CITY EDITION

VOL. 54-NO. 44.

OMAHA, TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1924. *

TWO CENTS to Omaha and Council Bluffs

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Out of Race

Lieut. Wade's Craft Forced Down En Route to Iceland; Cut Adrift After Attempt at Salvage.

Rescued by Destroyer From the time that Major Martin @

Aboard United States Steamship early this the Richmond vesterday after Sergt, Arthur M. Ogden, had been forced down at sea by engine trouble while negotiating the hop from Kirkwall, in the Orkneys, to Iceland.

The Richmond's effort to salvage the wrecked plane was abandoned when the machine, which had been save it, the officers cut it adrift. and made for Reykjavík, Iceland.

American army world flight expedi-Two of the dauntless pilots, are at Hoefn Hornafjord, Iceland, rative sufficiently bespeaks their posterior ready to continue on to Greenland session of this quality. and over the bleak watery wastes of the north Atlantic to Labrador, but tale: Lieut. Leigh Wade and Sergeant Rescued by a British trawler and weighing a ton crash through the it aboard the vessel.

The wings of the machine had prev viously been seriouslybeen damaged in The accident during the hoisting process after they had boarded the Richmond sent all their hopes crashing.

By International News Service.

On Board United States Cruiser Richmond, in the North Atlantic, Aug. 4 .- Lieutenant Wade, one of the three United States army pilots, who set out to fly around the world, stood n the disabled airplane which he had piloted more than 20,000 miles. The wrecked plane drifted slowly towards possible. he rock of Faroe islands while the iviator with a sad face looked on.

nond drew away, Wade turned with neath the engine housing, toic courage written upon his face. Vithout a word he walked to his Il right after a few hours' rest. The Richmond took the Boston in but the line parted and the port wing ending, but we just managed to make if the machine was crashed by heavy eas. After experts viewed the mathey said it would quickly be planes, seeing our plight, circled total wreck and not worth trying to about waiting for our signals."

Then it was decided to abandon the airplane to its fate upon the rocks fact narrative, but now Lieutenant of the bleak north Atlantic islands.

We Have With Us Today

Chas. A. Meyer, Los Angeles

Soap Manufacturer.

came "clean from Los Angeles." Nearly 20 years ago he lived in emaha and attended Central High "Of course, he knew it was impos school; then to the University of Ne sible to use the fire extinguisher braska, and pursued a technical ed while we were in the air, but his idea ucation in Germany and at the Bos was to be on the spot and go at the Daris Oline, a teacher, will be marand treasurer of the Los Angeles toon."

50,000,000 pounds of soap Mr. Meyer, whose activities enable grin a protest; him to obtain a broad view of business conditions, stated that general ment on recent observations in west- the tale into its former impersonal is maintaining a high level. Omaha's to his observer, who went on:

Mishap Puts Fatal Mishap to Wade's Plane First in 15,000 Miles of Flying

World Flyer World Fliers, However, Have Had Many Other Harrowing Experiences-Smith's Ship Almost Consumed by Flames Over French Indo-China.

> This is the fourth installment of Hayden Talbot's series on the American world flight. It deals with what the fliers considered their most serious situation in the first 18,000 miles of their trip—when Lieutenant Smith's plane was forced down in French Indo-China, and he consumed two days in getting a new engine. By HAYDEN TALBOT,

Universal Service Staff Correspondent Kirkwall, Orkney Islands, Aug. 4.-Lieut, Leigh Wade is definitely out of the world flight and the other two planes are at Iceland preparing for the hop to Greenland. Wade's plane, the "Boston," has been abandoned by the Richmond, but a British trawler is towing it back to the Farce Islands

Set Record Here:

100 Cars—Improvement

tions Noted.

Wheat Yield Larger.

Corn Is Late.

has been anticipated."

by the university chemists.

by his wife and four sons. Funeral

Minister to Wed.

party will be Miss Effie Hadd of Har-

Married in Council Bluffs.

Charles Edward Korns, Genoa, Neb. Alice Watson, Genoa, Neb.

Name Residence

The following persons obtained mar-ige ticenses in Council Bluffs yester-

Dow cemetery.

