Wally Shepard Heads Factory

Omaha Men, Headed by Frank Judson, Buy Defiance Starch Co.

Defiance Starch company, located at Twenty-fifth and Cuming streets, a business established in 1898 by the late George A. Joslyn, has been purchased by a group of well-known business men, and Wallace E. Shepard, jr., has been made secretary and manager of the company. Announcement is made by Frank W. Judson, father-in-law of Mr. Shepard. Miss Dorothy Judson and Wallace Shepard were married last April. Mr. Shepard has been associated with the Woodmen of the World.

The Defiance Starch company manufactures both laundry and corn starch. The products are well known throughout the country owing to an extensive publicity campaign conducted by Mr. Joslyn at the time they were first put on the market.

New stockholders of the company are Howard H. Baldrige, Frank W. Judson, George H. Kelly, H. Malcolm Baldrige, Wallace E. Shepard, jr., Harvey Christensen and T. P. Coleman of Omaha, Henry J. Bartenbach of Grand Island, Neb. Officers of the company are: Frank W. Judson, president; H. M. Baldrige, vice president; George H. Kelly, treasurer, and W. E. Shepard, jr., secretary and manager.

"The company, owned by Omaha and Nebraska men, is a 100 per cent Nebraska institution," said Mr. Judson. "The raw product used by this company is grown in this state and the finished product manufactured in Omaha."

Capacity of the business will be greatly increased, according to Mr. Judson. The business, now located at Twenty-fifth and Cuming streets, will be moved into the jobbing and manufacturing district, into suitable and larger quarters. At the time of Mr. Joslyn's death the business was taken over by Arthur M. Pinto, who continued in charge until his death, since which time it has been managed by Mrs. Nellie F. Pinto.

Judge Colby Believed Well on Way to Recovery

Beatrice, Neb., July 26.—Judge (Gen.) L. W. Colby now seems to be on the way to recovery after lingering at the point of death in a Rochester (Minn.) hospital for several days, according to a letter received from Mrs. Colby, who is at her husband's bedside. Despite his nearly 80 years Judge Colby, who is a veteran of the civil, Indian and Spanish-American wars, appears hardly 60 when in good health. His unusually strong constitution and a courage for which he has been famous for many years, are now depended upon to assure his recovery.

Vacationists

PLENTY OF SPORT AT CAMP OKOBOJI

Vacation days at Camp Okoboji start July 26. The period means rest days for the tired girls, fun days for those who want adventure and strenuous days for the athletic ones.

Whole hours fly by as the weary one lies stretched out on Breezy Point. Suddenly she wonders if her tiredness was absorbed by the lake. Before she realizes it, she begins to edge into the circle of a handcraft class or to join a singing group in front of the lodge.

The girls who want the fun of new places and new experiences, glory in their first overnight hike. There is a joy in exploring the lake shore in a rowboat and in naming the birds on a sunrise nature hike.

Those who want the day crowded start with the dip, hurry through setting-up exercises, spend the morning in classes. Then there are life-saving tests and diving form to work on, and boating tests, besides baseball games, tennis tournaments that get exciting in the last rounds. Rest hour alone makes the needed break in the day. In the evening there may be a story-telling hour around the big campfire, a moonlight sing or a star talk just before taps.

Camp Okoboji is operated under the direction of the national board of the Y. W. C. A.

McCloud Returns to York.

York, Neb., July 26.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCloud are home after a seven weeks' trip through the east by auto. They attended both republican and democratic conventions, and the Elks convention, and Mr. McCloud looked after business pertaining to his position as national committeeman for the republican party for Nebraska.

Wests Make Parks Tour.

Cozad, Neb., July 24.—Rev. Victor West and family of Cozad have just returned from an extended tour of the middle west, having visited several of the most beautiful of the national parks.

The Iowa Great Lakes is charted for your fishing. Here you may find your particular "kind" of fish without the delay of searching them out for yourself. Maps are issued showing just where to find each kind of fish.

And fishing is better here—these beautiful lakes, West and East Okoboji, Spirit Lake, Minnewashta, Gar, Hottes Marble and Little Spirit have all been re-stocked with wall eyed pike, adult lake trout,channel cat and other game fish.
