort Collins, Colo., July 24.—The gas well of the Union Oil company of California, which was brought in near here Saturday and which caught fire yesterday, still was burning uncontrolled today and company officials said that because of complications it may be several days before the fire is extinguished.

Harvest Picnic Planned. Dixon, Neb., July 24.—Arrangements are being made for a big harvest picnic to be held here August 15. The picnic, an annual affair, will include a program of speaking, music, games and races.

Widely Known Stockman Succumbs to Injuries. Nelson, Neb., July 24.—The body of Nathaniel L. Moore, who died at the Superior hospital, was buried here Wednesday. Mr. Moore fell from a windmill tower on his farm near Nelson, about nine weeks ago, receiving injuries from which he never recovered. He was a farmer and stockman, and was widely known among track men of the state, having visited the fairs for many years. He leaves three sons and one daughter. Robert and Frank Moore are attending the state university and the daughter, Francis, is a member of the McCook school faculty.

The Weather. For 24 hours ending 7 p. m., July 24. Precipitation, inches and hundredths: Total, .02. Total since January 1, 14.82.

Hourly Temperatures. 4 a. m. 62, 5 a. m. 61, 6 a. m. 61, 7 a. m. 62, 8 a. m. 63, 9 a. m. 65, 10 a. m. 67, 11 a. m. 68, 12 m. 69, 1 p. m. 70, 2 p. m. 71, 3 p. m. 72, 4 p. m. 72, 5 p. m. 72, 6 p. m. 71, 7 p. m. 70, 8 p. m. 69, 9 p. m. 68, 10 p. m. 67, 11 p. m. 66, 12 m. 65.

Barometrical. 4 a. m. 30.1, 5 a. m. 30.1, 6 a. m. 30.1, 7 a. m. 30.1, 8 a. m. 30.1, 9 a. m. 30.1, 10 a. m. 30.1, 11 a. m. 30.1, 12 m. 30.1, 1 p. m. 30.1, 2 p. m. 30.1, 3 p. m. 30.1, 4 p. m. 30.1, 5 p. m. 30.1, 6 p. m. 30.1, 7 p. m. 30.1, 8 p. m. 30.1, 9 p. m. 30.1, 10 p. m. 30.1, 11 p. m. 30.1, 12 m. 30.1.