"There has been in General Condi-

was lost in Alaska, reducing the world flight expedition to three planes, 15,000 or more miles of air were traversed by the men who left 4.-The Boston, the Houton Bay in the last two days to airplane piloted by Lient, Leigh Wade fight their way to Hornafjord, Ice land, and the loss of the "Boston" is the first real accident to end seri-

Forced Down in Monsoon

However, in other parts of the experiences and just before leaving England, Lieutenants Smith and Ar nold related some of them to me, including a fire which menaced Smith's plane over French Indo-China, forcing him to come down during a monsoon Both Lieutenants Smith and Ar-gradually filling while being towed in nold, in describing the mechanical a heavy sea, capsized. Seeing the imperfection which forced the leader hopelessness of attempting further to of the flight to cut off power and glide downward onto the surface of The Richmond then turned about the water, stressed a point that noth- railroad yards. ing derogatory to the machine should be inferred.

Both insisted that similar defects years, was 676 cars. London, Aug. 4.-Misfortune has might reasonably be expected in the again laid a harsh hand on the most nearly perfect mechanism ever exchange was slow. Only one carload captain Ely, head of the finance deignoring of the human equation and that, graded as No. 2 hard, brought Lieut. Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. their mutual minimizing of their $1.191/2 Eric Nelson, with their mechanics, sheer heroism, surely their joint nar- The total number of carloads of to him their only 24 carloads being received Mon-And here, substantially, is

"Apart from the wretched atmos Ogden, his mechanic, are out of the pheric conditions to which we have running through no fault of their already referred, everything has gone seen an indication that the wheat swimmingly with all three ships.

"Just before this trouble we had estimated. the American destroyer Billingsley been fighting our way through a after they had been forced down at monsoon which we could see had ment in general conditions throughout to be safe-guarded, testimony brought struck at Fiftleth and Q streets early sea by engine trouble on the hop to kicked up some very rough water, the state during the last two weeks," Iceland from Kirkwall, in the Ork. The thought occurred to both of us, said an Omaha banker. "This is due neys, Wade and Ogden stood by help- not at all unnaturally, that our plane to increased prices for livestock, parlessly on the deck of the U. S. S. could not last five minutes if we ticularly hogs, and to the higher Richmond and saw a steel boom should have to land in those moun-prices being paid for corn and wheat. fragile tissue of their plane while experienced the slightest engine dicate that the wheat yield is heavier endeavors were being made to hoist trouble in more than 10,000 miles, it than previously estimated. Bills of paign to make the Missouri river was only a passing thought.

Both Realized Danger

"Then suddenly the thing happened. the forced landing at sea and the It was only a few minutes before we two men had worked for six hours in both knew that something was radia spirit of never-say-die, attempting cally wrong. Both of us sensed the to make temporary repairs which slackening of the driving power. It would enable them to rise again and was as if the propeller blades were is from 10 days to two weeks late, the original and official Meridian highcontinue their adventureous argosy. not biting into the air as they should, but recent favorable weather has giv- way booster. Halle has received a neither of us suspected the truth. "When, however, we saw dense engine, the realization that something CHEMISTS SEEK was radically wrong burst upon us. "Our first fear was that the enbroken and nearly in tears at the rail gine was on fire, or if not that, at of this cruiser at dawn today watching the disabled airplane which he had in the disabled airplane which he had Whatever it was the thing of vital coln are examining the contents of importance was to land as quickly as the stomach of Mrs. Anto Soukup of

"At first glance this look hopelessly out of the question. An instant The plane, the Boston, was a total cutting off of the engine made no imveck by the time the cruiser had pression upon the quantity of smoke bassed out of sight. As the Richthat continued to pour out under-Successful Landing. "Suddenly we spied a lagoon which unk and turned in. He said he was seemed completely landlocked, and as suddenly Friday morning. Thursday Il in for lack of sleep and would be it presently developed, was as calm night she had suffered an attack of as the proverbial millpond, having The Richmond took the Boston in escaped the force of the monsoon. It was a long glide and seemed never

> Up to this point both Smith and Arnold contributed to the matter of

"In the meantime the other two Smith gravely proceeded: "Obviously I had been completely occupied in getting the ship down, but the minute we had landed I dis-

