Trade Union Groups Organize for Spirited Campaign in His Behalf.

International News Staff Correspondent Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 4.-Labor's fight to put Robert M. La Follette in the White House is on, The executive council of the Amer ican Federation of Labor in session here today decided to organize th most vigorous political campaign ever attempted by the trade union groups of this country, behind the ticket headed by La Folette and Senator

By KENNETH CLARK.

Orders are to be issued which wil press into the campaign each of the 3,000,000 members of the federation in every city. Speakers will tour the country and tons of literature in behalf of laber's presidential choice will be distributed.

Dawes Rapped. The report formally announcing ndorsement of La Follette is a com and democratic platforms along with the republican and democrat candidates. It points especially to Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential candidate as "one of the most outspoken enemies of labor and founder of an organization dedicated to the task of writing into all political platforms planks calling for an anti-unior shop, a movement which has long been opposed by the federation."

The LaFoliette platform is sance tioned as regards domestic issues and reservation is made only under the defense of the rights and interests of the wage earners and the farmers,"

the report says. Mrs. Beunita Henkel Dies. Beunita Henkel, 29, 2924 North Fit
