Before the fight he stated that if defeated he would return mome and quit the ring game. Bid he return? He did not. As long is the fight fans will go see him get heat Carpentier will remain on this side of the creek. The fact that Georges is a "has been," or, rather, a "never was," doesn't stop him from pulling the fans in at the gate. He will probably show in Omaha now that he has played his cards as a feature attraction in the east.