"In the face of the full gale whose force was increased by the speed of our machine, Arnold had grabbed the fire extinguisher, climbed out of his Mr. Meyer may be referred to as after-cockpit, climbed over the struts the man who came back." Also, he and got down to the bottom of the day and interment made in Broken engine. Arnold Quenches Fire.

he went into the soap manufacturing effect that the fire was out by the day night at the Emmanuel Lutheran business. He is now vice president time I had joined him on the pon- church. Members of the wedding Soap company, a concern which ships | Listening to this encomium by his court, Ia., Vernon Benson of Barron. its products to 10 western states and chief, Arnold blushed like a school Wis., Elaine Wallin and Miriam Oline has an annual output of more than boy. His face and neck suddenly be of Essex, Ivan Turnquist, Oscar Walcame flame-colored while he tried to lin and Louis Ekeroth

"It wasn't anything at all." Then as if to get over the embusiness conditions show an upward barrassment in the shortest possible tendency, and he bases this state time, Arnold insisted on diverting ern and northwestern states. He channels. Smith gravely consented B. E. Switzer, Irvington, Neb. added that business in Los Angeles to leave the remainder of the story "As soon as we found out we had Carol M. Wheeler Fingler, Colo.

Ex-Sergeant Accused of

Army Fraud Here-Charged With Forging Discharge

Officers Cause Arrest Picked Up by Trawler

Papers.

the United States army, was bound om at the federal building.

770 Carloads in forged a set of papers, including a Nikalski, Komandorski Islands, discharge paper, and obtained money from the government under names which he manufactured. Only one Odd Mark Broken by Nearly case of this kind was brought out in the hearing, but army officers working on the case say that they McLaren, British round the world have several others which they will flyer, to abandon his flight, according prove in the trial next fall.

Used Captain's Name. Up until March 3 of this year Woodman was a sergeant in the personnel office at Fort Omaha ing when 770 carloads of the grain where he had to fill out discharge papers such as he is alleged to have orged after his own discharge

Witnesses testified that he sent a The record for wheat receipts, private from the fort down to the which has stood for more than two finance office with the papers on which he had forged the name of Trading on the floor of the Grain Capt. L. S. Toole, fort commandant. devised. But in spite of their obvious of wheat had been sold at 10:30 and partment, became suspicious of the papers and found that they did not belong to the man who brought them

> Secured Army Blanks, Captain Ely filled out the check, but gave the private instructions to hand the reply directly to Captain SEARCH FOR DEATH Toole, who immediately had Wood-

The charge against Woodman is deyield is larger than was previously frauding the government. It is not known where he got the blanks which he filled out as they are supposed

> FREE BRIDGE PLEA Columbus, Neb., Aug. 4.-A cam-lading show that most of this wheat bridge, to be completed at Yankton, s Nebraska wheat. In Nebraska s D., October 15, a free bridge in ter at the time of the accident, testihere is an unusually heavy acreage stead of a toll bridge by having Neof corn, mostly in excellent condi-braska and South Dakota purchase the soldier was attempting to pass the structure from the present stockholders, has been launched by John autos were going between 30 and 35 "In some parts of the state corn Halle, St. Helena, Neb., for 12 years But in the unusual atmospheric conditions which caused our instruments maturity before frost. In this event Masters of South Dakota that the ans were imperiled by the fact that to show 1,000 feet elevation at sea the state will work out of its over- northern state will co-operate in the no sidewalk existed. He urged jurors level, and considering the monsoon, extended condition much sooner than plan and left Columbus today for Lin- to recommend the laying of sidecoln, where he will visit Governor walks. Charles Bryan with the same object toll charges of 50 cents for auto a fractured skull. Numerous cuts and in view. Halle asserts that present and driver and 10 cents for a pedes-

CAUSE OF DEATH and driver and 10 ce

Page, to ascertain whether she died Clifford Baldwin, motorcycle offiof natural causes. A preliminary reer, was dismissed from the police port received by County Attorney J. orce again Monday by Chief of Police Charles Van Deusen. presence of some corrosive substance, The chief permitted Baldwin's reyet to be determined, has been found

