James Manion Eliminates Chick Evans in Western Amateur Golf Tourney

Jimmy Johnston Defeats Held in Third Round

Seckel, 1911 . Champion, Although Off Form, Disposes of Medart on 17th Green, 2 and 1.

Chicago, July 24.-James Manion of St. Louis, Trans-Mississippi champion, will play Albert Seckel of Chi ago, formerly western champion, and H. R. Johnston, Minnesota champion, will meet Burton Mudge of Chicago, former junior champion, in the semifinal rounds of the Western Amateur Golf association tournament at Hinsdale tomorrow as a result of their vic-

The most not-

Manion and the defending chanpion, Chick Evans, who held the title for the eighth time. Manion played that might readily have beaten the best ball of any three star players, and as Evans was not up to his usual form with his irons, the St.

Louis player readily defeated him by the wide margin of 8 and 7. centered in the contest between Johnston and Eddie Held of St. Louis, and it was only on the last nine holes that the Minnesota champion, during a heavy rainstorm, was able to overhaul his opponent, and win, 3 Held had been two up at the end of the first nine and three up at the end of the morning round when he shot a 71 to Johnston's 75, and he maintained this advantage until the 27th hole was passed and they turned into the home stretch Then the rain broke and so did Held, for after halving the 28th hole he won six of the next seven holes finishing with a birdie four on the 500-yard 35th. Seckel, who won the title in 1911, was not playing championship golf most of the time today, but his youthful opponent, William Medart of St. Louis, was still less able and finally
