

A GROUP of GEORGE A. CUSTER NO. 82 WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS WOMEN. Back row, left to right: Mrs. Flo Hoyt Patoutie, Mrs. Sara Gardner, Mrs. Olesen, Mrs. Alice Humphrey, Mrs. Georne, Mrs. Kathleen Anderson, Mrs. C. Wamsley, Mrs. I. Koster, Mrs. Mary Bauer, Mrs. Clara Winship. Front row: Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Isodora Smith, Mrs. C. H. Austin, Mrs. M. Hazelton.

VIEW OF IOWA PENINSULA FROM FONTENELLE FOREST. Photo by Louis R. Bostwick.

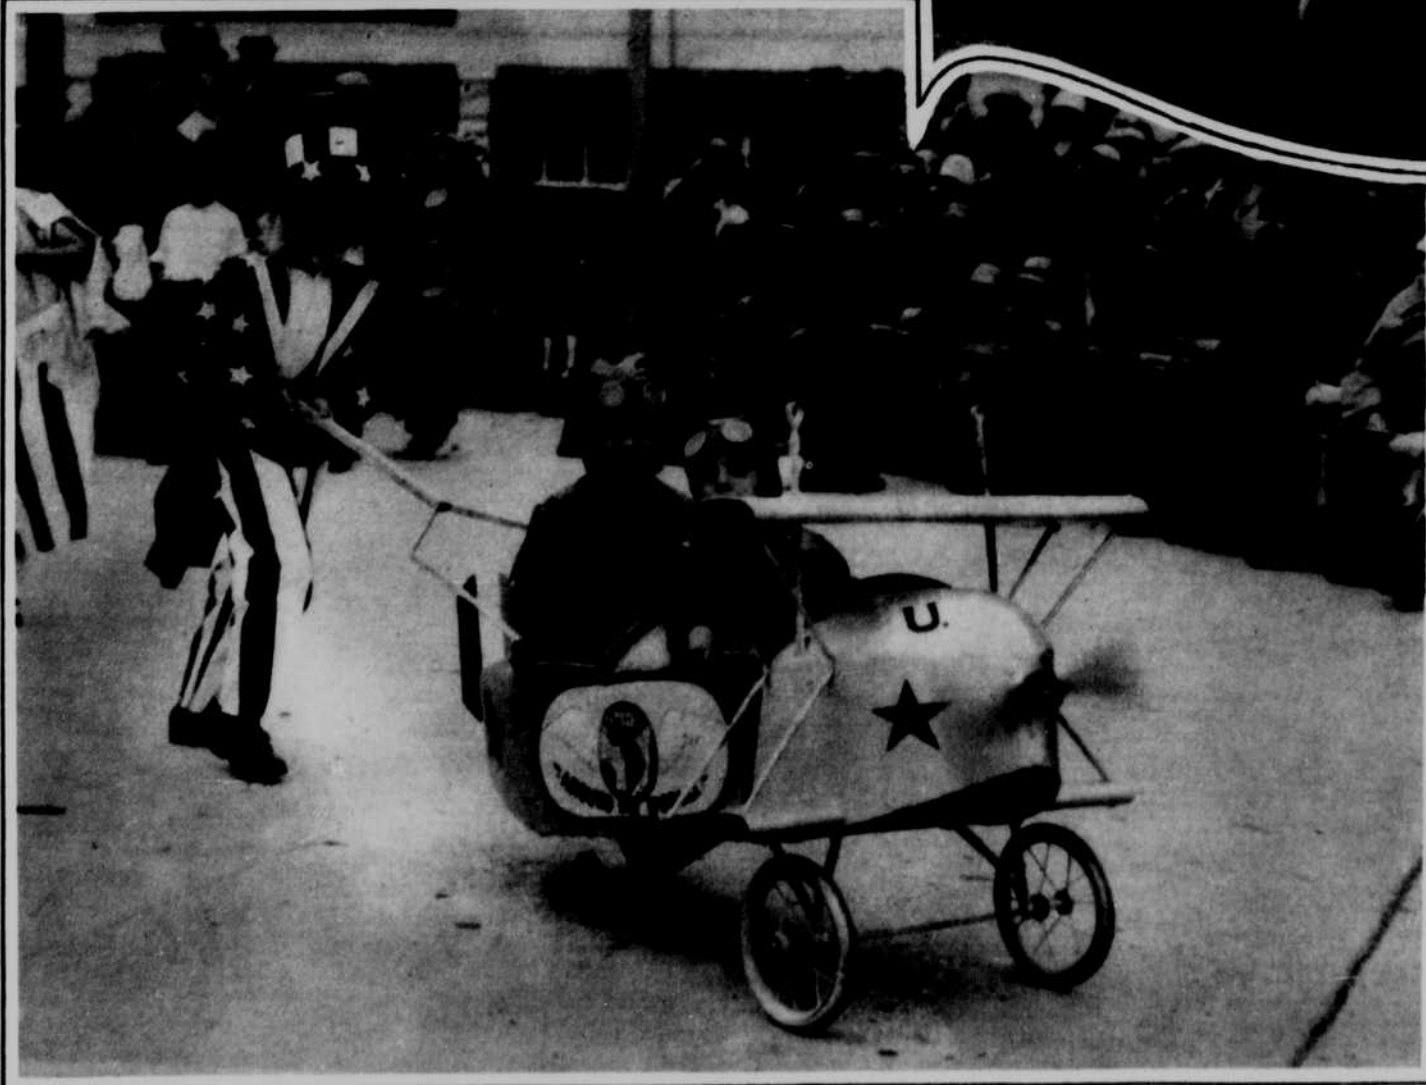

"MECHANICAL DOLL" DIVE IS WHAT HELEN LINDQUEST CALLS THIS POSE. Miss Lindquest, an Omaha girl, has joined the diving revue at Krug Park. Photo by Dewell.

PLENTY OF SPEED. The camera man was speedier than the fair English player for he caught the ball as it was in mid-air just before Miss Betty Nuttall, one of England's best on the court, hit it for a return. P. & A. photo.

A PRIVATE RODEO. Cowgirls have a firm seat wherever they are, while juggling them is nothing to this cowboy giant. The trio are at the Great International rodeo in England. P. & A. photo.

ROUND THE WORLD FLIERS CARRY OFF FURTHER HONORS—in babydom. This unique exhibit won first prize in the kiddies' floral parade at Ocean Park, Cal. P. & A. photo.

IT'S A DOG'S LIFE. Especially when your young mistress feels the effect of the heat wave while out for a ride and has to be helped home.