Mrs. Soukup, wife of Anton Soukup, Bank of Irvington had been disa farmer residing near Page, died missed. The reinstatement was on condition that Baldwin suitably support and respect his wife and children. hysteria and a physician was called. A coroner's jury was impaneled Sat-Monday from a woman whom Van urday afternoon and an adjournment Deusen had questioned, the chief de taken pending the report of the clared that Baldwin had broken his word and dismissed him once more. Mother and Daughter Tea

Mrs. Soukup had threatened suicide. Poultry Show Planned at Farmer Near Broken Bow Mid-Nebraska Exposition Drops Dead in Pasture Columbus, Neb., Aug. 4.--Efforts Broken Bow, Neb., Aug. 4.-Benja- are being made by the board of di- ter tea in the church parlors. Forty min F. Welch, 70, residing four miles rectors of the Midnebraska Agriculwest of Broken Bow, died suddenly tural Exposition association, which by side at the banquet table. A fine of heart failure. Mr. Welch had gone embraces nine counties in central program was given, with Mrs. Wilher to the pasture early in the morning northeastern Nebraska, to have the W. Anness as toastmistress. Mrs. covered what Arnold had been up to to look after the cattle and as he Platte Valley Poultry and Pet Stock Dr. J. E. Bloomingdale of Nebraska in the meantime. And I would like to did not return when the family association hold its show in conjunctive and her mother were special say this was about as nervy a stunt thought he should a rearch was in- tion with the exposition September guests of honor. The committee in stituted. He was found just as he 25 to 26, instead of the first week in charge consisted of Mrs. Earl Seyfer, was breathing his last. Mr. Welch and family came to Cus- meeting August 14, at which time Lowrey, Mrs. Will Lowrey and Mrs. ter county in 1891. He is survived they will vote on the proposal.

> Chautauqua at Beatrice. services were held at the home Sun-Beatrice, Neb., Aug. 4.-Beatrice Chautauqua assembly opened here Shenandoah, Ia., Aug. 4.-Miss first number. The Skibinsky players and John Clark Ketchem appeared Judge Wilson. ton Tech. He intended to be an engijob the instant we did land. And that ried to Rev. J. Sigfred Benson of on the program Saturday afternoon neer, but in the whirligig of affairs is what he did do, and with such good Uchling. Neb., at 6 o'clock Wednesand evening.

Child Bitten by Snake. Beatrice, Neb., Aug. 4 .- Fay, the ttle daughter of Mr. adn Mrs. S. Roy Diller of the Diller vicinity, was bit den on the upper lip, supposedly by a bullsnake, while playing out in a field. A physician cauterized the Girl Kicked by Horse.

Beatrice, Neb., Aug. 4.- Estel Britton, living near Crab Orchard, was kicked in the head by a horse, and for a time her condition was serious. An ugly scalp wound was 21 serious. An ugiy scarp 21 inflicted. The girl is under the care

MacLaren Abandons Globe Trip

Bound Over to District Court Plane Smashed Beyond Repair in Siberia, He Wires; Hull and Engine Salvaged.

By Associated Press Cordova, Alaska, Aug. 4.-Maj. A over to the district court and bond Stuart MacLaren, leader of a flight was set at $5,000 after a preliminary around the world by British soldier hearing before Commissioner Boehler, that started at Calshot, England held Monday afternoon in the court- March 25, announced in a wireless message received here today that the Witnesses testified that Woodman adventure had been abandoned at

> By International News Service Cordova, Alaska, Aug. 4.—It will be necessary for Commander Stuar to delayed radio dispatches reaching here today from the Canadian trawler Thiepval

According to meager dispatches received from the Thiepval, the wings, floats and tail unit of MacLaren's plan were shashed in an accident off the Siberian coast and, as no spare parts were available, repairs could The hull, gears and engine of the plane were salvaged, and with Mac-Laren and his flying companions were taken aboard the Thiepval. The Thiepval arrived at Nikolkski 5:45 p. m. last night.

It had been assigned to patrol S berian waters during MacLaren's attempt to fly from Kuriles Islands to Canadian soil.

CAR ORDERS JURY

ound that L. J. Dexter, Fort Crook the American embassy. soldier, came to his death by being Monday morning by an unidentified ear driven by an unidentified driver. hend the parties in the death car, ing to fears expressed here today. IS MADE BY HALLE hend the parties in the death car. The inquest was held at the Heafey and Heafy chapel, South Omaha. Al Berry, Fifty-first and U streets, who was walking 40 feet behind Dex-fied that the machine which struck another car at the time. He said both miles an hour. W. A. Foster, deputy sheriff, testified to the narrowness of the street at The coroner's physician testified that Dexter died almost instantly of bruises were about the body. The im-

U. S. CRUISER GOES

rulser Trenton has been ordered to proceed to Persia to take on board and carry back to the United States the body of Robert W. Imbrie, the instatement on the department Friday American vice consul at Teheran, after a charge of robbing the State who was killed by a mob recently The vessel will leave here Friday. Thirty-two sailors from the Trenton oday rendered military honors at the inveiling of a tablet here in honor of Following the receipt of a letter Italy's war dead. Homer M. Byington, the American consul general, at tended the ceremony.

sington of the Presbyterian Mission end of a violent rainstorm. ary society gave a mother and daugh mothers and 40 daughters sat side December. Poultry men will hold a Mrs. Reuben Johnston, Mrs. Walter W. W. Anness. The event will be observed annually after this.

> Cook Plea Refused. Fort Worth, Tex., Aug. 4.-Th

Wheat Receipts Set New High Mark Wheat receipts at the Omaha train exchange Monday were 770 ars, and corn receipts 26 cars, ompared to 275 cars of wheat and 3 cars of corn on the correspond-ng day of 1923. It was a new record for wheat at the Omaha market. $1.19 to $1.22, and No. 3 yellow orn sold for $1.08, compared to 91°c to 98c paid for the same grade of wheat, and 81c for the same grade of corn on the same day a year ago.

Loeb Says "Nothing Inside Me," When Desperate Unmoved by Sight of Mrs. Franks

Leopold, According to Dr. Healy, Abandons Plan to Write Book in Jail to Preserve His Intellect, and Now Hopes to Make Speech on Gallows if Hung.

> By JAMES WHITTAKER, Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

Chicago, Aug. 4.-At the risk of mesmerizing everyone, including Justice Caverly, to a state of aberration in which millions of persons who did not kill Robert Franks will seem less sane than two murderers, the Leopold-Loeb defense desumed today its process of explanation of the crims.

In the end it will be, by machinery of paradox, a justification. Dr. William F. Healy, of Boston, succeeding Dr. White of Washington, on the stand, has a paraphrase of the latter's testimony which persuades, such is the power of reiteration. "Dickle Loeb and Babe Leopold, estimony into the record. The incident gives a false value to Dr. Healy's story suggesting that it will differ from Dr. White's nursery tale of Only Whispers Once.

At this late date, for instance, Dr.

The difference is fictitious.

Healy does not whisper again.

the law will give him that floor:

At one time this apology of Le

Slayers Love Jall.

They don't mind it. They love it.

I pictured to myself as a child."

Judge Loses Interest.

"Loeb told me he looked forward to feelings of emotion when Mrs.

Franks, the mother of the slain child, took the stand. Well, he was dis-the Issue of the Proclamation."

Dividend Declared.

The Weather

me-nothing."

ing a life sentence to tail?"

interjects:

answer:

of jailbirds, which is sloth.

tion of his intellect.

increased horror

testified Dr. White's understudy, "had U.S. Investigates Killing of British Subject in Mexico

Plans Formal Protest to Government-England Asks for Prompt Action in Affair.

London, Aug. 4.-The British forign office today asked the United States to investigate the killing of Mrs. Rosalie Evans, a British subject, in Mexico, and also to protect all of Great Britain's rights in this af-

Washington, Aug. 4.-Arthur Schoeneld, American charge d'affaires at overnment, will present a formal protest to the Mexican government ed here today.

between Great Britain and Mexico, led a very consistent career." nd in view of the recent departure of the British charge d'affaires from pold was to have been a book-a thick A coroner's jury Monday afternoon Mexico City has been handled through Mexico City, Aug. 4 .- The rupture widened by the killing of Mrs. Rosalie was drawing from the contents of a main portal where two were fired It was recommended that the sheriff Evans, a British subject, near her fat brief case by dusk, has a whole ranch in the state of Puebla, accord chapter for the subject of the indifference of Leopold and Loeb to jail, Mrs. Evans was on her way to her en assassins shot her, firing 10 bullets into her body. It is be lieved that the killers were agrarians who sought to take possession of the oman's ranch thetic. He says: A force of troops has ben dispatched to the scene of the killing from the nearest garrison town. However, the murderers had a 12-hour start and got into the mountains before the in his wakeful resistance to a week soldiers arrived. Secretary of State Colugna deplored witness stand, refuses his tears. He he shooting.

A sister of Mrs. Evans lives in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Evans was one of the most icturesque figures in Mexico. She attention to Leopold, who has another was fully capable of managing her lectable bon-bon, crime: property alone. She made her ranch one of the garden spots in Mexico. fense counsel, Walter Bachrach?" is The mine has several miles of underpact of the death car knocked Dex. She was a natural born farmer and one of the questions Babe has been ground huts and tunnels, it is said, her success with crops and flowers asked. angry with jealousy.

The foreman of Mrs. Evans' ranch, ohn Strauss, a German citizen, who it. I find nothing in my nature to rage begins. was riding with her, was seriously prevent my doing it again."

CEDAR RAPIDS HAS

LIGHT RAINFALL ninutes past 10 a. m., August 4, 1924. snow fell in Ceder Rapids. Weather sharks are advised to prenemory of the oldest inhabitant snow just the same, as a score of re- the window. Held at Church in Dunbar Hable persons are prepared to swear, Dunbar, Neb., Aug. 4.-Ladies' ken- if necessary. The snow came at the that justifies the exclamatory cough: added the speaker.

Star May Be Wed.

New York, Aug. 4.-If George Walsh, motion picture actor, married appointed. He tried, he says, but he Miss June Mathias of Salt Lake City, couldn't feel a thing. So he too, says: Utah, a scenario writer, relatives of neither in New York knew anything about it today. They were waiting or the couple to arrive from Rome, where the marriage is reported to have taken place.

Threatened With Hatchet.

Robert S. Hangen threatened his ife, Frances, 3004' South Seven teenth street, with a hatchet, declarwith a large attendance for a run of plea of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, for ing he would split her head open, a week. The sessions are being held mer explorer and convicted oil pro-she testified in domestic relations at Athletic park. "Buddies" was the moter, for release on a writ of habeas court, where she obtained a divorce corpus, was refused today by Federal Monday. He left her without food Alleged Slayer Held.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 4.-Said to be wanted in Salina, Kan., on a murter charge, Leonard Peterson was aken into custody here today. ording to the authorities here, Peterson fled from Salina with a young woman, who accompanied him to Lo-Angeles.

Nine Gamblers Fined.

Franklin, Neb., Aug. 4.-Sheriff C. G. Garrett visited the rendezvous of a bunch of gamblers near Riverton and arrested nine men, all of whom pleaded guilty and were fined $2 and 1 costs each

Means Used to Nab Trio

Postoffice Robbers Seek Refuge in Colorado Mine Saturday and Pursuers to Force Them Out.

Gunman Believed Shot

Grand Junction, Colo., Aug. 4 .-Chlorine gas will be forced into the Palisade mine, near Palisade, Colo., tonight in the hope of driving the three men who are alleged to have robbed the Palisade postoffice last Saturday of more than $15,000 in stamps e mentioned in open court, and Dr. and cash, from the property.

According to officials, the robbers took refuge in the mine late Satur day. One of the men tried to escape Sunday night but met a volley of shots from officials and retreated into wicked wooly Teddy Bears by a bit of the mine and it is believed he was

Early in the day officers announced they had abandoned the plan to force gas into the mine, but tonight their plans were changed and Martin Wenhas nothing to tell that he could not ger, postoffice inspector, and Sheriff megaphone.

Jeff Watson of Palisade came to Grand Junction and obtained a sup-Healy cannot curdle any blood with ply of the gas, which will be forced his story of Leopold's intentions to into the mine through the fans which make a thrilling gallows speech, if regulate the circulation of air within the property

"Leopold told me that the important Late this afternoon officers guardthing in this trial is not the saving ing the mine fired at two men who Mexico City, acting for the British of his life, but rather the preserva- had taken raefuge in the property and who sought to escape. It was "He hoped that he would be given believed one of them was wounded.

against the slaying of Mrs. Rosaile the chance to make a last speech if During the afternoon the imprison-Evans, a British subject, it was learn. his sentence was such that a last ed men were active within the mine. speech would be necessary. In this according to the watchers outside, and Diplomatic relations do not exist speech he would show that he had it was believed they were suffering from thirst or hunger. It is said there is no water inside the mine Deputies are of the opinion that food Mexico British official business in book. Babe, apparently, for all his and water was to have been supplied indifference to the fact of imprison- by a confederate, but that he failed ment, has fallen victim to the habit because of the close guard maintain-The doctor, who began his testi- pects were heard at both air enbetween Mexico and England may be mony briskly and without notes, but trances at the mine and later at the > Men May Make Break It was believed the men would make a break from the mine after darkness

"Dick's insistence that he is com-Electric lights have been over the mountain side and at all enfortable in fail and finds pleasure in the wearing of his jail clothes is pa- trances. The mine portal is well up the side of the mountain and spot-"'I'm living it out. It's just what lights that were played about the entrance last night were visible for State's Attorney Crowe, marvelous long distances.

About a dozen mine employes had of intellectual optum smoke from the been sworn in as deputy sheriffs. Inspector Winger and Sheriff Wat son late today ordered no one to fire "Did Loeb say anything about lik- on the suspects if there is a chance to call on them to surrender. The doctor discreetly transfers his It was said by those directing the man hunt that unless the men are had been a widow for many years, but way of expressing relish for this de near the portal of the mine when chlorine gas is forced into the prop-"Would you murder your own de erty that those inside will perish. and a considerable time will be remade the agrarians living near her In dulcet voice the doctor reads the quired to force the gas through with the aid of fans. The portals will be "I would if there was anything in closely guarded when the cas bar-

OCCUPATION LACKS 'No emotion at all." the doctor explodes with unconcealed enthusiasm. Lucky doctor. He has had the privi-BRITISH SANCTION lege of examining something as rare and as thrilling to his scientific heart London, Aug. 4 .- "Nothing that as a man with no windpipe or a baby Great Britain has achieved since th Cedar Rapids, Ia., Aug. 4.—At five with an eye in the back of its head. allied reparations conference opened shall be construed as British en He wants Justice Caverly to un-dorsement of military occupation of derstand this. He coughs three times the Ruhr or separate action by serve this for posterity for it has to divert the court's attention from a France." Premier MacDonald an never happened here before in the window giving one the vista of Chi- nounced in commons this afternoon cago harbor. On the eighteenth day Premier MacDonald explained the The snow was in fine particles and of this trial Justice Caverly, for the allied agreement, saying it had its nelted as fast as it wil, but it was first time, is caught looking out of defects, but they were due to the Versailles treaty. The doctor proceeds with matter "We will work to correct them,

> Good Morning George! By Cinnamon Toast.

Good morning George! Good morning Mr. Toast! What's the news abroad this morn

Well, there happens to be some residents of Shenandosh attended thing about a feller from abroad. Peggy Joyce tried him out on lo rabill, Clarinda, Monday. Following cation but she says he don't screen the barbecue dinner a program was so good. He cross-examines her and given. Rev. B. January spoke on says she counted her before husbs "The Condition of the Race Before with only two fingers up and the rest folded in and she should have signaled with her whole hand. He allows Peggy is O. K. in pictures I Monday. He left her without food or fuel and then returned and broke Standard Oil company of Indiana to day declared a 624-cent dividend on capital stock, payable September 15

Alleged Slaver Held to stock of record August 18, it was announced at the local office of the was mostly on bank checks.

But P. J. she got the writer ramps and as she couldn't pitch with her left and had to carry her right in a sling, that changed her checking account to time deposit. Which ain't moonbeam music and a dry well don't 4. help your thirst none. Now Peggy wants him to give back her old gray suit which she says was only his while he was hern. She says from now on she is going to be a old maid, but she didn't fill in the figures se Remember the picnic this evening we don't know how old. Car here at 4. sir.

"There's nothing at all inside of Emancipation Day Observed. ing! Shenandoah, Ia., Aug. 4.-Colored Emancipation day observance at Lake